been suffer-igstilded with aving tried ivy used the Rev. Wm-and re-and re-past. We dexcellent rig. Church of 1503. Wadrid, N. Balsam Don me-the Con-Balsam Do he had evan Book eat by the Y Rev. throat ad ex-Bat one very day dy recom FLINT. S: Lawit excel , supafflicted HILRY. Bro, is tamily, boat and is a standard is a standard BALL' BALL' BALL' BALL' Kissel is mily, I Kissel is mily, I is mily mily mily mily

ION. Incurable

ack River Con-a curred of the an English does to post and now will cure Con-darrh, and all balready proved

T- persons

TON'S &

- Ferfu-

m dums strongly linu hes, grior RSERY. a ne and

-UN.

. 35

3111

3 4 31

81218

185 ?

. man.

1. 6.2

Arrian. insgod

i it.

nsed? Fold

pro orld.

22

itates.

LEYAN

11 orks

Read-

Divine both

. Heart; Talkers

entions

and for cral for bowierd

. 00.

1.1.1,

minist.

vearly

this pap

ve rates.

NOKE Of

$0.80 0.07

113.

Hymn

Holy communings and fellowship ever; Home of the faithful' Know evemore' MENHALS O most.arii Yway from the moment which seems to be ours ARY STORE.

Away from all that we have been and an Away swift away to the Judgment bar ; Away and away to Eternity's shore We are almost home O rapturous thought ! O blissful desire !

low :

meet us .

Such fullness of joy ! Such fullness of love Perfection of peace in that home above

Ohe

Volume XVI. No. 9.

We are prosen in wir - a't.

Religious Miscellann,

Passing Away.

Marate assist aw

way from a season of smiles and of tears

Yway from a season of sorrow and size

Away from a season of strivings within .

We are almost home

Home to the harbour of endless delight ;

In the land of purity, blessedness, peace.

Away from the clustering joys of years :

Away from much that we cherish below

Home to a sure, endless season of rest ;

Home to the berthplace of live and of light ;

Home to the land of the pure and the blest ;

Where the song of rejoicing never shall ceuse,

Away, yes away from the loved ones of earth :

Away from the long endeared family hearth ;

Away from the mingling of smiles and of tears

Away from the graves where our loved ones lie

We are almost home

Home to that Bane where partings are never

We are passing away

We are passing away

try

Away from all seasons of toil and of care

Filled with the glorious presence of God. The Sairit Divise, and Jesus our Lord. Zma's Heraid.

The Watchword

one of the great rock-ga

HALIFAX, N. S., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 2, 1864.

Published under the direction of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference of Eastern British America.

fluence of the gifted colors all around, either in ed her to the Saviour, and ere long the trou- names. "Between the ignoront, greedy, and So into the bank they went, and Lincoln suts life and humour. I was afterwards told he had illustration, drawing light or shadow, and brings a blessing or a curse. bled sinner was sitting at the feet of her Re- egotistical population of our country." say the to the cashiek, "We just want to take thirty just the sight of his left eve from a recent illness. " Influence is a glorious possession, if we use it deemer, clothed in his righteousness. The teachers of the Basses Alpes, " and those whom thousand dollars to make a legal tender with. He wore a linea cost and grey trousers, and he Were he aright; if we use it for Christ; if we dedicate it Spirit's influence was now felt among the peo- instruction has reached, there is the same differ- I'll bring it back in an hour or two." to him and his work. Are we gifted with elo, ple, and before another year had passed, Helen ence as exists between civilized nations and sa- The cashier handed across the money to man. Nothing can exceed the charm of his nearly every sermon.

for God's truth. Is our pen "as that of a ready fold of the good Shepherd.

