

It Quiets the Cough

This is one reason why Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so valuable in consumption. It stops the wear and tear of useless coughing. But it does more—it controls the inflammation, quiets the fever, soothes, heals. Ask your doctor about this.

The best kind of a testimonial—

ST. JOSEPH'S LUMBAGO CURE
AN INDIAN REMEDY.

Guaranteed to Cure Lame Back, or money refunded!

An excellent remedy for Rheumatism, Lame Back, Etc., Etc.

Read the following testimonial from a man you all know:

Forfar, Feb. 6, 1907

Mr. W. A. Singleton, Crosby, Ont.
Dear Sir, Being laid up with lame back, I thought I would drop you a line to tell you that your St. Joseph's Lumbago Cure will do all you claim for it, as I have only used part of the bottle and I feel no returning symptoms of the disease.

Many say I have been troubled with lame back for the last ten years, and tried several other patent medicines but without results. I can heartily recommend it to any troubled with lame back, and I feel safe in saying that it is the cheapest medicine on the market.

Yours Truly,
JAMES McCUR
If your doctor does not keep this medicine kindly ask him to order same for you as any sized order will be filled promptly.
First order, freight prepaid.
Yours truly,
W. A. SINGLETON

District News

MORTON

Preparations are being made for the annual Christmas entertainment, which is to be held on Dec. 29.

Mr. R. H. Somerville and family have moved to Kingston.

Mr. James Somerville spent Friday the guest of Mrs. Willis.

Mr. J. A. Willis made a business trip to Kingston lately.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 20, Mrs. Wm. Johnston of Athens gave a very interesting address in the church on the subject of Temperance.

Several from here attended the box social held at Ellenville on Wednesday evening last, report a good time.

Mr. J. N. Somerville, the popular Prop. of Morton cheese factory, is making preparations to build another factory at Briar Hill. We wish him a full measure of success.

Mr. John Johnson has sold his farm here and has purchased a farm near Addison. He intends to move in the spring.

To check a cold quickly, get from your druggist some little Candy Cold Tablets called Preventives. Druggists everywhere are now dispensing Preventives, for they are not only safe, but decidedly certain and prompt. Preventives contain no Quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Taken at the "sneeze stage" Preventives will prevent Pneumonia, Bronchitis, La Grippe, etc. Hence the name, Preventives. Good for feverish children, 48 Preventives 25c. Trial Boxes 5c. Sold by all dealers.

HARD ISLAND

Mr. Abram Robinson, whose health has for some time been gradually failing, is now rapidly sinking.

Mrs. P. H. Robinson spent Saturday and Sunday at Sweet's Corners.

You Needn't

You needn't keep on feeling distressed after eating, nor belching, nor experiencing nausea between meals.

In other words, you needn't keep on being dyspeptic, and you certainly shouldn't.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures dyspepsia—it strengthens and tones the stomach, perfects digestion, creates a normal appetite, and builds up the whole system.

Union Valley Factory

Mr. M. Topping, proprietor of this factory, closed operations on Nov. 9, removed direct to his pleasant home in Athens—the winter paradise of cheese makers.

Mr. Topping says that, from reports generally, conditions in Brockville division are such that he feels truly grateful to a kind Providence for the measure of prosperity enjoyed. At one time things did look very unfavorable.

Some herds of cows will be a little short of the profuse supplies to which they have been accustomed. But we are all learning a lesson of economy which we have not had for years, and our cows will have to do the same. Where little is given, little may be expected. He has tried to do his duty and believes every patron has tried to do the same.

Mr. W. C. Hayes has proved himself a very efficient salesman.

Frankville Concert

Frankville possesses a thoroughly alive hockey club, and the announcement that that organization is to give a concert will cause bright anticipations of a delightful evening. The event takes place on the evening of Friday, Dec. 13 in Montgomery's Hall and the program will be comic dialogues, solos, duets and a laughable farce entitled "A Holy Terror." The success of the concert is already assured. Tickets, 25c.

THE OLD-FASHIONED WAYS

The smart folks, perhaps, may think I am slow, But I love the old things of the past;

The present day drama ain't suited to me, I don't like the plot nor the cast.

The plots are all based on position and show, With a taint of presumption and brass,

The counterfeit things of to day are a joke, They're not in the old-fashioned class.

The modern man he comes home like a bear, From his task at the close of the day,

And his modern wife greets him with her complaints, That is—if she isn't away.

When he sits down to supper there's nothing but fault, He finds, and he's justified too,

For the old-fashioned man and his lovable ways In these stylish days wouldn't do.

Oh, the old-fashioned home I can see it again, With its homespun old-fashioned air,

And the old-fashioned man eats his supper at night, And his old-fashioned wife she is there,

There is love in her eyes as she gazes at him, The love-light flashing I see, For the old-fashioned man sends a smile to his wife,

As he sips his saucer of tea. Those old-fashioned folks had no courts of divorce,

No autos nor shares in a bank, Yet with all they were happier far, I believe,

Than present day people of rank; For the old-fashioned wife was devoted and true,

And the old-fashioned man, I will say, Who sat in the old-fashioned home stead at night,

Loved her in the old-fashioned way. Oh, let us go back to those old-fashioned ways,

Though the old-fashioned folks are at rest, And the daisies bloom o'er their hal- lowing graves,

Their old loving ways were the best. Oft I wish that the old-fashioned man could come back,

And the old-fashioned wife as of yore, And give us a taste of the old-fashioned love

In the old-fashioned homestead once more. —Crawf. O. Slack

The 'Canadian Pictorial'

The November issue closes the second volume of this popular national illustrated monthly. It contains the usual delightful selection of pictures—many of them fine full page ones—making up in all about one thousand square inches of illustrations.

Among the more notable pictures are: 'An English thatched cottage' (prize picture), and a splendid selection from our recent photo competition; the new Minister of Public Works, the Hon. Wm. Pugsley; a fine portrait of 'Mrs. Pugsley'; the seven Canadian premiers since Confederation; a page of snapshots of Alberta Indians; pictures of air-ships, ballooning and wireless telegraphy that are worth columns of descriptions; the 'Prince of Wales on the grouse moors'; a spirited Algerian war picture; and a fine full-page portrait of Sir Thomas Lipton, the famous yachtsman.

Numerous other timely pictures, fash- ions, patterns, news of the month, hints on Christmas gift making, and other interesting features go to make up a most entertaining number.

Annual subscription, $1.00; single copies ten cents. Next issue (the Christmas number) will probably contain about 1,500 square inches of fine etchings.

USED PSYCHINE 20 YEARS AGO.
"Years ago I was almost a physical wreck, and was suffering with lung trouble. Friends and neighbors thought I would never get better. I began to despair myself. Losing faith in my physician, I procured another one who recommended the use of PSYCHINE. It was surprising beyond description the effect it had. I seemed to gain with every dose. Inside of two weeks I was able to attend to my household again. There are no symptoms of consumption about me now."
