all communications to be addressed at 1 ac Weekly Observer, Hillsbaro, A. Co., N.B. SUBSCRIPTION.—One Dollar per year, 6

Rates of Advertising.

The attention of subscribers is directed the following LEGAL DECISIONS IN NEWSPAPER CAESS.

PATENTS

ngton.
Send model, drawing or photo, with de scription. We advise if patentable or not februare. Our fee not due till paten

STEED FULLITY, LOST MAN

Tuesday Morning.

VOL. 5.

HILLSBORO, A. CO., N. B., THURSDAY, APRIL 25, 1889.

NO. 8.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN GURE

3.—The courts have decided that retuing to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post Office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prime their evidence of intentional fraud. Caveats and Trade Marks obtained and all Patent Business conducted for MODER ATE FEES.

OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE. We have no subagencies. All business direct, hence the transact patent business in less time and at LESS COST than those remote from Wash-KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

The Weekly Observer. HILLSBORO, N. B., April 25, 1889

He Careth For You.

Oh soul, what means this striving For something thou can'st not grasp Thy bitter tears,
Thy foolish fears,
That shrink at every blast.

Why should'st thou shrink from warfar Thy Captain stands by thy side, His gentle face, So full of grace, Tells there in Him to abide.

"Come unto Me. And be ye free, Casting on Me all thy care

And I am acquainted with grief, I love thee so. That long ago, I died, for thy relief.

telx bottles for $5. All Drug-

THE

LADIES'

FAVORITE.

Moneton' N. B

THAT GIVES

PERFECT SATISFACTION PERFECT OFFICE GORANGE MASS.

NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE GORANGE MASS.

- 28 UNION SQUARE, N.Y. DALLAS

JAMES CRAWFORD.

INSURANCE Fire & Life Insurance Agency

GOOD RISKS SOLICITED FOR The Lancashire Fire Insurance

The Liverpool, London & Clobe Fir

The Standard Life Insurance C. J. OSMAN.

Hillsboro, A. Co. Leather Manufacture.

Cold Liquor Tanned Leather

HARVEY TANNERY.

SOLE DEATHER Hand Made Boots

kept in stock. Oil Tanned Larrikans a Specialty.

Orders for which are now solicited GOOD PRICES PAID FOR HEMLOCK TAKEN IN EXCHANGE

W. H. A. CASEY. Proprietor.

Harvey, A. Co., May 26, 1888. Art and Science.

In the grasp of Master Minds in the present day, is thating rapid progress. Notably among others is the Art of Photography. which in the hands of MONCTON'S ARTIST.

Mr. C. E. Northrup, is not one of the lost arts, but is rapidly attaining a Foremost Place

Absolutely Pr e. attained by few. Mr. N., at considerable

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS

EQUAL.

What though the night Hide earthly light, "Eeath's love, that in the morning Of life, seemed strong and true, When cheeks grow pale, And light steps fail, lay turn dear heart to you. But if you love and trust Me, 'll love you just the same,

And "some sweet day"
I'll gather thee

Girls Don't You Do It. With stubbern nails and

Out on the lines to Let those who will bring to

But girls, don't you do it. -MARGARET EYTINGE

A Trying Night-

The calleth in tenderest pity, Thy sorrow He asketh to share.

For I am a man of sorrow.

My arms are strong and loving star grew lonely in the sky, and threw under water rather than above it. erself down to the boat where her lover Now, the father of Hans was a sluicer, path of the canal. was rowing, and the tragments struck and it was his duty, when water was re lilies floating on its smooth surface? No. said Hans, shaking his head, your and then to close them carefully again, The good man followel, the sound stories are very beautiful, Heinrich, and when no more water was needed, just as the groans he heard until he discovered I love to hear them, but I have promised you shut iff the water of a hydrant by the child seated on a stone writhing from tain you. Embrace me, boy, and run when he was attending to the sluices with out, was the answer, in perfect simplicity are used in Holland in the place of roads, could hold no more water, and must over- and undannted courage. Hans noticed that they were quite full of flow if more was poured into them . With had been heavy raigs. Here he met in Holland would have, the boy saw that three women tugging merrily at a rope the water must soon enlarge the hole. Why dids thou not send to scarch for me when thou foundst I did not come basket of fish, white lis feet dangled over The song died on his lips and his the front of the tiny vehicle. Then he heart troubles with fear as he realizes passed a cool, clean diary where the the danger which threatens his country men were busy making Edam cheeses. There is no time to run home and tell hile others were milking the cows fast, his father. He knows that every moened to the walls of the stable by knots ment is as precious as a diamond now in their tails passed over naise. Here To throw away the flowers in his hand comes a wealthy burgher, driving his to climb from stone to stone until he sleek, well fed team, for fine horses are reaches the hole and puts his finger in abundant in Holland, but many of the it is but the work of a moment, and to people are to poor to own them.