What is Prayer ? PLY BALL About twenty years ago, a little boy was put A Voice from Dixie. tor, was present, and listened whilst he repeated now laboring, under appointment of Bishop and, as he said them in a very careful mander, the Department of the South, and residing at companied by their little children, spending the of the anti-slavery and the spears of the fire- much feeling, that he always considered silent in this one could preach with his eves raised to heaven, and his hands Beaufort, S. C.:

clasped, "How sweetly he prays !" whispered More than one hundred thousand slaves have of inferiority as in pagan lands." The immor- Little did the Convention that nominated to witness, in the same way that he thought mute "Tis delicious to fe the lady. This was all she said ; but he heard been freed in the United States since the war ality is fearful. " Parents have long been accus- Abraham Lincoln for President know what they may ality was the most awful form of madness, thetic heart, and listen Home to that home where our Father will greet it, and his heart was filled with gratified pride. commenced. Twenty thousand of that number to the black-flag and no-quarter exquisitely fine voice ; but, been praised ! Was this prayer ? I will tell dependent, more or less upon the Government, are like savages; most of them do not even know ber him, foresee how awfully he was to need of the Confederate soldiers putting men to death ciples to every-day life, is, in or you what he did afterwards, and then you can and charity for subsistence, and upon Christian

Where pleasures, enduring and rare, lie in store ; judge. One day he made a kite, but it would missionaries from the north for the bread of not fly, but turned round and round. After try-life, and the organization of schools and churching awhile to make it rise in the air, he became es. Every victory of our army and occupation An American Methodist Missionary, labour-Away from the moments, away from the hours ; cursed the kife-not load, but softly, lest some- the Macedonian cry to Christians and philan- thus writes :-- body should hear him. He did it with the same thropists to the north, "Come over and help The friends in America have never conceived tongut which the young lady said had " prayed us " so sweetly.". He forgot God when he cursed, as Did God in his providence ever open such a these are the naked realities such as make up a From now and from then to the great Evermore, well as when he said his prayers. Had he door of Christian enterprise since the world be- large part of missionary life. O how my heart

A few years passed away. He was now eight ings, for whom Christ died, at our own door, What should be done? Give up the Chinese? World. The eyes of princes, nobles, aristocrats out going away most lavourably impressed by his endless as the weeks of his life, for he draws by the endles he thought of his sins. There were no simple Protestant Christianity, many of them possess-ful, devil-possessed Chinamen to serve the mas-turned on the plain backwoodsman, with his charm of his conversation. he thought of his sins. Increase a simple that time, to teach ing its first principles and its power already, ter in whom they are well pleased, and whom simple sense, his imperturbable simplicity, his instructive books published at that time, to teach the imploring looks, with bleeding wounds and they so much resemble? Such thoughts did determined reff-reliance, his imprecticable and that he ought to pray ; but he did not rightly scars of oppression, emerging from their cruel rush through my mind. I believe the devil sent incorruptible honesty, as he sai amid the war of that he ought to pray; but he did not rightly "house of bondage," saying to us in their igno-understand how Jesus Christ was the Saviour. "house of bondage," saying to us in their igno-them, and I fancy the same devil has suggested conflicting elements with unpretending steadi-It is true that he often heard the minister and range and destitution, "Men of Israel, help." his mother speak of Him, but no one explained - Can any Christian evade the responsibility? to him in a manner that he could understand. Will any one respond in the selfish and heart-quence?-let us be elequent for Jesus. Can we had the unspeakable joy to behold many as vage tribes." And all agree on this point ; all be- "Honest Abe," and without a scratch of the pen manner, which is simple, easy, and most fascinat- practical ; and no pa argue with force and brilliancy 2- let us argue "brands plucked from the burning," safe in the wail the fatal influence of this intellectual night in acknowledgment he strode his way with the ing. He conversed with me for a long time, and "troduced with profit, is on the progress of agriculture. It is this ignor- specie, all in most sacred simplicity, made the agreed with Benjamin that the Yankees did not When we say that it win 2" let us write about him, and make Eight years have now passed, and over that ance which still upholds the power of the fortune- tender, and brought it back with as much non- really intend to go to war with England if she tical we do not me

Provincial Aleslevan.

