HYMENEAL

Stones-Hutchinson
 The parlor of the Methodist parsonage at Stellarton, N. S., was, on the 7th of March, the scene of a very happy event, when Lieutenant (Rev.) John G. Stones was united in marriage with Miss Margaret M.
 Hutchinson, a trained nurse of Boston, Mass., formerly of Baddeck, Cape Breton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Phelen, Ph. D., assisted by the Rev. C. C. MacIntosh, B. A. Just as the clock was striking 2 p. m. the bride entered the room accompanied by Mrs. Phalen. The bride looked charming in a travelling suit of green, with hat to match, while the groom possessed a commanding appearance in full lieutenant's uniform of khaki. The room was tastefully arranged with ferns potted plants and cut flowers.
 After the ceremony and the serving of luncheon the happy couple were driven to the station where amid showers of rice and good wishes, they boarded the three o'clock train for Halifax. Rev. Mr. Stones has been pastor of the Methodist Church at Kentville, N. S., during the past year, where he has labored with great success. He has heard the call of King and Empire, and after completing the required course of study and training has received a commission of Lieutenant in one of the newly formed battalions in the Nova Scotia Highland Brigade for Overseas service.
 For a while he will be in charge of a Company in one of the towns in the Province, where they are now mobilizing.
 It is to be hoped that when this cruel war is over, Rev. and Mrs. Stones may spend many happy years in their chosen work, for which they are so well qualified in the pastorate of the Nova Scotia Conference.

Funeral of Henry Lovitt.

The funeral service of the late Henry Lovitt, Esq., whose obituary notice was in a recent issue, took place at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. H. S.
 Dodge, Dorchester, Mass. Rev.
 C. H. Day, D.D., of Watertown, Mass., a former pastor at Kentville conducted the service. The body was received at Forrest Hill Cemetery, Boston, and interment will be made at Kentville at a later date.

For almost fifty years he held first the office of Prothonotary and Registrar of Probate and afterwards Judge and Registrar.
 Born March 28th, 1834, at Brooklyn Street, Cornwallis, where he lived until his removal to Kentville 45 years ago. He was a man of great physical and mental vigor, and no work was considered too laborious for him.

His mind, keen incise-sive, vigorous, made the discharge of his official duties a pleasure to him. His mental powers did not become enfeebled nor impaired. He was a giant in the fight he put up against the infirmities of age.

Interested in public reforms he stood for what he considered the best for the town in which he lived. He was a regular attendant at the services of his church and a willing contributor to all its work. For many years he was leader of the choir of the Kentville Baptist Church.
 In his home no father could have been more loving nor have taken more pride in his children. "They rise up and call him blessed."

ONE SPOONFUL GIVES ASTONISHING RESULTS

Kentville residents are astonished at the QUICK results from the simple mixture of buckthorn bark, g. verine, etc., known as Adler's ka.
 This remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and is so THOR-UGH a bowel cleanser that it is used successfully in appendicitis.
ONE SPOONFUL of Adler's ka relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach.
ONE MINUTE after you take it the gas's rumble and mass out.

TRUTH!

It is true that electric starting and lighting systems, standard control, demountable rims, one mantop and other refinements can or may be purchased and added to the car that lacks these devices. But experience has shown that to buy the entire and finished car from one manufacturer is not only less expensive, but much more satisfactory, in that responsibility for the whole product can be centred in one institution.

Maxwell Motor Cars, being otherwise designed to earn and retain the approval of particular people, are, of course, provided with every accessory of established merit that would add to the convenience and comfort of their owners.
