From the Camp at London.

London, June 26.—All the men in camp are showing up well in the way of drill, their "marching past" being especially noticeable for steadiness and regularity. It is expected that the usual route march will take place tomorrow, and the review on Friday.

As a result of the brigade band tournament the 29th Perth, of St. Mary's, took first prize, and the 33rd, Seaforth, second.

About twenty men were on the sick list yesterday.

Lieut.-Col. Irwin, Inspector of Artillery, arrived in camp today and inspected the London Field Battery. He praised both officers and men for their great efficiency.

The total strength of the force in camp is 2,067 men, comprising 168 officers and 1,899 rank and file, and 204 horses.

THE PRIZES.—There is on exhibition in the jewelry store window of Mr. A. Fenwick two elegant silver cups, to be contested for on Dominion Day by the baseball and football clubs of Orangeville and Erin. The boys look with covetous eyes on the prizes, and will doubtless make their best effort to carry off the laurels. The cups are beautifully engraved, and are fine specimens of workmanship. That of the baseball is larger than the football prize, but both are valued at handsome figures.

PICNIC.—On Wednesday a party from Bickham enjoyed an afternoon in Stanley Park; the heavy downpour prevented a large attendance. On Thursday a happy crowd from Hillsburg spent the afternoon at the pretty resort, and hosting was the favorite pastime. To-morrow, Mr. Long expects a pic nic from Georgetown, and on Dominion Day a large picnic is expected at Stanley Park. The Baptist friends are arranging for the S. S. picnic to be held in a few days.

BURNS' CHURCH S. S. PICNIC.—A very successful S. S. picnic was held on Saturday last at Stanley Park. The weather was fine, considering the number of dull wet days preceding Saturday. The Superintendent, teachers and parents spared no pains in making the little ones spend a happy afternoon. Swings were in constant motion, but the boats were in greatest demand, and were not a moment idle during the whole afternoon; even the snow was manned by half a dozen robust and smiling lads. 'Twas difficult to furnish any amusement that would attract the crowd from the wharf, which was densely packed till evening dawned. A pleasing feature of the afternoon was singing by the S. S. pupils of Bickham. Three kindergarten songs were nicely rendered. The Superintendent, Mr. H. Wood, made a very appropriate little speech to the young, followed by a similarly pleasing one from the pastor, Rev. R. Fowlie. By this time a bountiful repast had been spread for the little folk, to which they did ample justice. Then came the old ones; over three hundred partook of luncheon, and as evening drew nigh the picknickers dispersed to their several homes, all expressing themselves well pleased with a real old time Canadian picnic.

Mr. Long still continues to add improvements and no better place can be imagined than Stanley Park for a day's outing.

PERSONAL.—Rev. Mr. Marsden attended the Anglican Synod meeting at Hamilton last week. Mr. C. Walker also attended as lay delegate.....Rev. J. Markham and family leave for Harriston next week.....Mr. R. Hamilton is supervising a large contract at Milton, and spent Monday in that town.....Mr. B. Wood is attending the Druggists' Association at Guelph.....Mr. and Mrs. Nicklin, of Acton, spent Sunday with friends in Erin.....Mr. McKinnon, of Alton, is spending a few days at Mrs. Clark's, Erin. It is hoped the change will benefit his health.....The infant child of Mr. Doherty was buried on Saturday.

OBSERVANCE CURTAIN.—No services will be held in Burns' church on Sabbath next, as the sister congregation of Presbyterians at Ospringe will hold their opening services on that day. The morning and evening services will be conducted by Rev. Principal Caven, of Toronto, and in the afternoon Rev. Mr. Rae, of Acton, will preach. The day following (Dominion Day) will be the occasion of the annual church picnic, which has always been so successful, and which promises this year to surpass previous efforts. Tea will be served in Miller's grove, and a good list of first-class speeches, together with music by a brass band, will add to the enjoyment.

W. F. M. S.—The ladies of this Society are arranging to send a box of clothing to the aged and infirm women on one of the reserves in the Northwest. May success attend every effort to promote the comfort and happiness of those of our fellow-beings suffering distress and want.

Dominion Day will not be celebrated in Erin, except at Stanley Park, the villagers all having some objective point in view—Ospringe picnic, Orangeville, and routes on the C. P. R., where reduced rates are offered.

Rockwood Correspondence.

BARN RAISING.—On Thursday last a large barn was raised on the farm of Mr. Leonard Watson, Nassagaweya town line. There was a large turnout of neighbors to the "bee." Sides were chosen and captained by Messrs. John McPhedran and Robt. Nickell, and as those gentlemen are old rivals at these events an exciting contest was the result of the gathering. Both sides were neck and neck for a time, but eventually victory perched on the banners of Captain McPhedran and his merry men.

WOMAN'S INFIRMARY, &c.—On Sunday evening the best looking member of our brass band kindly offered to accompany a young lady, on her way home from the Barracks to the shelter of the paternal roof tree, when she turned on him and poured forth such a volley of strong adjectives that the youth was fain to flee for his life. It was only a short time previously that another member of the same organization met with a similar rebuff from another quarter. It is hoped that these untoward events will not dampen the ardor of the boys in their pursuit of a musical education.

QUEEN ESTHER.—Following are the names of the ladies and gentlemen of Rockwood who will take part in the oratorio of Queen Esther: Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Perrin, Mrs. J. R. Dryden (pianist), and Misses Lena Hamilton, Maggie Strachan, Hannah Knowles, Naomi Wright, Frances Lee, Kate Magee, Augustus Stull, M. E. Jago, Annie Jago, Mary Strange, L. Ramshaw, M. A. Strachan, H. Reeve, L. Ramsay, Dr. Dryden and Messrs. C. Strange, Edward Strange, M. P. Barry, W. Ramsay, W. Strachan, John Strachan, James McKenzie, and John F. Farrish.

A. O. U. W.—On Sunday evening next a special sermon will be preached to Rockwood lodge, A. O. U. W., in the Presbyterian church, by Rev. D. Strachan. Sister lodges are invited to participate. Members will meet at their hall at six o'clock p.m.

Harriston Correspondence.

THE NEW TOWN HALL.—Mr. G. Gray, who has the contract for building the new town hall, is apparently going to have it completed long before the time specified. It will be a great improvement on the old structure, both in appearance and for convenience.

THE FIRE ENGINE TO REMAIN AT HOME.—At a meeting of the Council a few evenings ago the question of taking the fire engine away to help neighboring towns and villages came up for discussion. It was decided to keep it at home in future. During the fire at Arthur a few days ago the Arthur people applied for help, but were refused. The decision of the Council is the proper one, as we have been heavily taxed for fire protection and our interests must be taken into consideration before all others.

THE COW BYLAW EFFECTUAL.—The by-law prohibiting cattle running at large in town has so far been a success. Our streets is no more a pasture field.

JUBILEE.—The Salvation Army here are holding a jubilee here to-night; the turnout is small and not very enthusiastic. They have evidently lost their old time power to draw a crowd in this town. Indeed it is astonishing why they continue their efforts here under the circumstances.

BRIEFS.—F. D. Ramsay, of Harriston, intends to remove his bankrupt stock from Stratford to Chesley....Rev. J. Mills will deliver his farewell address on Sunday evening next. He goes to Mitchell. Complaints are plentiful that seed potatoes are rotting in the ground on account of the wet weather.

DOMINION DAY.—Arrangements have been made for a celebration here on the first of July. The attractions offered are not great.
