Struck By Auto and Killed.

A boy named Reynolds, ten years old, was struck by an automobile and instantly killed in front of the residence of his parents on the Perth road, between Inventory and Westport, one night last week. The little fellow had been in the habit of running in front of cars and that night he must have misjudged his distance.

The car was driven by Wm. Mitchell of Westport, who was returning with W. B. Adams, of Westport, recruiting officer, who had been to Inventory on business with Lieut. Col. Ferguson. When the boy was struck the car was immediately stopped. Coroner Dr. Kilborn, of Kingston, was notified and after learning the facts released the driver and Mr. Adams and considered an inquest unnecessary.

The boy's mother is suffering from shock. His father was in Ottawa at the time.

Arthur McCann Dead.

Arthur McCann, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. J. McCann, of Westport, died on Saturday, Oct. 23rd, 1915 following a long illness. Deceased was born in Ottawa 18 years ago but has lived in Westport for the past fifteen years. He was a gentlemanly young man popular with acquaintances, and his death is sincerely regretted. The funeral on Monday at St. Edward's church was largely attended. Among the many floral emblems was a floral sheaf from the Forrester Branch, Department of the Interior, Ottawa.

Gun-Cleaning Accident.

Dr. D. C. Casselman of Morrisburg, is a patient in the General Hospital at Cornwall, having been the victim of a shooting accident near Bainsville. He and a party of friends from Morrisburg were duck-hunting on Lake St. Francis and while in their camp one of his companions was cleaning a shot gun. The young man did not know the gun was loaded and in the cleaning process it was discharged. The charge entered Dr. Casselman's left arm and passed through it into his hip, shattering the bones and muscles and causing an ugly wound on the hip. His injuries, particularly those to the arm, are severe, but it is hoped that the arm will be saved.

Mr. Gordon Warren Dead.

During the early hours of Saturday morning, Oct. 23rd, 1915, there passed peacefully away at her home near Elgin, Mrs. Gordon Warren.

Deceased, who was before her marriage Miss Mary Mudford, was a young woman of mild and affectionate disposition, and who by her kindness of heart had won many warm friends. She suffered with patience and fortitude her illness of lung affection which was of long duration.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday morning in Methodist church by Rev. J. P. McFarlane, who delivered a very impressive discourse basing his thoughts on Acts 16:31. The body was then interred in Elgin cemetery.

Beside a husband and little girl, a father and sister survive to mourn her loss. Much sympathy is expressed to the bereaved in this their hour of trouble.

Sick Headache, Biliousness, Indigestion, Constipation can all be avoided by taking Davis Liver Pills at night if the bowels haven't moved during the day. 40 pills, 25c. Davis & Lawrence Co., Montreal.

Eganville Doctor Accidentally Shot.

Dr. John Gallinger of Eganville, Ont., who went to Toronto on Saturday afternoon for the purpose of writing on the final examination of the Medical Council, was accidentally shot Sunday night by Mr. Percy Taylor, 79 Balsam avenue, Balmy Beach, where the two were examining a revolver. They did not know the gun was loaded it is said.

The victim was quickly removed to St. Michael's Hospital, where doctors found that the wounded man had suffered nine perforations of the intestines and one perforation of the bladder. His condition was reported to be serious.

Young Gallinger, who is the son of Dr. Gallinger of Eganville, had just come to Toronto from Jersey City, where he had been engaged for some time as house surgeon of a hospital.

The Late Mrs. H. S. Moffat

The death of Mrs. H. S. Moffat at her home in Jasper a week ago, was the culmination of an illness that extended over many months. A year ago she was hurt in a fall at the door of her home, and although she suffered no apparent serious injury, she never fully recovered from its effects. Nervous prostration followed and despite all that could be done for her, she grew steadily sicker and weaker until the end came.

She was born in the township of Elizabethtown, the daughter of the late Stephen Scott, one of the well-known men of the township in his day. After marriage to Mr. Moffat, they lived in Addison for several years, where they conducted a general store, and from there they went to Jasper, continuing the same line of business. She was a capable, kindly woman and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. In Addison, she took a leading part in organizing a Council of the Chosen Friends of which she was still a member, and the funeral was attended by them in a body. After a service at the house, the remains were taken to the vault at Athens and later will be interred at New Dublin.