mention, of his righteousness; it may be that we hitherto benighted district the "Sun of right- teller and the influence of empiric cattle-doctors, chalance as if he had been borrowing a silver recognised the South; and he said that, when the chiefly to the may thus win souls to Christ. Have we sweet eousness" has arisen, and his blessed influence It attacks the heart as well as the mind. There spoon of his grandmother. His honesty, shrewd- inevitable smash came--and that separation was whether he sel From anger and turnoil, from grief and despair, voices 2-let us sing God's praise. But if we has been felt in almost every dwelling. Is there is something in the air in our rural districts ten- ness, energy, and keen practical insight into men an accomplished fact-the State of Maine would or character. can not say what we wish, let us say what we can, not encouragement here for desponding Chris- ding to diminish parental authority and filial and things, soon made him the most influential probably try to join Canada, as most of the in- attention are chiefly If we can not write of Jesus, let us talk about tians, who fear that they labor in vain? "In love" Ominous words. Superstition is every- man in his State. He became the reputed lead- telligent people in that State have a horror of volved, making it personal him. If we can not sing hymns, let us act them, due season ye shall reap if ye faint not," said where ; religion nowhere. "The peasant has er of the Whig party, and canvassed the State being "under the thumb of Massachusetts." He and their times "To whom much is given, of him much will be our blessed Lord; and who has ever known his no longer any faith; he remains a stranger to as stump speaker in the time of Henry Clay, and added that Maine wis inhabited by a hardy. Now, while the vices, both apparent and secret. The teaching Here he met the grinding of the great question to the people in the other New England States, bines these good quanties, and to of the Gospel is a dead letter. There is an im- of the day-the upper and neither milistone of When I spoke to him of the wretched scenes I We confess a positive double t mense deficiency in the social life of the people.", slavery and freedom revolving against each other. had witnessed in his own State (Mississippi), and preaching cited. To us much This is extracted from the reports on the Pas-de- Lincoln's whole nature inclined him to be a har- of the miserable, almost desperate situation in trifling ; though not so to Calais, and is true of all the departments in ge- monizer of conflicting parties rather than a com- which I had found so many unfortunate women, he is a man of great catterst to bed at dark by his sister. He knelt down by The following communication is from the Rev. neral. "We talk much and are very proud of mitted combatant on either side. He was firm- who had been left behind by their male relations, such sermonizing would reduce a chair to say his prayers. A young lady, a visi- T. W. Lewis, of the New England Conference, our progress and civilization. Listen: "A ly and from principle an enemy to slavery-but and when I alluded in admiration to the quiet, gation in the land. We faithful picture of the life of the peasantry would the ground he occupied in Congress was in some calm, uncomplaining manner in which they bore brother much more, and them. He knew that she was observing him ; Jones, as a Missionary of the M. E. Church, in frighten every one. I have seen mothers, ac- respects a middle one between the advance goard, their sufferings, and their grief, he said, with change if he was in a wo day in bar-rooms. Woman is in the same state caters.

how to cross themselves."

China.

Christian in America who may chance to read a channel at whose perils the world's oldest to him in a manor that he could understand the second aguage of Cain, "Am / my brother's is to fall back upon the sure and certain promises Europe leveled their opera glasses at the phe-

looked what he evidently is, a well-bred gentle- save he would be

Whole No. 763

religious duties. He has no virtues, but many in 1946 was elected representative to Congress., thrifty, seafaring population, with different ideas second charming, this is our despair the most painful description of misery who would so

