In Heart Disease it Works Like Magic.—For years my greatest enemy was organic Heart Disease. From uneasiness and palpitation it developed into abnormal action, thumping, fluttering and choking sensations. Dr. J. A. Richardson's Cure for the Heart gave instant relief, and the bad symptoms have entirely disappeared. It is a wonder-worker.

Tried to Pawn $15,000 Jewel Case.

New York, June 8.—A $15,000 vanity box, made of gold, and containing 385 diamonds and 63 sapphires, which two waiters attempted to pawn Thursday, resulting in their arrest, was identified yesterday by Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt as one she had lost last October.

TREATING WRONG DISEASE.

Many times women call on their physicians suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

BIG WALL COLLAPSES.

$10,000 Damage to Cockshutt Plow Co.'s Calgary Branch.

Calgary, Alta., June 10.—Saturday the whole side of the wall of the large wholesale building of the Cockshutt Plow Co. fell with a crash, and crushed in the roof of the Alberta livery stable next to it.

It made a hole about 15 feet square through the roof of the stable, and crashed through the floor of the loft and came down in a stall in which two horses were tied. They were unhurt, but one horse that was loose in a corral at the rear of the stable was buried under the debris.

It was a new building, and an addition to the main building that faced the street, facing the lane at the rear end, and was about 50 feet long, with two storeys.
The damage will likely be about $10,000.

MONTREAL WELCOMES FUSHIMI.

Addresses At City Hall and Afternoon At Races.

Montreal, June 10.—Prince Fushimi and party, who arrived here from Quebec on Saturday afternoon, received a rousing welcome. A large crowd of people had gathered at the Grand Trunk Station, and when the special bearing the prince and party arrived, shortly after 2 o'clock, he was received with rousing cheers and the playing of the Japanese National Anthem. The prince and party were escorted by a guard of honor to the city hall. Proceeding to the council chamber, an address of welcome was read by the mayor, to which the prince replied in felicitous terms.
After holding an informal reception the prince left, and afterwards attended the horse races at Blue Bonnets, in which he showed much interest. In the evening he was the guest at dinner at the Mount Royal Club. While in Montreal he is the guest of Sir Montagu Allan.

Nominated By East York Liberals For Next Election.

Toronto, June 10.—East York Liberals on Saturday nominated J. Walter Curry, K.C., ex-council attorney, to be their candidate in the next provincial election. He received 72 votes to 29.
Mr. Curry stated that his platform would be that of his leader, and the Liberal party, when he went before the electors of East York.

FIVE MINERS KILLED.

Caught In Western Mine and Burned to Death.

Strathcona, June 10.—A mine disaster Saturday in Ross & Walters' coal mine, adjoining the town, resulted in the loss of five lives and the injury of many other miners, and the destruction of considerable property.

The miners were caught underground by a fire which started in the elevator shaft and smothered them like rats in a trap.
The dead men are J. F. Tealey, G. Tapel, W. McEldan, Percy Harrington and Joseph Hardy.

Smallpox at Athens.

Brookville, June 10.—Dr. Bell, inspector for the Provincial Board of Health, spent the past few days in the village of Athens, near Brookville, investigating some alleged cases of smallpox. The suspicions of the villagers that smallpox really existed seem to have been confirmed. Three houses are under quarantine, the sick parties in each case being males, who have been or are suffering from the disease.

The Board of Health has ordered a general vaccination of the villagers, including the pupils of the public and high schools.

Buried In a Creek.

Bala, June 10.—In Shaw Creek there lies the body of an Italian in four feet of water.

Last winter he died and his body, in a coffin, was being taken down the river on the ice for burial in Toronto. But the sleigh carrying the body went through the ice, and the coffin disappeared.

The Italian mourners decided not to search for the body, but to wait until the ice cleared away and then pick up the dead task. This they have done, but the body is still in the water. The lid is off the coffin, and the situation is becoming a scandal.

SUMMER SORES AND SKIN DISEASES

Summer's heat makes the skin live at high pressure, and "skin breakdown" is common. Rashes, Eczema, Itch and Tetter are the serious symptoms; Roughness, Sunburn, Soreness and Redness the unpleasant ones. ZAM-BUK brings coolness, ease and healing to all. It eases the little one's burning eczema, the mother's gathered breast, the father's blistered feet, or the schoolboy's daily cuts and bruises. It prevents festering, cureless sores, insect stings, etc. My face was covered with a kind of rash," says Mrs. McCormick, of Invermay (Sask.), "which, when the sun shone on it or I went out, itched and smarted dreadfully, especially in summer. Doctors said I could not be cured, and for seven long years it seemed as if they were right. A few months back I tried ZAM-BUK, and this great remedy succeeded where all else had failed. It has now cured me completely."

RAISING CHURCH FUNDS.

The Kaffir Mix in a Lot of Fun With Their Generosity.

The gentle Kaffir when he does become Christianized has his own ideas of the best method of raising funds for the support of the "cause." From the subjoined description of a native meeting sent home by a missionary it would appear that native generosity, although of a rough and tumble character, is distinctly productive of ways and means.

