About Boys' Clothing.

Owing to the lateness of arrival of our Winter assortment of Boys' Clothing, we find ourselves too heavily loaded, at this date, and have, therefore, decided upon a speedy reduction of this stock.

Commencing Thursday Morning, Dec. 1st.

We will give a straight cash discount of TEN PER CENT (10%) on our already low prices, on all Boys Two and Three-Piece Suits, Boys' Pen Jackets and Boys' Overcoats.

COUNTY NEWS.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

MCINTOSH MILLS.
Mrs. M. Leeder is fast convalescing. Dr. Hart is the attending physician. Mr. E. Johnson was in town this week selecting his Christmas stock. Jas. Roman will sing, at the concert in Columbus Hall, "Crutcheon Lawn."

FRANKVILLE.
Saturday, Dec. 12.—A concert will be held here on the evening of Friday, Dec. 10th. The programme, which the young people have been preparing for some time, promises to be unusually good and well worthy of a generous patronage.

SHEARSTOWN.
Mr. P. Coby's car is convalescing. Ed. Kayes has decided to take to himself a wife after Christmas. Mrs. T. and H. Cox will spend their Christmas vacation with their parents. Miss Shea has secured a place on the police force in Ottawa. Henry Lewis leaves for California next week.

WEXFORD.
Charles Flood has been adopted at Orchard Villa by Mr. Jas. Balger. Mr. P. Flood is rapidly improving under the skillful treatment of Dr. S. Corneil. Miss K. Kelly returned from Montreal last Saturday. El. Flood is home from his ranch at Lansdowne. Thos. Bonan was a guest at Mr. R. J. Leeder's last Sunday. The musical feature of the mass will be of a high order at St. James church on Christmas day.

The Industrial Home.
Elizabethtown, Dec. 12.
Editor Reporter.
Dean Sir,—It seems that the master of a house of industry has got another lout. This time it is Brockville that is doing the kicking, or at least some of the leading men of the town. They have got right down to the business in the matter—have struck a soft thing in the way of charity dole, so don't require an industrial home or anything of the kind. It seems to me that the county council should be thankful that matters have taken this turn, as in my humble opinion they will be far better off with nothing to do with the town paupers. As a rule the poor from county sections are anxious to do something for themselves and this would furnish them an opportunity of doing it, while there are paupers to be found in town a class of paupers of a semi-criminal nature that are very difficult to manage. Let the counties go on and establish the home and they think best for the general convenience, and my word for it, Brockville will very soon be ready to come in almost any terms.

GOOD NEWS

I am glad to be able to report that my efforts to reduce the price of some lines of furniture, by buying larger lots and taking cash discounts, have been successful.

That $15 Bedroom Suite, finished in antique oak or cherry with large square plate mirror, which has had such a run, I can now give you for $14, at least while this lot lasts. Parlor Suites are also down, although I notice quite an improvement in the make up and finish; in fact, I never saw better goods for the price. I would like to show you my large stock.

ADMISSION.

SATURDAY, DEC. 10.—Mr. A. McVeigh, of the Grand Central, has moved to East Saginaw where he intends to engage quite extensively in real estate and cattle, having leased a ranch in that section.

Miss May Taplin has been on the sick list for some time, but is slowly recovering.

Mr. Hay of Dakota, is spending a few days with the Rev. Mr. Knox at the parsonage.

Our turkey fair proved quite a success, nearly three tons of fowl being disposed of in this section.

Miss Bertha Covey is spending a few days with her brother, Mr. James Covey.

There is to be a Christmas entertainment in our church on the eve of the 23rd inst., in aid of our Sunday school.

Mr. Coon, of Winchester, is engaged as foreman in our creamery for the balance of the season.

It is rumored that a couple of our King street belles are about to leave us.

Mr. Williams, of Lake street, passed through our village recently in search of some one who, he says, is cutting wood on his ranch. If caught they will pay dear for it.

WESTPORT.

SATURDAY, DEC. 10.—The Presbyterian tea-meeting on the 5th inst. was a success, both financially and socially.

Our poultry fair will be held on the 13th and 14th inst. Numerous local buyers, besides some foreign buyers, will be on hand to pay the highest prices going.

The Presbyterians and the Methodists will each have their annual Christmas tree; the former on the 24th and the latter on the 26th inst.

Local politics are very quiet at present, but we suppose it is the calm before the storm.

A neat little run-away occurred on Saturday evening. Mr. W. C. Frederburgh's young team started from the mill, and after taking in two squares in grand style were finally stopped near Lockwood's corner.

A surprise party was held at the residence of Mr. Geo. Frederburgh on Friday evening last. Quite a large number of the young people of the village met and passed a pleasant evening.

A couple of our local sports gave for a lively chase one day this week, but Reynard proved too sly for them.

We understand that Mr. W. Lamond has secured a situation as commercial traveller for a large dry goods house in Kingston.

Messrs. Seed and Tinkens are doing good work on their new type-writing machine.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Hazleton, mother of James Hazleton, Esq., took place in St. Edward's Church on the 11th inst.

The Rev. Mr. Burns preached, morning and evening, in the Presbyterian church last Sunday.
