

The Confidence we have of your Honor's ready Concurrence with the House of Assembly, in every Measure that may promote his Majesty's Service, and the Welfare of this Province, will ever animate us in our Endeavours for the public Good, and you may be assured, Sir, we shall give the utmost Attention to the Business of the present Session, that we may the sooner return to our private Avocations, which are so necessarily connected with the good of the Whole.

To which His Honor was pleased to return the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I Thank you for this obliging Address, and “ particularly for the Confidence you are “ pleased to place in my Administration.

Halifax, 20th June, 1768.

And Mr. Speaker and the Members having returned to the House,

Adjourn'd to Tuesday Morning 10 o'Clock.