He had scarcely thought of God in his prayers are now bearing arms in their country's service. at the expense of their health, of their education, triotic man, who stood in his simplicity on the agitation, he said people would talk a great deal, alone in the pulpit do attle toward reformed Home to that home where the ransomed will yet he went to bed glad and happy not that he The remaining eighty thousand, men, women, and even of their morality." "When they first platform at Springfield, asking the prayers of his and even go into action determined to give no had pleased God, but because he himself had and children, are within the Federal lines, and come to school," says one teacher, "the children townsmen and receiving their pledges to rememthose prayers, the prayers of all this nation and who have thrown down their arms and held up model man. In the first place, he is the prayers of all the working, suffering coulmon hands." He told me that Earl Russell confess. Icresting : the first many rately people throughout the world. God's hand was ed that the impartial carrying out of the neutra- always, if he has excitement of so upon him with a visible protection, saving first lity laws had pressed hard upon the South ; and man, invariably, if he taiks at all. And why from the danger of assassination at Baltimore Mr. Davis asserted that the pressure might have this? The answer is the talks angry, and dashed it to the ground, and stamped of rebel territory will add to the number of ing in China, after detailing his discouraging and bringing him safely to our national capital been equalised, and yet retained its impartiality, themselves, and they want to be an our solution of the second detailing him safely to our national capital been equalised, and yet retained its impartiality. upon it with his feet. No one was near, and he freemen, until three millions more will send out trials in connection with the Mission Schools. Then the world have seen and wondered at the if Great Britain, instead of closing her ports, had here a particularly. greatest sign and marvel of our day, to wit, a opened them to the prizes of both parties; but I Again, he never lacks variety. The first market set of the of such a state of things in a mission school, but culture, instruction or education than any such little on the other side. When I took my leave nently located would be obuged to repeat has working man may obtain for himself, called on about nine o'clock, the President asked me to self, as some we wot of ; the scroud man's himself. to conduct the passage of a great people through all upon him again. I don't think it possible and voice remain, but he pictures from history gan? Three and a half millions of human be-sunk within me. What a trial of one's faith. a crisis involving the destinies of the whole for any one to have an interview with him with-be lowe interview with him with-be lowe interview. world. The eyes of princes, nobles, aristocrats out going away most favourably impressed by his he loses interest ; but to the last man variety inspiration from faces and circumstances, as w

> Ministerial. Pulpit Styles.

the most practical kind to thr We have before our mind three different of his hearers, that it might take root at or preachers of our acquaintance, each differing His aim was to assault the consci-about as new as another. And, finally, we ld this preaching because it is like that of Jesus an the Apostles. They were always fresh, and i variety. Jesus always had a pungent truth - leries of G'braltar, he would contide in his father. To quiet his sermons are encounted in the hard passeth by, on the one side or on the a flood of light, breaks upon the soul. Christ hands and disdained white gloves. Dapperdip- and instructive, being generally ingenious dis- - Pittzburg Advocate. each end of the vast tunnel. One was a believe say three prayers secretly every day. This plan other, and only looks at this matter, is the priest has done a good deal more for us than we can lomatists were shocked at his system of etiquette, cussions of curious doctrines. Many of the each end of the vast tubben. Use was a bary say three prayers secretly every day. Lus plan ing man, whose soul had tound rest upon the he followed for a time; he then grew careless, and the Levite. But he that hath "mercy on but old statesmen, who knew the terrors of that doctrines introduced from Sabbath to Sabbath ing man, whose soul had t und rest upon the he followed for a time; be then grew careless, Rock of Åges; the other was seeking rest, but and forgot to pray until something alarmed him, had not found it.

It was midnight, and these solutions were going time, he counted up the days in which he had taken, is the good to go the had taken to be had the had the had taken to be had the had taken to be had the had the had taken to be had the had the had the had taken to be had the had the had taken to be had the had their rounds, the one moditating on the blood forgotten his devotions, and remained on his buckwoodsman really get that ship through r is which had brough released three prayers for part in this new branch of missionary enter- Lord has been gracious, and already the school he does it will be time for us to look about us." darkiy brooding over his own disquietudes and each neglected doe. But it was tiresome to stay prise? Or rather let every member, official or has produced precious fruit to the glory and some time ago on one of the removal by death of several members and darkly broading over his own disquietudes and each neglected dow. But it was tiresome to stay prior to take out the removal by death of south. Suddenly an other passes, challenges so long on his knees, and he therefore hastened private, rich or poor, ask the question, "What shocked with his State papers at first. Why these curious questions, dissected after the finest friends from this circuit. denote Suddenly an othese passes, challenges so long on his knees, and he therefore hastened prover have I to do?" Four hundred and twenty-five gent, eloquent and useful native preachers is a not let us make them a little more conventional style of the anatomist, we remarked to him that the former, and demands the watchword. The over them as rapidly as his tongue could move, precisits blood of Christ " the dout the startled little feeling that something more was needed thousand dollars have been appropriated by the and file them to a classical pattern? " No," was we thought his people did not seem to compre-Wesleyan a short obtuary of Mrs. Edward Lovewe thought his reply, "I shall write them myself. The peo-heid him well, or follow him closely. He very less of Scott's Bay; and now we must add to the thought which was at that moment holing ins soul. Next moment he corrected himself, and a man. His father and mother did, and many that kind, and it was to them much like reading of this month, in the 32th year of hos age. Dra the officer; no doubt amazed, passed on. But of his friends beside. There were very few left, pointed? God forbil! Our foreign missions promising young Christians. the words he spoke had rung through the gal- in the world to love him, and he wandered to were never more flourishing than now, and neery, and entered the ears of his fellow-soldier at another city. He was sad and lonely ; he felt that ver did we more need men and means to elarge the other end, like a message from heaven. It everything worldly was vain and unsatisfying. our work in foreign lands.

