

Local News and Personal Items

Arthur Sipprell has moved into his new bungalow at Somerville. Archie Stevens, Woodstock, spent the week-end at his home here.

Dr. W. D. Rankin of Woodstock was in Hartland on professional duty on Saturday.

James Miller has this spring erected a house on the Rockland road and moved into it on Saturday.

H. N. Boyer has just unloaded a car of wire fencing bought before the recent advance. Attractive prices.

The Price & Nevers saw mill, now owned by the Hartland Manufacturing Co., Ltd., has started the season's operations.

Mr. Farmer: If you need any farm machinery or repairs for same, phone or call on H. N. Boyer. He keeps a full line for sale.

To rent: The house in the rear of the Scott Sipprell property next to the Hagerman block. Apply at once to Fred H. Stevens, Observer office.

To rent: The office now occupied by The Observer Limited. Can give possession about May 20. Apply to Mrs. Clara Rideout, R.F.D. 1 (Somerville).

Chas. M. Shaw and Scott A. Shaw were in Woodstock Tuesday and Wednesday attending the organization meetings of the United Farmers of N. B.

House for sale: A two story house on Main street, ten rods from Bristol station. Also one second hand piano. All will go cheap. S. I. Rogers, Bristol.

C. M. Shaw, secretary of the Farmers & Dairymen's Association went to Fredericton today to attend a special meeting of provincial agriculturists tomorrow afternoon.

Ostermoor Mattresses, the best in the world, are being sold by J. T. G. Carr at Eaton's prices. You can see them before you buy and you don't have to pay for them until you get them.

Born, at the rectory, Vankleek Hill, Ont., on April 19, to Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Morgan, a daughter, Vera Marjorie. The newcomer is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Morgan.

Service will be held in the Methodist church, Hartland, on Sunday, April 28, in the morning at 9.30, when the pastor, Rev. G. S. Helps, B. A., will preach. A cordial invitation is given to all.

J. T. G. Carr expects to move back next week into the store recently damaged by fire, which has been thoroughly renovated. He hopes to see his old customers in large numbers and will welcome new ones as well.

Russell Smith, who has been teller in the Bank of Montreal here since last autumn, left last evening for his home in Shediac, and intends going into the khaki at once. During his stay here he made many friends and was particularly popular among the young people.

Owing to the dry spring and the fact that the snow of last winter, never having been saturated with rain, thus yielding little water, stream driving conditions have not been extra good. F. E. Sayre's drive on the Becaguine is making slow progress, but there is no apprehension that it will not come out in good season.

Miss Bishop of Coronation has been visiting Miss Mattie Rideout.

Executions will be issued on all school taxes not paid by April 30.

Miss Marion Stevens returned yesterday from her visit at Fort Fairfield.

H. N. Boyer has for sale Lime, Brick, Cement, Kerosene, Gasoline, Paints and Oils.

For sale: 1915 Ford Touring Car. Just overhauled and newly painted. Price $300. Centreville Garage.

Washington Craig has returned from St. John where he spent the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Hedley Belyea.

I have for sale one ten inch grain grinder Maple Leaf good as new, will give anyone a good trade. Walter Cook, Victoria.

Privates Harry Boyd and Murray Hay motored up from Woodstock on Sunday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baird.

The Contract Record says: Hatfield & Scott contemplate the erection of a brick bank building and offices at Hartland costing $10,000 or $12,000.

There will be Church of England service in the Town Hall on Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. At the morning service there will be Holy Communion.

Robert Hunter of River Bank, who has been a patient in the Fisher Memorial Hospital, is convalescing at the home of his sister, Mrs. David Underhill.

Rev. E. C. Jenkins, late pastor of the United Baptist church at East Florenceville, and one time pastor of the church here, has accepted a call to the First Baptist church of Houlton.

Married at Goldendell, Wash., April 13, Miss Helen M. Scholey, daughter of Henry T. and Emily J. Scholey of Centreville to Harry Shawbut of San Diego, Cal. They will camp in the Cascade Foot Hills this summer.

The Epworth League will meet in the Methodist church, Hartland, on Wednesday May 1 at 7.30 p.m. led by A. Plummer, the subject being "The Need of Prayer." A hearty invitation is given to all.

Monday night for men, Tuesday night for women; children not admitted except in case of guardian. The world-famous picture "Damaged Goods" with all its pathos and tragedy. Seven parts; 50 cents admits to all.

"Damaged Goods" is a motion picture that is doing more to illustrate the effects of a sinful life and debauched living than anything else in the world today. It has brought facts home to millions as nothing else could. It is endorsed by high minded men and women everywhere and is recommended by the clergy for the lesson it teaches. Star theatre, Monday and Tuesday.

Thomas A. Craigs and family, who had lived in Fort Fairfield nearly a year, went to Hartland, some days ago to remain. Mr. Craigs will there be foreman of The Observer office. Mr. Craigs is one of the finest printers in this part of the country. He did excellent service in the office for some weeks this spring, and was an employee of this office many years ago. That he will give satisfaction in his new position need not be questioned for a moment. — Fort Fairfield Review.

New Dress Goods

which include plain and colored Voiles, plain and colored Pongee, Mull, Silks.

Waists, Middies, Sport Skirts, etc.