The Late Mrs. W. J. Green.

A very sad death occurred on Monday, Oct. 25th, 1915, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Slack, Lyndhurst, when their second daughter, Jennie, wife of William James Green, passed away. Death was due to confinement, the child dying, as well as the wife and mother.

Deceased was about thirty-three years old and was married to Mr. Green about ten years ago. Of a sweet and gentle disposition, always bright and cheerful, she made many warm friends in the community where she lived.

The funeral service was held at the Methodist church, Lyndhurst, and was conducted by Rev. Mr. Wadell of Seely's Bay, who took for his text the words from St. John's gospel, "What things I do now ye shall not know, but I will reveal to you hereafter."

The church could not contain near all the people who assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to their deceased friend.

The pall-bearers were six cousins of deceased.

She leaves to mourn her husband, parents and two sisters, Mrs. James Webster, Lyndhurst, and Mrs. Richard G. Arnold, Leeds.

Shot Though The Hand

W. A. Lewis of Brockville, has received word that his nephew, Bombardier Walter A. Lewis, who joined the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery of the first contingent at Fort DuChene, N. B., has been shot through the hand while in action. Strange as it may seem, his brother, Harry D. Lewis, who enlisted in the same artillery at Saskatoon, Sask., was near his brother when he was shot. The two soldier brothers are sons of the late Dr. Fred Lewis, of Orangeville, and at one time member of parliament for Dufferin. Their mother at Orangeville has also been notified.

You Can't Dodge them all. Mosquito bites, sunburn, bruises, skin injuries. Some of them will attack you this season sure. Have a tin of Davis Menthol Salve on hand. 25 cents.

McCauley—Potter

A very quiet marriage was solemnized on Monday evening, Oct. 25th, at Ivy Lea, when Miss Rachael E. Potter, only daughter of Mrs. M. M. Potter, of Echo Lodge, became the wife of Mr. Wm. McCauley, of Finch. Only the immediate members of the contracting parties were present. The bride looked charming wearing a travelling suit of dark green broadcloth, with sable furs and sailor hat. Rev. W. H. Towle, of Lansdowne, performed the marriage ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. McCauley left by motor boat for Alexandria Bay and New York City. On their return they will spend the winter at Echo Lodge.

Shot Dead by a Revolver

Pembroke, Oct. 29.—Shot accidentally by a revolver in the hand of a friend, Fred Neigus, an orderly of the Petawawa detention camp, died in Pembroke general hospital. He was working in the mess room when the accident occurred. His friend was examining the revolver. The funeral took place yesterday. Interment was made at Carleton Place where a sister, Mrs. F. Tinsley, his only relative in Canada, resides.

A formal military examination is being made.

Soldiers in Scrap with Brockville Police

Sergt-Major Peter O'Connor and Sergt-Major Horace Disney of the 59th Battalion, Kingston, came to Brockville Saturday with a number of other soldiers. They became intoxicated and the police were called upon to arrest them at an hotel for creating a disturbance. The police were severely assaulted before the prisoners were landed in the cells. To-day both men were committed for trial for assault occasioning grievous bodily harm. Disney claims to be an ex-member of the Toronto police force.

Sir Charles Tupper Dead

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—A cablegram from Sir George Perley to Premier Borden to-day announces the death of Sir Charles Tupper.

Sir Charles Tupper was born at Amherst, N.S., on July 2, 1821, and was consequently in his 95th year. He entered Nova Scotia politics in 1825 and up to 1900 was with few interruptions prominent in the history of the country's development. He took an active part in the fight for Confederation prior to 1867, and after filling several portfolios in the Dominion Government was appointed to the High Commissioner for Canada in London, where he served several years. He returned to Canada in 1896 and was induced to re-enter politics with a view to saving the Conservative party from the misfortunes which were threatening. He was appointed Premier, but in a few months his Government was defeated. He led the Opposition until 1900, when he was personally defeated and retired from politics. Since which time he lived in Canada and England. For the past two years he resided with his daughter, Mrs. (Major-General) Cameron near London.
