TARTE IN HALIFAX.

Halifax Herald.
It appears that Mr. Tarte is not only trying by means of special envoys to solidify the French vote in this province in favor of the trio of lawyers who are evidently content to be his tools, but he is trying to bribe the people by wasting public money on "fake" operations. The spectacle exhibited around the old market building in this city, is an excellent lesson for any elector who wants to know who is behind the local government. That government is not relying on the honest votes of the honest electors of this province, but on Tarte with his race cries and his hoodie bags.

Carrie Nation is being criticized for making an attack upon women for wearing tight corsets, in her lectures on drunkenness. This is quite a mistake. Carrie is quite logical. Women should not go on the tight spinnings then men.

TOWN OF THAMESVILLE

John Glassford, of Chatham, was in town last week.

Harland C. Colby, of Chatham, was a Thamesville visitor last week.

The work on the new residence of E. S. Hubbel is progressing slowly.

D. McAlpine, of London, was in town yesterday. He left this morning for Chatham.

R. A. Hughes, of Windsor, inspector of weights and measures, was in town over night.

Eugene Mills, of Windsor, a former Thamesville boy, is visiting his parents in town.

W. N. Drader, manufacturer of cooper's supplies, was in town yesterday on business.

H. Hibbert, of London, was a Thamesville visitor yesterday. He left last evening for Chatham.

Mrs. Thomas Davis has returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Clearville.

A special meeting of the Salvation Army workers will be held in Dresden next Thursday night. Graham, of this place, will attend.

Mrs. Howatt, who has been seriously ill, is gradually recovering. The operation which she was forced to undergo was very successful and it is expected that her health will soon be restored.

Arch. Monteath was fined $50 a short time ago for selling liquor to Indians. One of the Indians, named Dolsen, skipped out but was captured at Chatham and brought back to Thamesville, where he was let off on suspended sentence.

Humbert Graves, grocer, is improving his grocery store with a fresh coat of paint and is bricking and tinning his barn. Mr. Graves is the possessor of a fine gray wall and is now making preparations to have it utilized in heating his residence.

Mr. Syers, the local miller, reports that the wheat crop around Thamesville has this year been almost an entire failure and very little wheat is coming in and what does come is of a very poor quality. As a result there are practically no shipments of flour, except a few cars each day.

Mr. Scott, our local grain dealer, reports that beans and other seeds are coming in quite freely. The price paid for beans is from $1.00 to $1.25 and clover seed $1.25 to $1.75. The prices in both are tending downward. There is practically no wheat coming in and the samples shown are of very poor quality. Coarse grains are at a standstill; receipts are very light.

A large crowd attended the production of "The Lone Free Mine," given by an amateur opera company in Ridgetown last week and thoroughly enjoyed the play. They report a good attendance not only from Ridgetown but also from the neighboring places. Negotiations are now in progress to have an exchange with our company and the one at Ridgetown.

The Thamesville Dramatic Club is creating considerable interest around town. On the evening of their presentation of "The Miller's Daughter," they received excellent patronage. The net receipts were $100, which the company donated to the Public Library Board, and the result has been that the library has been put on a sound financial basis and is now able to pay this year's expense and wipe off a considerable amount of standing debt. The club will likely give the same play in Wallaceburg on the evening of the 16th of October.

A very interesting wedding took place at Croton last week, when one of our townsmen, D. F. Hazelwood, was united in marriage to Miss McIntyre, daughter of W. C. McIntyre, of Croton. The happy ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father. After spending their honeymoon at the Pan-American hotel in Toronto, the bride and groom will take up their residence here. Miss McIntyre is one of the most popular of Croton's ladies, while Mr. Hazelwood is the proprietor of one of the most prosperous hardware stores in the town. Their many friends in both places all join in wishing them a very happy and prosperous journey through life together.

The second anniversary of the Methodist Church will be celebrated a week from next Sunday. Rev. A. I. Warner, principal of Alma College, St. Thomas, will conduct the services. He will be assisted by Rev. Jasper Wilson, of Ridgetown. Three services will be held—morning, afternoon and evening. W. B. Albertson, the leader of the choir, has prepared a lot of special music, which will be heard at each service. The choir of St. James' Presbyterian Church, Ridgetown, will furnish the music for the afternoon service. Rev. Mr. Blatchford, the pastor of the church, is doing all in his power to make the service a success. A tea-meeting will be held the following Monday evening.

A very sad accident occurred here on Sunday as a result of which a young named Elles, son of Joseph Elles, of this place, will in all probability lose his life. The little fellow was driving the milk wagon belonging to Elmo Vince, while Mr. Vince was riding at the rear of the rig delivering the milk to his customers. The horse became frightened and ran away. Elles was thrown from the seat and kicked by the infuriated animal. Mr. Vince escaped without injury while the wagon and harness were considerably damaged. The little boy Elles was removed to his home and Dr. Stewart summoned, when it was discovered that the boy's skull had been fractured, causing concussion of the brain. He is still very low but hopes are held out for his recovery.