seemed as if an angel had spoken, or rather as if He had no true happiness here, and had no hope But a new door, "great and effectual," is

The precious block of Christ Lass, that he was a sinner. On Sun-was peace! His troubled soul was now at rest day, he went into a clurch, there heard of Christ That midnight voice had spoken the good news in such a way as he never before heard. Over to him, and God had carried heme the message, come with sorrow, he went to his bed room, and to him and God had carried heme the message, come with sorrow, he went to his bed room, and to him and God had carried heme the message, come with sorrow, he went to his bed room, and they have had that relish and smack of the sort. The precious blood of Christ'' strange bat-in the agenty of his syn', he threw himself open The precious blood of Christ''' strange but in the agony of his such he threw himsed open sees, circuits and stations, visiting from house to position now at the head of one of the nost which is a greater power in writing than the most would be amply repaid in the benefit it would may a day and year, no doubt, it will be the him. He felt that he could not cast aimself down house, from hut to hut, and plantation to plan-powerful nations of the earth, is a sign to all who artful devices of rhetoric.

to be related of a gentleman who had been a second is a different make of man and been a christian ; and then experienced that preachers and leaders, every missionary being axe in hand, to clear up a farm in a Western different make of man and then experienced that preachers and leaders, every missionary being axe in hand, to clear up a farm in a Western different make of man and the experienced that preachers and leaders, every missionary being axe in hand, to clear up a farm in a Western different make of man and the experienced that preachers and leaders, every missionary being axe in hand, to clear up a farm in a Western different make of man and the experienced that preachers and leaders, every missionary being axe in hand, to clear up a farm in a Western different make of man and the experienced that preachers and leaders, every missionary being axe in hand, to clear up a farm in a Western different make of man and the experienced that preachers are a christian is an and the experienced that preachers are a christian is an and the experienced that preachers are a christian is a different make of man and the experienced that preachers are a christian is a different make of the experienced that are according to the experience of t septic from his youth, that his first thought came a constraint and then experienced that about religion arose from observing the serious one moment's enjoyment of the lave and favor the principles of education, industry, self-reliance deportment of one of whose talents and intellect of a simple farm laborer, with only such intervals and free labour he had reason to think very highly, and how re- This was prayer. English Magrany. good the was in his public duties, and in the con-.

stant practice of his every-day life. I hever remember calling upon hea." said he. Christ.

without seeing his little clasped Bible lying thing in it. I told Mr. S _____ this one day into which they had fallen, and no one had of to their aid.

mething ' there is everything in it. Without labors for the Master for which she had early that will hinder.

- 25 h without the gospel of Christ, I cannot dedicated herse f. as it how any one can exist." the second start of the second s and to me in future years.

ter m. of the treasures he possessed.

