

Children's Department.

"Helen's Babies."

Oh, I've such a lot of dollies, It would really make you stare!
Just twelve! Would you believe it?
Twelve children in my care!

Every one says, "Such a family!"
But they're a great comfort to me.
Mamma calls 'em "Helen's Babies;"
And that's what they are, you see.

There's Bessie, my biggest dolly; She's as old as she can be;
For she was my mamma's dolly Before she belonged to me.

There's Clara, and Alice, and Jennie, And Gracie, with golden hair,
And eyes that shut and open; She's 'most alive, I declare.

Now, Dot is a dear little dolly, In the sweetest blue satin dress;
And Nellie, and Celia, and Hattie—You'll think there's a lot, I guess.

There's Robbie, my little sailor, And Topsy, as cute as can be,
And Ko-Chung Kee, the Chinaman—They're all so dear to me.

I'm sure so big a family You won't very often see;
But this is a "truly story," About my dollies and me.

God will Help.

Nothing can hurt us, since God is our helper; "if God be for us, who can be against us?"

What does it matter if sorrow and pain come, will not the loving Father grant His grace to bear it? He it is who provides, my friends, and if, in His wisdom, He suffers me to be misunderstood and misjudged, He will be near me to keep me from all harm.

"Dear Father, help me not to think evil of anyone; but to remember how frail I am; and that if there be any

In advanced stages of Consumption, Scott's Emulsion soothes the cough, checks the night sweats and prevents extreme emaciation.
In this way it prolongs life and makes more comfortable the last days. In every case of consumption—from its first appearance to its most advanced stages—no remedy promises a greater hope for recovery or brings comfort and relief equal to goodness in me, it is not of myself, but of Thee." God understands how He must withdraw all earthly dependence so that we will lean on Him alone. And in our weakness is His strength made perfect, so we fulfil His will.

Into the depths of despair and loneliness breaks the divine light of heavenly love; and as the fragrance of holy peace steals over us, we begin to realize the fulness of the promise: "All things work together for good to them who love God."

Yes, beloved, mark the condition,
"to them that love God."

Without a loving heart it is impossible to please Him.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old Physician, retired from practice having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing, with stamp, naming this paper.—W. A.

Work for the Children.

Work for man and woman is good; but work for children is better. Success in winning adults to the right way is to be rejoiced over; but success in winning children to a stand for the right is a cause for greater rejoicing.
A child has larger possibilities than an adult; and, so far, there is more in him prospectively. A child has fewer drawbacks—from bad habits and the weakness which comes of successive failures—than an adult has; and so far there is more hope of his continuance in well doing. These truth-would seem undeniable; yet how many pastors and preachers write ten sermons, and conduct ten prayer meetings, and make ten pastoral calls, with the idea of reaching and influencing some grown persons, where they do one of these things with an eye to the child's benefit. But perhaps—perhaps —this is because they see it is more than ten times as hard to reach an adult as a child, in religious things. There is something in that.

"Not Exactly Right."

Thousands of people are in this condition. They are not sick and yet they are by no means well. A single bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla would do them a world of good. It would tone the stomach, create an appetite, purify and enrich the blood and give wonderful vigour and vitality. Now is the time to take it.

—Hood's Pills cure nausea, sick headache, indigestion, biliousness. All druggists. 25 cents.

A Beautiful Scar.

"What makes your mother keep such a looking girl, Carrie? She has such a dreadful scar on her face!"
"Who? Margie? Why, we would not part with her for anything, and I should cry my eyes out if she should go away."

"You see, when I was a little girl,— I can only just remember it,—my white dress caught fire from the fireplace, and Margie was the only one anywhere round. She grabbed a rug and in a minute threw it round me, and put out the flame. I was burned some, but not as badly as she was.
She was sick for a long time afterwards, and 'most died."

"No, indeed, I guess we wouldn't part with Margie. We all love her dearly, and never think of how that dreadful scar looks, because she wears it for me."

"I never knew all that, Carrie. I don't wonder you love her. I shall after this. Why, that scar's a real beauty-mark when you know what it's for, isn't it?"

Hood's

Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier and building up medicine leads everything ever produced. It is positively the best. Others may make the same claim. But there's this difference: We prove it. Not by antiquity, but by Merit. Not by what we say, but by what Hood's Sarsaparilla does. It has a record of Cures unequalled in medical history.
It positively, perfectly and permanently cures when all other medicines fail.
That the keen discrimination of the people recognizes its merit and the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, is shown by the fact that they —Victor was a Christian boy who had his home among wicked people.

They beat him if he went to Sunday school, and if they found him saying his prayers or reading the Bible they would scold and beat him. Victor bore it all patiently, and when some one asked him how he could be so kind to his tormentors, he said, "Jesus was kind to His enemies, and so I must be."