Now he sees a poor family embarking water is flowing through. on a canal boat, moving to another place Oh, thank God, my little on a canal boat, moving to another place Oh, thank God, my little hand can or glist'ning spears, we come; in the hope of bettering their fortune, stop the flow of these great waters, Hans Not with wild shouts of triumph taking with them all their worldy goods, said aloud, though there was no one to their lowing cows, barking dogs, bleat- hear. ing goats, equeaking geese, cackling hens and a squeaking pig with a string of the success of his plan. But the For ours is the pure white banner, tied around his foot, by whigh his re- night was closing in and the cold winds bellious majesty can be dragged.

blue forget-me-nots to carry to his mother him. The Dutch people are very reguwho loves these flowers so well. The road is gradually becoming more tiring, and they are generally eating solitary, and soon neither the joyous hearty suppers in their cottages when No harvests torn and trampled shout of the villager returning to his the night shadows fall. cottage home, nor the rough voice of the Help! help! help!

carter, grumbling at his lazy horses, 18 heard. There is only the twitter of the birds as they cuddle up in their warm nests, and the whir of a huge windmill that stretches its immense vanes against the distant sky, reminding one of a great was making: four armed giant. But Hans is not whistling the air of a merry song.

Fire! Fire! Fire!

Then be screamed until

Murder! murder! murder

finger which he had opposed to the es-

The little fellow now perceives, howsighing of the water, the little fellow now perceives, howsighing of the winds and the barking of And oh, we'll sing Hosannah, ver, that the blue of the flowers in his some dogs far away. and is scarcely distinguishable from the There is no help for it, said the green of the surrounding herbage, and brave little fellow to himself. I must he looks up in some dismay. Yes, the stay here by mycelf all night if no one in which every object is nearly as per- through and drowning all the people in ceptible as by day.

he is almost buried, and to go back to the hole began to feel benumbed and the beach, when suddenly a slight noise, soon the numbness extended to the hand Now is the time, they say, but I say, like the trickling of water upon pebbles, and thence throughout the whole arm. exchange says, "A man can't get shaved, the true. with fear, for he looks up and sees there by moved not from the cold, hard stone sigar at St. Joseph, Mo., now on Sunday, in help in the word of the W. C. T. U." is a hole in the wood of one of the large on which he sat. Tears rolled down his sluices, which are huge gates placed at cheeks as he thought of his father, of his intervals in the great dyke that protects mother, of his warm little bed, where he Holland from the encroachments of the might now be sleeping so soundly; still German 2:a, and the water is trickling the brave little fellow stirred not, for he through and threatening the country knew if he removed the small, sleuder

> Now Hans understood the danger that cape of the water not only would be threatened his beloved home as thorough- himself be drowned, but his parents, his ly as any intelligent Dutch boy would, brothers, his sisters, his neighbors-in formed, so I will try and explain to you away.

Holland is a very singular country, pose failing during that long and terrible In fact, you may travel all over the night. and not find another one like it. At last the moon went down, the bark- numbering about 70 members, and of vel of the sea, which is striving con- and stillness over all the earth. There tandy but fruitlessly to recover its was not even the hooting of an owl to ravished domain. The keels of its ships break the terrible silence that made the are above the chimneys of its buildings brave little heart quake with the fear and the frows that croak in the bulrushes that most children feel when alone in the of its ditches look down upon the swal- dark The wind blew keener and coider, lows twittering on its housetops.

Long years ago the ocean said to the Hollanders: You shall have no country sturdy race and brimfull of energy in which ranges from 20 degs, below zero to 105 above, replied to the ocean:

homes and their families, their flocks and fell dead at his feet. It was a bat. flows of the sea, they went to work with er perpetual youth and beauty to be and secure Holland from the danger to groaning from the pain he was enduring some his bride; or how the beautiful which it seems exposed, of finding itself so he did not hear the faint sound of the footsteps of a man coming along the tow

It was Herr Vondel, the preach the water and became beautiful water quired to fill the canals, to raise the who was returning from the bedside of sluices and let the water come through one of his dying parishioners.

my father that I will come home early turning the faucet, otherwise the water pain and with pal face and tearful ey-sa would flow into the cause, then overflow In the name of wonder, boy, he ex Heaven bless the child who obys his them and inundate the whole country. claimed what are you doing the e? father, said old Heinrigh. I will not de Hans had often been with his father I am keeping the water from running the men in his employment. He knew of the child who during the whole night As he went along by-the canals, which that the canals were already so full they had been showing such . eroic forticude So the minister took the place of Han water, for it was in October, and there the instant perception which every child until the boy could get his father to and there a jolly, fat fisherman smoking his pipe as he lay it his iittle cart drawn the consequence of the mundation that effects of his fatigue.