; has you have domainshed my greatest trea- titude she began her informs, and was delighted :

The gifted mist-not only be watchful in great what they saw and heard. In this way Helen McClintock : B likewise in little things. What they do, labored patiently for four years : her school con- The rural districts of France are plunged in One anecdote will show the esteem in which he Sets will be what they say others will repeat; tinued to increase, but as yet, although she the deepest ignorance. Three fourths of the 10- was held in the neighborhood. A client came Where they and, others will follow; what they wrestled with God both night and day, the chief pulation can neither read nor write. The women to him in a case relating to a certain land claim, prase, others will approve; what they wrested with outpouring of the Holy Spirit, had, do not even know how to mend their husbands' and Lincoln said to him, "Your first step must the second approve; what they disallow, object, an outpouring of the flow, object, an outpouring of the flow with the second application to the bereaved hubband (now with the second and control of the second and control of the second application to the bereaved hubband (now with the second and control of the second application to the bereaved hubband (now with the second and control of the second application to the bereaved hubband (now with the ascred things are discussed, otoers will look serious and the six mother less chauren. hole too, if they turn them into jest others will look set ter a season of unusually be wished to see her, and read nor write, and yet the land has always sup-be tobe of they turn them into jest others will was told that some one wished to see her, and read nor write, and yet the land has always sup-

"at the wrong time may do mischief ; while a her scholars, who, bursting into tears, exclaim- Such is the real state of feeling of most of these thousand dollars to make it with." d spoken in season may become a word of ed, "O Miss.H ------, what shall I do? I am peasants. In many districts the municipal author in the result of the providence of the pr the Lord's little ones. The in- such a sinner." With a full heart Helen direct- rities themselves do not know how to sign their me and I'll get it."

we'll try again. Troubles we had many and con-curiosity, simply asking, "Will that awkward old but they are apparently none the less fascinating low enough before his Maker. He repented that tation, to bring back the "lest sheep of the live by labor that their day is coming. Lincoln his special request the lass met in his sole room, he had sinned so long and so much against the loss met in his sole room, and the last time the elegend communion with good and holy God, and resolved, by the help dism. Regular prayer and preaching meetings truly as the poorest laborer's son that digs in our ous impatiance, when our national ship seemed with tim about interesting his hearers at the his brethren and sisters in this products meetings. Unristiant annuclice. and free labour.

General Miscellann.

> preacher as he looks southward feel called upon amount to more than one year. At nineteen he in the armies of nations set no man to this work; prague to be shunned. He knows his bible well, interests, and giving with his latest breach, ap-What a voung Christian did for to make extra exertion this year in behalf of the made a trip to New Orleans as a bired hand on that perhaps he saw in the man whom he did though ; especially its poetical portions, its hismissionary cause? Will not every brother and a flat boat, and on his return he split the rails for send some peculiar fitness and aptitudes there- tory, and, above sil, the four gospels of our in Jesus, leaving three hube children, who he Seldom have I heard of a more unpromising sister in the church lay a larger sum than ever a log cabin and built it, and enclos d ten acres for.

