Before Spring Work Begins, Come in and See Us. Ask About the Co-operative Bureau

Thousands of people, Farm and City Dweller alike, are eagerly looking forward to the Spring work with prospects of another bumper crop next fall.

And before this labor begins we urge you to come into Saskatoon and particularly to this store, where a warm and hearty welcome awaits you, your family and your friends.

We have referred to ourselves above as the Original Mail Order house in the Province, and we make this claim because of the fact that we were the first store in the province to—

Provide a 24-hour Delivery System.

To prepay carriage charges on all orders from 5c up on everything except China, Hardware, Groceries, Rugs, Linoleum, Furniture, Patterns, Toys and Periodicals.

What Women Will Wear and How They'll Wear It in 1916

In the afternoon or matinee frocks or in the evening gown, broken lines will be prominent. By this we mean that there are three or more distinct indentations to the silhouette such as the waist line, a group of shirred girdles about 6 inches further down, and finally the tier effect in the over-drapery.

And would you believe it—Clock-worked Hose will be a big number this Spring and Summer. Such effects as black on white, the reverse, and pink and white, will be featured, light colors having the preference.

A revived fancy and a charming one.

Stripe and plaid effects in crepes, voiles, etc., will herald the approach of the Spring and summer season and these tones are just as new as they were last spring because of their arrangement with semi-invisible and diagonal effects sandwiched with the new multi-colored poplins.

New Neckwear

You must see the new Lotus Militaire and Elizabethan neckwear at the Circle. Such charming bits of daintiness are seldom seen. Here are the newest of the new in fancy neckwear, with their slips of velvet, silk or crepe de chine.

And it is surprising how little one need pay for a selection. Dozens sell less than $1, some as high as $1.75, and others as low as 35c.

New Lingerie

Indeed we are fortunate in having a permanent representative in Eastern circles. For had it not been for his efforts this lovely showing of Parisian Lingerie would now be reposing on the shelves or tables of some other house.
