Co-Operation Needed

It must now be wholly clear that if the new world order, based upon freedom, is to assume definite shape, this can only be effected through the leadership of the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States of America working in whole-hearted co-operation toward this great end. On such a foundation of unity of purpose and effort all free peoples may well hope to build an enduring new world order.

"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: For the first heaven and the first earth were passed away and there was no more sea . . . And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for former things passed away."

A new heaven and a new earth

—are not these in very truth what we seek today?

A heaven to which men, women and little children no longer will look in fear, but where they may gaze again in silent worship and in thankfulness for the benediction of sun and rain; an earth no longer scarred by warfare and torn by greed, but where the lowly and humble of all races may work in ways of pleasantness and walk in paths of peace.

And the sea no longer will be the scene of conflict nor harbor any menace; it, too, will gladden the hearts of men as it united in friendly intercourse the nations of the world.

Vision Renewed

Then . . . . "shall all men's good be each man's rule and universal peace, like a shaft of light across the land and like a lane of beams athwart the sea thro' all the circle of the golden year."

This new heaven, this new earth is a vision which at this time of the war unites, inspires and guides Britain, Canada and other nations of the British Commonwealth, the United States and our Allies in all parts of the world. No lesser vision will suffice to gain victory. No lesser service to humanity will hold the faith and win the gratitude of mankind.