Why, Haus, his mother replied, apolice in the consequence of the moundation that the effects of his fatigue. getically, I thought thee was in bed with the other twelve. It's hard work te keep a baker s dozen of boys in their places. - M. M. F. in Philadelphia Call: W. C. T. U. Column. "For God and House and Native Land." The matter for this column is The Woman's Army.

his great delight he finds that no more Not with the booming cannon, Not with the rolling drum, Not with gay banners flying, Not with the trumpet's blare;

were rising. The boy looked round in Now Hans stops, to gather a bunch of vain for some passers by who would help No fields of the dead and dying lar in their habits of early rising and re- No ili-starred hamlets blazing, Shall mark our onward track

No ruins grim and black; No seenes of death and woe We shall bring no desolation, Hans shouted at the top of his voice :

Our mission's one of mercy. We bring but peace and joy, We come to raise the fallen— Then give us a kindly greeting And a Godspeed on our way, For, with heaven's help and blessin his voice, the rippling of the water, the For the rule of might shall cease! [Frances W. Titus, in Woman's Jour

AMERICA'S W. C. T. U. extend me he looks up in some dismay. Yes, the stay here by mycelf all night if no one tender sympathy to Margaret Bright comes, and hold my finger in this hole winter night, but a clear moonlight one, in which every object is nearly as per-through and drowning all the people in the death of her brother the celebrated John Bright. the country. It will be hard work, but attracts his attention. His heart is filled The pain became still greater, yet the he can't get drunk, and he can't buy

MacDenald, a fine looking woman, the victim of alcohol, while intoxicated sank into a deep slumber in the old Catholic

THE annua! meeting of the W. C. T ly as any intelligent Dutch boy would, brothers, his sisters, his neighbors—in home of Miss Emms George on April but some of u + may not be so well infact, the whole village would be swept 4th. Mrs. W. K. Bowser was elected President for the coming year. Severa faltered, how many times he felt his pur-plans for future work were discussed, among which might be mentioned the but a very indifferent peer. The evils of the whole region is below the ing of the dogs ceased, there was darkness which Miss George is the efficient Super. Its pathway is ever dark, ever downward and the boy's limbs ached like the toothache.

He heard some wings flapping over his head, and he shuddered with dread asmation of this liquor habit with its inhead and he shuddered with dread asmation of this liquor habit with its inhead and he shuddered with dread asmation of this liquor habit with its inhorrors of a Scandinavian haven, and the research, however, has proved this to be condenses the most diabolical passions that ever raged or rankled in the breast of unregenerate mau. To exhibit some of the evils of ignorance let me in two for the e he thought it might be one of the ghosts of which old Heinrich had often told him tales, or, what he feared almost as much, it might be one of those big bats that the separable evils, is total abstinence from their use, yet we were skeptical somewhat in regard to the alleged annual mortality it might be one of those big bats that the separable evils, is total abstinence from their use, yet we were skeptical somewhat in regard to the alleged annual mortality it might be one of those big bats that the separable evils, is total abstinence from their use, yet we were skeptical somewhat in regard to the alleged annual mortality it might be one of those big bats that the separable evils, is total abstinence from their use, yet we were skeptical somewhat in regard to the alleged annual mortality windward of a rock-bound coast. Before caterial discharges peculiar to fem as (whites) this remedy is a specific. are said to fasten themselves in one's hair and never let go until it thunders.

The wings were brushing against his cheeks. With his left arm he struck a contact that sixty (60) thousand people perish incharacter and the dashing structure and the dash terrible blow at it, and to his great joy it figures large, it not greatly exagg rated have keeps her saits handed and her

Now the chickens in the distance be- paper, says :-Thave brought you some caker mother

So they built along the line of coast baked for you, and I will only wait to be set one before I must go home.

What, exclaimed the old man, with his mouth full of cake, and you will not wait
to hear me tall the stery of the water

So they built along the line of coast
the set one body of little dam, and limit along the line of coast
huge dikes, somewhat resembling a millpass by and give assistance and release him from his painful position.

Oh, how the little fellow prayed for
nearly half a million each year in three countries aggregating a population of
to hear me tall the stery of the water

So they built along the line of coast
huge dikes, somewhat resembling a millpass by and give assistance and release
him from his painful position.

