

GRAND VIEW AFFAIRS

Improvement Society Held Meeting on Thursday Evening Last.

The Grand View Improvement Society met last Thursday night with President Wm. Eastcott in the chair. The usual routine of business was gone through, the most important was the advisability of changing section No. 3 into a police village in order to get better walks and roads and have the statute labor more wisely expended in that locality.

Fortify P.O.A. ROME, Sept. 28.—The correspondent of the Giornale D'Italia, who has entered Pola, the naval port and arsenal of Austria, reports that all the woods around the harbor have been cut and burned, count y houses and villages have been painted grey, entrenchments have been dug and traps have been laid everywhere.

HARVEST HOME AT ST. JUDES

Services on Sunday Were of a Most Inspiring Nature.

Seldom has the venerable church of St. Jude's presented the beautiful floral spectacle that it did yesterday when the Harvest Festival was celebrated by the Rev. C. E. Jenkins and his flock, within its walls. The services of the morning and evening were of the special thanksgiving character but the crowning ceremony was truly that of the afternoon, the Children's Service, Each child, and there were hundreds bore a bunch of flowers and their floral offerings were especially so as each child came forward and laid his or her tribute upon the centre table, an offering to God.

Obituary. Late Captain Thomas Martin. Captain Thomas Martin of 76 Alfred street, passed away on Saturday. An old army veteran who had served in the Indian mutiny as an officer, he was active until the last and had gained the deep respect of all with whom he came into contact.

Laid at Rest

Boy Knight Notes

Lieut. Children and Mr. J. Leslie Axford gave a most instructive lecture on child life at the boy knight armories last Friday. The building was crowded with boys and girls who gave the closest attention to the lecture. A number of patriotic songs were sung during the evening that added much to the interest of the proceedings.

ENQUIRY ASKED FOR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Great Britain has asked the United States to investigate who was responsible for sending the American ship, Lorenzo, with coal to the German cruiser Karlsruhe in British West Indian waters. The Lorenzo was caught by a British cruiser. The departments of commerce and justice will determine who will be prosecuted under the neutrality laws.

TERRIBLE WORK.

MONTRÉAL, Sept. 28.—Miss Hanson, daughter of Rev. Dr. Hanson, pastor of Erskine Presbyterian Church here, who returned from England a few days ago, has brought back information which she learned from a matron of a London hospital that the three hands cut off by German soldiers. The matron stated that the nurses were being treated in the hospital with which she was connected. Dr. Hanson gave currency to his daughter's information last night from his pulpit, and said that he had not the slightest doubts as to its accuracy.

Boy Knight Notes

Arrangements are being made whereby the Rev. C. M. Buckingham, M.A., of Ottawa, will hold a week's special meetings in connection with children's work, at the boy knight armories. He will also address a number of meetings at the different churches.

Won Medals

The results of the Imperial Shield Competition are out. In the junior series, the boy knights rank fifth, winning bronze medals and three pounds. This is a very high standing for the boys to take among the hundreds of teams that take part in the competition throughout the British Empire. In the senior lines, the B.C. I. come sixth, winning a prize of two pounds. The boy knights did not do so well in this competition on account of a number of their older boys being away when the match was shot off. To Canadian teams took part in the senior series. St. Anne College, Nova Scotia coming head in the competition. The standing of Canadian teams is St. Anne's 1st, Ottawa 2nd, Renfrew 3rd, B. C. I. 4th. University school 5th. Boy Knights 6th. They will also get a prize of £1. in this series. Much credit is to be given to the instructor and the officers of the boy knights for the manner in which they have forged so rapidly ahead.