For men we have

Fancy and Work Shirts, Ties, Hose, Pants and Underwear

F. F. PLUMER

Furniture

Dry Goods
Hagerman's Block, End-of-the-Bridge

Groceries

Estey & Curtis Co., Ltd., wish to purchase any quantity of pure bees honey.

Roy Shaw of Gordonsville was a pleasant caller at The Observer office on Friday.

To arrive this week: one car cedar shingles. Quality excellent. Price low. H. N. Boyer.

Mrs. Charles Everett of Jacksonville was a guest of her daughter, Miss Grace Everett, on Sunday.

J. T. G. Carr advises buying Field Seeds NOW. They will be higher and it is doubtful if they can be had at all later.

Mrs. G. E. Boyer went to Fort Fairfield last week for a visit with her daughter, Miss Jennie Boyer, and other friends.

Misses Kathleen Gray and Clara Boyer very pleasantly entertained a number of their friends at a birthday party on Monday evening.

Insure in the Queen and you have the protection of the richest insurance company on earth, and rates are no higher than the small companies charge. J. T. G. Carr is agent.

Wanted—a woman to keep house at Edmundston, N. B., and care for my two children. Apply giving references and stating wages required to Milford Howlett, Cabano, P. Q.

Lot for sale: Best building lot in town. Situated on the Albert Orser estate facing main road. For particulars write Mrs. C. Harry Clapp, 24 Marlboro St., Lowell, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. S. McFarlane, Saunders St., announce the engagement of their second daughter, Bertha Vaughn, to Jack J. Daye, of this city, the wedding to take place on the 24th—Gleaner.

On Tuesday evening Miss Mary McMullin entertained a large number of young people in honor of her birthday, which was also the birthday of three of her friends: Misses Clara Boyer, Kelsie Craib and Kathleen Gray. The evening was very pleasantly spent in games, music and refreshments.

A meeting of those throughout the province who are directly interested in the greater production and labor question, will be held at Fredericton Friday, Apr. 26, at 1.30 o'clock. All agricultural organizations should send one delegate. This meeting is called under the auspices of the Farmers' and Dairymen's Association of N. B. O. M. Shaw, Sec.

The Observer Limited has leased the building next south of Hagerman's block, now occupied by George Letson and will at once commence making the alterations necessary to fit up for a first class office. When all the changes are made and the plant moved there it will be one of the best and most modern equipped printing offices in the Maritime provinces. Mr. Letson is to occupy for his business the store on Main street now occupied by J. T. G. Carr, and will live in the Hagerman tenement at present under rent to Frank Day, who will move into the rent now held by Fred H. Stevens. M. E. Cox has moved into the Keith tenement and Willie Albright has taken the Hillman tenement vacated by Mr. Cox.

Last evening the death occurred of Etta A., young wife of George E. Taylor, after six weeks illness. Besides the grief-stricken husband, she is survived by an infant daughter. There are also left to mourn, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stevens, and four brothers, William, of Hartland, George, of McAdam, Roy, with the King's forces in France, and Archie, of Woodstock, and one sister, Mrs. Frank Day. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon. The whole community extends sympathy to the sorrowing young husband, who is the son of H. W. Taylor of Grand Falls and who for two years was teller in the Bank here, as well as to the other relatives.

Barred Plymouth Rock Eggs.

A few settings, pen headed by choice Pringle cockerel.

46-1 H. C. COCHRANE, Farmers 6-32

Eggs for Hatching.

Pure bred White Wyandottes, John S. Martin stock. Enquire of 45-4 F. A. AITON, Hartland, N. B.

Spring and Summer Underwear

In all the standard makes, in various styles and materials and a great variety of weights and prices. These were selected with extraordinary care so that we could offer our customers the very best for the money they pay. And this we can do. You cannot buy goods at any price that will give you better value than we offer.

New Hats and Caps

These are now being shown in the height of fashion's demands. Highgrade, high priced Hats of Stetson's make, and all the range of other good makes down to the cheapest of head coverings, so you may be assured of getting just what you want. Right styles; right prices, every time. Our line of caps is very complete, ranging from 25c to $1.75 and for every age of the male human being. Come to this, the finest equipped Gent's Furnishing Store on the St. John River, for all your clothing needs.

Hartland Clothing Company, Ltd.

Men's and Boys' Outfitters

Barbed Wire and Poultry Netting, Etc.

We have just put in the big stock of these goods that we booked last year before the last jump in prices. The Barbed Wire is the heavy gauge, reliable kind and we can fill while you wait any orders for Garden Fencing or Poultry Netting, in all widths from the narrowest to 5 ft.

Big Stock of Paints

B-H English Paints are the most enduring on earth. Economical to use and to buy; 100% pure. A full line of these as well as other Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Glass

House Cleaning Supplies

of every description

C. R. DeWITT Dealer in Everything Worth while in HARDWARE

STAR THEATRE - - HARTLAND

APRIL 29 and 30

8 P. M.

A Renowned and World-famous Picture.

DAMAGED GOODS

— IN 7 PARTS —

The most remarkable human story ever written and absolutely the greatest in the history of motion pictures

Endorsed by the clergy of all Churches, the censors, public officials, professional men and social welfare associations as well as others of unquestioned judgment.

For Men Only, Monday, April 29, at 8 p.m.

For Women Only, Tuesday, April 30, at 8 p.m.

Children under 15 years must be accompanied by parents or guardians

Admission to All -- -- 50 Cents