Considerable interest is being shown by local politicians over the approaching election in East Kent. A meeting of the local Liberal Association was held here last evening. It is a matter of considerable discussion as to who will be the Liberal Candidate. There are a large number of aspirants for position, and each one is doing his best to gain the desired nomination. Among those whose names are most frequently mentioned here are George Johns, of Bothwell, Malcolm Campbell, of Ridgetown, and S. P. Sturgis, of Dresden. Mr. Johns is quite confident, and his friends are doing all in their power to encourage him. Malcolm Campbell feels equally as confident, while Mr. Sturgis thinks that his claims to the honorable position are of the best. He is very enthusiastic over the matter and it is rumored that he is not chosen candidate by the coming Liberal convention he will stand anyway. His friends and supporters think that if someone else is selected candidate and Mr. Sturgis stands, he will have no trouble in defeating all other competitors and will be elected member by a large majority. This, of course, as yet is a matter of conjecture. Dr. Wiley, of Dresden, is also spoken of as a popular candidate for the position. Jonas Gossell, of Highgate, and Warden C. L. Venguntzen are also spoken of as fit subjects for the nomination. The Liberal convention will be held in Ridgetown, on Monday, Oct. 21, and on the following Thursday, Oct. 24, ex-Warden J. Davidson, president of the East Kent Conservative Association, has called a meeting of the Conservative executive to be held in Chatham.

The universal mark of manhood is manliness. Possessions and position are mere accidents of local conditions. Forbearance and self-control smooth the road of life and open ways which otherwise remain closed.

Theatrical

The initial number of the Lyceum course was presented at the Grand last evening and was well worthy of the liberal patronage extended. The program included contributions by the Mendelssohn Male Quartette, Miss Augusta Grimm, elocutionist, and Prof. Hendrickson, magician.

It was really an excellent bill of fare. Every feature was good and elicited hearty applause.

Surfaced to say that the audience was a critical one and none went away dissatisfied.

The remaining numbers of the Lyceum Course, give promise of many other delightful evenings.

Notwithstanding the large house at the Grand last evening, we are informed by the management that the house was completely emptied within ten minutes actual time. In event of haste both exits could be used when half that time would be required.

To-night and to-morrow night at the Grand, Ferguson & Mack, the great Irish comedy acrobatic comedians, appear with fifteen supporters in McCarthy's Mishaps. This play is put on in three very funny acts, and incidental to the play there will be several high class specialties.

THE BOSTONIANS.

Sparkling music, interpreted by America's greatest light opera company, the Bostonians, is a treat announced for music-lovers at the Grand, Thursday, Oct. 17. So much has already been said and written about the famous troupe that little remains to be added. The personnel of the company this season, exploiting as it does the greatest favorites of the comic opera stage, will undoubtedly excite unusual interest here, as a complete reorganization has been effected. Named among the artists are the jovial comedienne, Barnabee; the stalwart baritone, Macdonald; the charming young soprano, Frances Miller, a beautiful young contralto, Adele Rafter, and such other well-known artists as Albert Parr and Vernon Styles, tenors; Allen Hinchley, basso; MacDonald Dorrington, baritone; Josephine Bartlett, W. H. Fitzgerald, Gertrude Zimmer, Charles J. Swickard, and others, who will be heard here in that delicious comic opera "Robin Hood," which has been sung by this organization for a number of years, and has delighted thousands. The production will be made most elaborately with a chorus of fifty voices, a specially selected orchestra and special scenery.

ALL GRADES OF Wool Underwear

"Allah," said the old Arab proverb, "adds to a man's life the days he spends in hunting."

A true modern version would be that a man lengthens his chances of life by changing his underwear to suit every great change of temperature. Too heavy underclothing is enervating; too thin garments next the skin are the cause of many an autumn ailment.

We are now showing over twenty sorts of all-wool and union knitwear for men, not to mention the ever seasonable Deimel linen goods and the heavy winter cottons. This count includes men's goods only, but when it comes to boy's underclothing—just bring the boy and see.

Prices range as low or as high as you will care to go. A word to-day about men's garments at a dollar and thereabouts.

All-wool suits in fancy green stripe. Shirts have satin bound neck and satin bound skirt. Trousers finished drawers with white sateen waistband, pearl buttons, ribbed ankle. Sizes 36 to 40 at per garment. . . . .
Very warm gray mottled wool with blue banded cuffs, skirt and ankle. The shirts are cashmere bound and drawers sateen trimmed. Sizes 36 to 40, all one price. . . . .
Extra heavy plain wool suits, ribbed wrist, skirt and ankle. Cashmere finished shirts, drawers sateen bound. Sizes range 36 to 44. Larger sizes are $1.10 and $1.20 per garment; smaller. . . . .