Oh, how the little fellow prayed for
nearly half a million each year in three
countries aggregating a population of strength to hold out until that person
to hear me tall the stery of the water

So they built along the line of coast
huge dikes, somewhat resembling a millpass by and give assistance and release
him from his painful position.

Oh, how the little fellow prayed for
nearly half a million each year in three
countries aggregating a population of
strength to hold out until that person
and shut these big oak gates or sluices, to be a soint to pass by and give assistance and release
him from his painful position.

Oh, how the little fellow prayed for
nearly half a million each year in three
countries aggregating a population of
strength to hold out until that person
story of the water

So they built along the line of cause through intemperance is, In Great Britain, 120,000; in France, 142.

Oh, how the little fellows. Actuated by this motive and caused through intemperance is, In Great Britain, 120,000; or
nearly half a million each year in three
countries aggregating a population of story or the trins due to the caused through intemperance is, In Great Britain, 120,000; or
nearly half a million each year in three countries agg

sprite who loved a mortal, and gave up which close the entrance of the canals, brave as ever he could not keep from Helps for Thought and A Young by Rev. A. Thomson, Reforme Presbytegian Millster, of Camberlan N.S., and Published in the Amber-Gazetic in the Year 1869.

LETTER II

COMPANIONS AND IGNOBANCE.

MY DEAR YOUNG FRIENDS :- Our cere desire is to do you good To omete this somewhat let us have some talk about our companions. Perhais nothing else so contributes to our happy ness and usefulness as the fellowship attached to a small boat in the canal; through which it was now only dropping, home, the boy said reproachfully to his cally a social being. The social affinition of our pature are evidenced in the famil circle, the neighboring compacts, the commercial city, and the great nations of assert, as Hobbes has done, that man, in all respects, is a selfish being. A desire to associate with our fellow beings is, 13 all good philosophers, allowed to be : primary principle of our nature. The highest authority has said "It is not good that the man should be alme. But, whilst in seeking society we develope a principle of our nature, we also incur the heaviest responsibilities. We must therefore, be exceedingly careful in the formation of our friendships, lest in after days we may be filled with regrets; for it must be apparent to all that, from the

and permanent impressions for good or let us be thoroughly satisfied that ignorevil will be made our companions should be good; i.e., acquired by deligent thought and careful intelligent, moral, and christian. In the first place: such companions contribute largely to our temporal happiness. Of course our happiness, under God, de-know a little. Pride of anything, but pends ve.y much upon ourselves. Simple especially of knowledge, is exceedingly greatness, elevated station, and imperial repulsive. The proud conceited, talking pomp seldom promote it. We know well speaker should be turned out to graze and the crown of royalty there are consealed many bloeding broken bearts In taught to be prudent, punctual, and per- the future. "He that tilleth his land severing; and we are encouraged also to shall be satisfied with bread; but he that cultivate the graces of meekness, justice, followeth vain persons is void of undervelope our mental powers. God Himself A Five Dollar Paper for one so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend." This is true beyond the Commercial Age, in order to introduce ment, refine the taste, and to create an

But in the third place: success in contains eight large pages on the week, full the affairs of life is promoted by the influence of good associates. "He that changes and the general reader, as well as five broad columns of market quota-

honor and of profit. make an intelligent peasant would make

ignorance are very manifest and varied. tending to destruction and the grave It yokes remorseless cruelty to the same car with that blood and fire-nurtured While for many years we were firmly monster superstition, and drives the convinced that the liquor habit was an fiend-begotten pair over a sin smitten they are due to the presence of living evil, and more than an evil, and that world. It carpets the earth with all the continually; and while we believed that horrors of a Scandinavian haven, and Rev. Dr. Buckley, editor of the Christ anchor down. Hark, the ocean still tian Advocate, a very careful and re-liable paper, in the last issue of that The noble, but fated ship, impelled by cheerful voice of old Heinrich, as he hearty will and preserved their lands heart of the familiar footsteps on the gravel from the winds and the water and the gan to announce by their crowing that the familiar footsteps on the gravel from the winds and the water and the gan to announce by their crowing that the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching that for the well made chain is smapped that 60,000 people die announce by their crowing that the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching. The well made chain is smapped—the ocean lifts her in his arms of permanent cure of consumption. Brought that 60,000 people die and and the water and the gan to announce by their crowing that the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching. The well made chain is smapped wind and sea, leaps at and drags her and and physician, refined from practice, and of England, believing the statement of temperance people to be extravagant, that 60,000 people die and in the dawn was approaching. The well made chain is smapped wind and sea, leaps at and drags her anchor, and surges steunward to destruction. The well made chain is smapped to be extravagant, that 60,000 people die and the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching to the dawn was approaching. The well made chain is smapped to be extravagant, that 60,000 people die and the dawn was approaching. The well made chain is smapped to be extravagant, the dawn was approaching. The well made chain is smapped to be extravagant, the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching. Soon the dawn was approaching, the dawn was approaching to the dawn was approaching. The dawn was approaching the dawn was approaching to the dawn was approaching to the dawn was approaching the dawn was approaching to the dawn was approaching to the dawn w wind and sea, leaps at and drags her my dear little Hans.

