The matter thus arranged, they supped and caroused together, and so she plied him with drink that he was well night overcome. She then brought out the sack, and while pretending to adjust it to his shoulder, stitched it strongly to the collar of his coat, telling him all he had to do when he got to the middle of the bridge was to lean it toward the edge, and chuck the sack as far as he could over the p-rapet, so as to get it clear out of the way into the current, and she would give him his money when he came back; which of course he never did. She could not tell, she said, how it had been found out, but the supposed how it had been found out, but she supposed God and the Virgin Mother had brought it to light; that was the whole truth, she add 3, and at she had to tell. When the trial had arrived to this point a country of the property and "No," she said, 'nchody helped me, and you might well suppose I would not be such a fool as to tell any living creature.'
(What! nobody!' the young lawyer