taketh away the sin of the world." Such was we have the right men for the work in every con- 1832, in the Black Hawk Indian war, the hardy could have at a time when the habets corpus interest but melt the hardest heart. We would member his affectionate admonstrations. Something Said he, laying his hand upon the condition when the family of the transfer of without leaving the work to suffer at home. Now and minor rights of citizens be thrown into the Lae parable of the Prodigal Son. He's not promy shoulder, and looking kindly and sadly into the lae parable of the Prodigal Son. He's not pro-imy face--for it appears that he had never sus. their stage, Helen, Mr. II is clices the heart in frontier military hands of their military leader. A reckless, bold. Jound upon it, but oh ' it touches the heart my face--for it appears that he had never sus-ber determined to make this the scene of her means to give them a comfortable support is all life. After this, while serving as a postmaster, theorizing, dashing man of genus might have so deeply, and makes us feel just as though we he began his law studies, borrowing the law wrecked our Constitution and ended us in a saw he original and were personally interested. Died, at Dig you the 12 house, at Never was business of every kind more pros- books he was too poor to buy, and studying by splendid military despotism, when honest Aber Line, his hearers say his success depends wholly litness, Jane, the beaver to work Carry and Janes Trusting in her Lord for assistance, she went perous than now; and never did the great Head the light of his evening fire. He acquired a name has only walked off with our rights as he did up in the condition of his feelings. He is deeply P. Dunnam, aged of so go, a measure of the production of his feelings. intuking in our norm to assistance, she wern fruitful in the country about, as a man of resources and with his bag of specie from the bank, on his (pools, but given to despondency; and if much a cight and from percent of the children, of the children, of the children. shrewdness; he was one that people looked to simple promise to bring them back when he had perpersed, is very tame and commonplace, as in the witness of the split to her adoption, some among them. Size was very successful, curio- Let the ministers of the Cross who are filled for counsel in exigencies and to whom they were done with them. composion is his stople. When we have enjoyed 10 years ago. She connected herself with the among mem. She was very successian, curre-) among mem. She was very successian, curre-) and an exigencies and to whom they were 19 among the many accusations which in hours the protected for early to do and ready to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to depute almost any enterprise which in hours the protected for early to deput enterprise which in hours the protected for early to deput enterprise. few days afterwards. I happened to call sity prompting meny to send their fifthe ones. The units and was beptized for days afterwards. I happened to call sity prompting meny to send their fifthe ones. Let the needed skill and energy. The surveyor of San- of fit hock have been throwed out upon Line on with her first born, then an information of san- of fit hock have been throwed out upon Line on with her first born, then an information of sanwas away from home, and amused my. Here and a more a room of the neighborhood, and a second was away from home, and amused my. Here and an approximate and an approximate and a subscript by examining the contents of as the appendix on the satisfication of the poor cheerfully cast in their "mites," and him to take the survey of a tract off from his sed-seeking, or selfish. When we were tradied every superior, that the might ever do his best, beedingly active and her provide the survey of a tract off from his sed-seeking, or selfish. When we were tradied every superior, that the might every do his best, beedingly active and her provide the survey of a tract off from his sed-seeking, or selfish.

France. reasons and he had his hand were anxious to stry long r. During the fol-

" weighty thinker. His sermons are elaborate his Apostles did ; so may all their successors this is, that they have been informal and undi-faise and true views in regard to each; on Christ, himself. From that time he appears to have en-confer upon his people. Perhaps so, we thought, his special request the class met in his sick room, of schooling as farm laborers get. Probably the and win or lose by a brilliant coup de main. It Supralapsarian, Subiapsarian, and such like matters carefully arranged, and after reported Is not this a glorious work? Will not every school instruction of his whole life would not may comfort our minds that since He who ruleth questions. Systematic theology, with him, is a messages to his friends bearing on their elements spon the table, or upon his desk; sometimes, sentence of field of labor than the western part of the town on the missionary altar? What worldly invest-as it he had just been reading it. Hitherto I had field of labor than the western part of the town on the missionary altar? What worldly invest-both father and moder. His ments in the new of the town on the missionary altar? What worldly investas it he had just been reading it. Hitherto I had with a rad select of his own nance work. thought religion only fit for the poor and igno- of C -----. The inhabitants were deplorably ment will pay so well? In a few years this peothe depint religion only fit for the poor and igno-runt : but my friend was neither one nor the cher : to 1 began to fancy there must be someof a Mississippi boatman was in those days, must stitutional limits and time honored landmarks. ruler, or of Abraham and Isaac, or of our Lord's people ; and may those for active present and

