

- on departure of expedition against the Mohawks, 30; thanksgiving services at, 36; Talon's coal-mine at, 51-2; municipal government in, 67-68; Courcelle meets Indians in council at, 110.
- Quebec Seminary, and tithes, 88; and the Frenchification of the Indians, 91-2.
- Raffaix, Father, and the Iroquois expedition of punishment, 30.
- Randot, intendant, issues ordinance restraining the breeding of horses, 61.
- Récollets, friars of the Franciscan order, with Talon on his eventful voyage to New France, 102-3, 108.
- Richelieu, Cardinal, and New France, 1.
- Richelieu river, forts constructed on, 17-18.
- Robineau de Bécancourt, René and Pierre, overseers of roads, 69, 70.
- St Charles river, shipbuilding at, 122.
- Saint-Lusson, Simon François Daumont de, sent by Talon on exploring expeditions, 115-17.
- Saint-Martin, Sieur de, requested by Talon to teach mathematics, 126.
- Saint-Maurice, forges at, 124.
- Saint-Ours, Captain de, settles in New France, 59, 128.
- Saint-Simon, M. de, sent by Talon on exploring expedition to Hudson Bay, 118-19.
- Saïtres, Colonel de, and the Iroquois, 17.
- Sault Sainte-Marie, great Indian gathering at, 115-16.
- Seigneurial system, and Talon's policy of granting concessions, 127-8.
- Senecas, negotiate peace with Tracy, 25, 27; Courcelle's expedition against, 111-12.
- Sorel, Captain de, and the Iroquois, 17, 28-9; settles in New France, 59, 128.
- Souart, M., and the education of Canadians, 94.
- Sovereign Council, composition and powers of, 4-5, 68; councillors of in 1665, 15-17; a tribunal of superior jurisdiction, 21, 74-5; as a court of appeal, 63; and trade regulations, 64-7; fixes the millers' fee, 69; opens roads, 69; the guardian of public morality and order, 70-1; its ordinances concerning the importation of spirits and the establishment of breweries, 71-3; enactments for and against the brandy traffic, 77-84; on social festivities in Quebec, 87; on the tithes question, 90-1; fixes the price of wheat, 104.
- Sulpicians, 94; and the Frenchification of the Indians, 125.
- Talon, Jean, intendant of New France, 6; his family and early career, 7; receives his commission and instructions as intendant of New France, 7-8; his letter to Colbert on