God bless you, my dear old Heinrich, shows from the first to the last that to shows from the firs bright hope, and many a human mind fated ship. In helping you to rise above. and to conquer wherevils of ignorance I have some counse's to give you ;-first, be solicitous that the knowledge that you acquire is truly of the utilitarian ost, in many cases, by young people, at school, attempting to learn things that practical issues, our knowledge is practito overwork the brain. No two human minds have the same grasp, or power of endurance. There are bounds within which the mind may profitably work, but beyond the limits of which it can neve pass unscathed. Let it pass: then wildered brain; and the tortured mind. like the fire begirt scorpion, turns upon itself and stings. I has it was with Hugh Miller-a man of no ordinary grasp of mind — a prince among his peers. But in the third place; with the heavens above us, on which God has stamped the evidence of his being; with the earth beneath us, inviting us to unalthough sympathy of nature, community look her stores; with the Word of God f wants, and similarity of desire are the before us, courting our inquiries; and silken cords that bind men together, yet with the thousand avenues, furnished in it must be apparent to all that, from the providence, to increase our amount of constant friction of mind upon mind and knowledge; ignorance, I say, must be of habit upon character, the most sen jble almost an unpardonable sin. In a word, vil will be made.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

I will now give you three reasons why moved. The pearls of knowledge are that often beneath the purple of empire, And let us begin all things in the fear of

The publishers of the United States him about coming home early, and is preparing to quit the ravine, in which he is almost buried, and to come the ravine, and to come the ravine and the rav possibility of reasonable contradiction. Commercial Age, in the paper noto every household, office WHAT a sad state of affairs! An appetite for the beautiful, the good, and the true.

ment, refine the taste, and to create an subscription price of the Age is five dollars per annum. It is an old established paper, being in its each year. walketh wish wise men shall be wise but tions. It is invaluable to any one desiring the companion of fools shall be destroyed." to keep posted on the general markets Although I would counsel you to cuitive to keep posted on the gueral markets, inventions, finance, etc., of the country.

Next to the local paper no one can invest a DOLLAR to better advantage, as the age at this price is the cheapest paper in the wor'd, ONE DOLLAR barrly covering the cost of the line paper upon which But before we finish this chapter let or stamps for a sample copy, or, what me turn your attention to the subject of will be better still, result ONE DOLLAM ignorance. This term is comparative; and receive it a whole year. Subscrip for the amount of knowledge that would bry any begin at any time Address BRYANT & SLAWSON, Publishers

Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness,

A New Home Treatment.

Consumption ; ured.

GRYHRUP'S STUDIO, Main Street, Moncton, N. B.

C. P. Curtis & Co. Produce Commission Merchants. 76 ATLANTIC AVENUE BOSTON, MAS Solicit consignments of all kinds of produce, such as Hay, Potatoes, Apples, Eggs, Poultry (alive or dressed,) or anything else parties wish to ship to this market on sale. Fish of all kinds in their seasons. Quick sales. Prompt

CHARGES MODERATE.

HOUSEHOLD SPECIFIC—
The great External Remedy. Use in diseases where an external applicated it never fails. Nearly

Patronize the New Moncton

Livery Stable. We have taken the stable lately eccupi

A good Hostler always in attendance, TERMS MODERATE. WEST & CRUE.

$50 PER MONTH And all expenses paid. We want to take hold of a light, agreeable and over the dyke and carry some cakes to old blind Henrich? Yes, said his fat old father, knocking the ashes out of his pipe, but be sure not mether will be uneasy about you. Now of course they spoke to each other my dear little Hans.

God bless you, my dear old Heinrich.

Father, he said one day, may I go to stay too late in the evening or your n Dutch, but as we do not understand spite of their miserable, meist climate, that language we will use our native

he put on the woolen cap his mother had made for him and set of on his journey. He soon reached the humble cottage

We will have a country here. So instead of sitting down weeping and folding their arms, and letting their their herds be swept away by the oversheerful voice of old Heinrich, as he a hearty will and preserved their lands