of their parents. With a heart filed with ground look to God for his blessing. Methods. These were brought and set in darkness, and looked doubtfully to Trought we have him so much and desire always, bloned thereto. These were brought but what of that?" He accepted the "job," wards the presidential chair, it was never that when possible, to bear him, he is not just our ercise in the cheerin are surre of the dece procured a chain, a treatise on surveying, and we doubted the good will of our pilot -only toe ideal of what a preacher oright to aim at. Our involved in the relations of a wite college d were anxious to stay longer. During the tole. This country, full of gay people as we some, and the work. Do we not see in this a parable granted to him that clearness of vision which he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he of the wider wilderness which in late years he granted to him that clearness of vision which he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which he wilderness which in late years he granted to he wilderness which he w Our third man differs greatly from both of as also in zealously cooperating with these. His preaching is an exposition and ap- and projects, by whomseever cooperating with these. His preaching is an exposition and ap- and projects, by whomseever cooperating with these. Lianas be to God and hum, concluded the lifes, and munistered not only to their spiritual our Lord. That there is great need for mission-That there is great need for mission-the has uncertaken to survey and pt for human habi-the how to God and hum, concluded the lifes, and munistered not only to their spiritual our Lord. That there is great need for mission-the has uncertaken to survey and pt for human habi-the how to God and freedom plot in that promised land of freedom plot in the principles of Christianity to prosperity of the Church of her best for the principles of Christianity to prosperity of the Church of her best for the patrim. which is to be the patrimony of all men, black the source and modes of action which con- and earnest sympathies in prosperity of the Church of her interaction and modes of action which con- and earnest sympathies in present of the prosperity of the Church of her interaction and modes of action which con- and earnest sympathies in personal at the patrimony of all men, black these questions and modes of action which con- and earnest sympathies in personal at the patrimony of all men, black these questions and modes of action which con- and earnest sympathies in personal at the patrimony of all men, black these questions and modes of action which con- and earnest sympathies in personal at the patrimony of all men, black these questions and modes of action which con- and earnest sympathies in personal at the patrimony of all men, black these questions and modes of action which con- and earnest sympathies in personal at the patrimony of all men, black these questions and modes of action which conthe Elbe is my greatest treasure also; that number of scholars had increased to seventy, an so-called Christian country, see the following in 1826 our backwoodsman, flat boat hand, and white—and from henceforth nations shall interested with article, furnished from French authority by Dr. captain, surveyor, obtained a license to practice is encycling to me. or. captain, surveyor, obtained a license to practice rise up and call him blessed. - Watchin in and - in the market, family, and closet. He is vigor- Circuit, as also, in kindows to those who octaous and learned as the first, without his obsolete sionally enjoyed the hospitalities of her orphy ~~~

President Jefferson Davis. The following sketch of Jefferson Davis, is instructiveness and personal application to the these will be caued forth on behalt of her good at the structure of the structure of ing older than I expected. He is only fifty-six, removing theological rubbish and giving the When the conviction that her indees wa be pick to follow their example. Even a smile to her surprise, she saw the mother of one of ported us; it will be the same with our children." He is nearly six feet high, but is extremely thin, ly, briefly, appositely gives them the result, and was somewhat oppress I under to use of unpecially his eye, which is very bright, and full of the business of the hour. He argues chiefly by and the non-improvement of the grace he had

Obituarn.

as from all parts of the Bible. One subject missionary work for the ensuing year, and they soon be able to act as foreman in the business. ple will understand them." "But this or that complacently replied that the trouble was, they number of the departed, her husband. Our the night, and uttering unconsciously the prayers and be became confidently look to the Church to supply at Of the thirteen boys now in the school, ten have form of expression is not elegant, not classical. That memerit filing his that not been accustomed to histen to subjects of Brother Edward Loveless, who died on the 10th variable reply. And whatever may be said of Cariyle's works -- they had to be educated to the L. united himself to the Methodist Church at his State papers as compared with the classic style. He also proceeded to set before us a new Scotts' Bay, during the latter part of Bro. Tostandards, it has been a fact that they have al-course of sermonizing he was preparing for the lor's stay on this circuit. For some time 1.8 ways been wonderfully well understood by the future. In a series of sermons the gntire body health had been declining, and on the day. This people, and that since the time of Washington. of systematic travology should be discussed, be- wife's funeral I feit much impressed with the seemed as it an angei nad spoken, or rather as it fold himself had proclaimed the good news in that still hour. The precious 5d od of Christ ¹⁰ Yes ; that The precious ¹⁰ Christ ¹⁰ Yes ; that The precious ¹⁰ Christ ¹⁰ Yes ; that The precious ¹⁰ Christ ¹⁰ Yes ; that ¹⁰ Christ ¹⁰ Chr the State papers of no President have more con ginning in his next appointment. On God, he thought that the impressive scenes t on taxing pressed with the fact. He soon became confined to his house, and subsequently to his bed. By Lord's doings and sayings. He is a poet, though the inscrutable providence of God are bereft of

LAW - G. HUNN AUG

which were performed with performance