"Recently I attended a native tea meeting, at which more than 112 was raised by this very poor congregation. Their way of doing it was characteristic and amusing. They paid 2 shillings to sit down to tea. Then some one would pay 3 shillings for such and such a man to be required to get up again and leave the table. The man thus assailed would pay 3s. 6d. for leave to sit down again. There was a special table at which six could sit, paying an extra shilling each for the privilege. They had just got seated when a man paid 7 shillings to clear them out, and they paid another 8 shillings to sit on, and so it went on. They arranged all this themselves, and this is their way of giving to the cause. One man had a tin of sirup. He said he would pay 2 shillings to pour it over another man's head who had got himself up well in a large collar, etc.; this man paid 3 shillings to be let off, the first man 4 shillings again to do it, the other 5 shillings to escape, the first 6 shillings to do it—and did it, and, oh, the laughter and the mess!"

THE SACRED CODFISH.

Famous Emblem That Adorns the Massachusetts Statehouse.

A codfish carved in wood hangs on the white mahogany wall of the Massachusetts hall of representatives in the statehouse in Boston. Between two classic pillars it occupies a place of honor, directly opposite the desk of the presiding officer. This wooden fish is the renowned original sacred codfish of the Old Colony, and it has assisted at the deliberations of the lawmakers of Massachusetts for more than a century and a half, gathering sanctity year by year. It is a relic of the old building which preceded the present statehouse, and great is the dignity of this souvenir of colonial art and industry.

The following account of its origin is given in a Boston paper:

"Captain John Welch of Boston was the creator and carver of the celebrated fish. He was a wood carver of renown for his time and in 1747 established his business in Dock square. He belonged to the Ancient and Honorable Artillery company and afterward became its captain. He was called upon to contribute to the decoration of the colonial assembly hall, and as at that period codfish was the colony's main article of export Captain Welch conceived the idea of immortalizing the fish of the Massachusetts waters. When completed the carving was finished off and colored so as to be a fair simile of life and was hung on the wall of the assembly hall."

A Fool's Identity.

Some of the best known people pass unrecognized by those to whom they should be known.
Harold Frederick sat one night at dinner next a man whose very silence and taciturnity caused him the more closely covertly to survey him. Not a word was exchanged between the two. "Who was that hopeless idiot that I sat next to at dinner?" asked Frederick at the close of the meal. "That hopeless idiot was Cecil Rhodes," he was answered. It was the fact. The Colossus had been in one of the moods in which he would not talk, and Frederick, though he had seen his portrait a hundred times, had not recognized him.—St. James' Gazette.

Sagacity of the Ancients.

Many quotations came from the works of Thales, the Greek philosopher and one of the seven wise men. It was he who said, "Know thyself," "Few words are a sign of prudent judgment," "Search after wisdom and choose what is most worthy," "There is nothing more beautiful than the world," "Time is the wisest thing, for it invents and discovers all things." He also said that it was the hardest thing in the world to know oneself and the easiest to admonish another. In his youth Thales was urged to marry, but he said, "It is too soon," and later in life upon being urged again he said, "It is too late."

Where the Relief Would Be.

Dr. Story, the late principal of Glasgow university, taking a holiday in the country once, was met by the minister of the district, who remarked: "Hello, principal! You here? Why, you must come and relieve me for a day." The principal replied, "I don't promise to relieve you, but I might relieve your congregation."

Coming and Going.

"What kick have you against married life?"
"Well, if I don't keep my wife dressed in the height of fashion I have trouble with her, and if I do keep her dressed in the height of fashion I have trouble with her dressmaker."

Her Loss.

MASSANOGA

A lake shaped something like a pair of spectacles, rather a pair of lakes joined by a passage some few feet wide. A lake immensely deep in parts, with sunny bathing beaches, perfectly safe, along its shores. Beautiful woods all round, full of native life, unspoiled and largely untrodden. And, besting over the water, just at the bridge of the spectacles, is the grand old rock, the crowning glory of Lake Massanoga. "The Gibraltar of Canada," it has been called, and fitty enough. A mile and more long, hundreds of feet high, rising sheer out of the calm waters of the lake, impressively beautiful by day, positively awe-inspiring in the moonlight, is this great stone mountain. In its shadow nestles Belle Isle, a nearly perfect summer hotel as one could wish to find. Hotel seems scarcely the word for Belle Isle, so homelike is it—the hotel feeling lasts no longer than it takes our genial host to express his welcome. Canoeing, sailing, rowing, swimming, all may be enjoyed at Massanoga, and down in the depths lurk gamey salmon-trout. Massanoga is a resort recently discovered, and known to comparatively few Canadians. But for people who want to get near to nature, and yet not out of touch of civilization, who want to enjoy glorious air, brilliant sunshine, cool waters and all the fascinations of a primitive region combined with the comforts of a modern summer resort, Massanoga is the place. The nearest railway station is Kalamazoo, 150 miles east of Toronto on the C. P. R. Illustrated folder and full particulars will be gladly mailed upon request by C. B. Foster, District Passenger Agent, C. P. R., Toronto.
