HARCOURT.
TROUBLE IN SOUTH AFRICA.
(Official Message.)
LONDON, Oct. 13.
To Governor.
St. John's, Nfld.
The following from the Press Bureau embodies a telegram received by the Secretary of State for the Colonies from the Governor-General of the Union of South Africa:

"Since the resignation of General Beyers as Commandant-General of the Citizen force, there have been indications that something was wrong with the forces in the northwest of the Cape Provinces, which were placed under the command of Lieut-Col. Maritz. The Government arranged to send Colonel Conrad Brits to take over the command. On the eighth inst., Colonel Brits sent a message to Maritz to come in and report to him. To this message Maritz replied most insolently that he was not going to report to anybody; all he wanted was his discharge and Colonel Brits must come himself and take over his command. Colonel Brits then sent Major Ben Bouwer to take over the command. On arrival at Maritz's camp Major Bouwer was taken prisoner with his companions, but personally was subsequently released and sent back with an ultimatum from Maritz to the Union Government, that unless the Government guaranteed before 10 o'clock on Sunday morning, October eleven, that they should allow General Hertzog, De Wet, Beyers, Kemp and Muller to meet him where he was in order that he might receive instructions from them, he would forthwith make an attack on Colonel Brits' forces and proceed further to invade the Union. Major Ben Bouwer reported that Maritz was in possession of some guns belonging to Germans, that he held the rank of General, commanding the German troops. He had a force of Germans under him in addition to his own command. He had arrested all those of his officers and men who were unwilling to join the Germans, and had sent them forward as prisoners to German Southwest Africa. Major Bouwer saw an agreement between Maritz and the Government of German Southwest Africa, guaranteeing the independence of the Union as a Republic, and ceding Wal-fish Bay and certain other portions of the Union to the Germans, and undertaking that the Germans would only invade the Union on invitation of Maritz. Major Bouwer was shown numerous telegrams and holo messages dating back to the beginning of September. Maritz boasted that he had ample guns, rifles, ammunition and money from the Germans, and that he would over-run the whole of South Africa. In view of this state of affairs the Government is taking most vigorous steps to stamp out the rebellion and inflict condign punishment on all rebels and traitors. A proclamation declaring martial law throughout the Union, will appear in a Gazette Extraordinary to-day, Monday, 12th October, 1914."

HARCOURT.
MARITZ'S RECORD.
CAPE TOWN, Oct. 13.
It is officially announced here that the command under Col. Maritz has rebelled in Northwest of the Cape Provinces, and martial law has been proclaimed throughout the Union. Maritz fought in the Boer War with the rank of Commandant. In the summer of 1904 the Administration of German Southwest Africa was confronted with a rebellion of native Hereros and in the early part of July Germany admitted her inability to cope with the movement. She asked aid of Great Britain, and in response the British Government granted Germany permission to engage Maritz, who then held the title of General, as military adviser to the Commander of the German troops in Southwest Africa. Two steamships conveyed Maritz, ten Boer officers, and five hundred Boer marksmen from Cape Town to Swakopmund, from which place they advanced to join the German forces. The rebellion among the forces in the Northwest has been brewing since the resignation of General Beyers as Commander-in-Chief of the Union forces.

GERMANY'S NEW PLAN.
LONDON, Oct. 13.
The Headquarters of the Belgian Government were to-day transferred to Havre. Members of the Cabinet with other Government officials and the diplomatic corps left Ostend by steamer for the French port where they will carry on the affairs of State and where hospitality has been offered them by the French Government. The American and Spanish Ministers, both of whom are still at Brussels, are the only diplomatic representatives accredited to Belgium remaining in that country. This final charge followed quickly upon the German westward advance which was begun immediately on the fall of Antwerp. Their success in taking the chief port in Belgium was the commencement of a new plan of campaign which embraces the occupation of the whole of Belgium, including the coast towns and possibly some of the northern French towns. In accordance with this new plan the German invaders have begun to sweep across Northern Belgium and yesterday morning occupied Ghent and are now well advanced to Bruges on the way to Ostend. They will probably meet with strong opposition before they reach Bruges, as the Belgian army is now being reorganized and has been reinforced. All despatches from that region are being strictly censored, so that nothing has been learned of the operations since Ghent fell into the hands of the Germans. The enemy is making a simultaneous advance in Southern Belgium, while across the border in France a whole army corps has occupied Lille, and cavalry have been seen as far west as Hazebrouck, which is on the railway leading to both Calais and Dunkirk. French forces have been sent out to cut off this attempt to reach the coast.

KIEL CANAL CLOSED.
LONDON, Oct. 13.
The Kaiser Wilhelm Canal between the Baltic and the North Sea, has been closed to ordinary traffic during the war.

RUSSIAN PRINCE KILLED.
PETROGRAD, Oct. 13.
Prince Oleg, son of the Grand Duke Constantine, is dead, wounded in action.

TRANSFERRED TO FRANCE.
BORDEAUX, Oct. 13.
It has been decided to transfer the Belgian Government to France, in order that it may have full liberty of action. Several Belgian ministers, accompanied by a group of officials, left Ostend this morning for Havre, where the French Government has prepared temporary offices for them. King Albert remains at the head of the Belgian Army.

THE GERMAN STORY.
AMSTERDAM, Oct. 13.
The latest German official bulletin concerning events in the Eastern theatre of war, says: "After their expulsion from East Prussia the Russian armies were pursued across the frontier. The centre of German military operation is now in Poland, the Russians occupying only Warsaw. During our retreat to the East Prussian frontier our troops were not defeated anywhere, but on the contrary repulsed any attacks by Russians."

ST. PIERRE BULLETIN.
PARIS, Oct. 13.—(Official).
To our left our troops have retaken the offensive in the region of Hazebrouck and Bethune against the enemy's forces composed chiefly of cavalry coming from Bailleul, Estraires and La Bassée. The town of Lille, held by a territorial detachment has been attacked and occupied by a German army corps. Between Arras and Albert, we have made noted good progress. In the centre we have also progressed in the region of Berry-aubac and advanced slightly towards Sovaux, west of Argonne and north of Nelancourt between Argonne and Meuse. On the right bank of the Meuse our troops hold the heights of the Meuse, east of Verdun, and we have advanced some of the road of Verdun leading to Metz. In the neighborhood of Apremont we have gained a little ground and repulsed a German attack on our left. To our right wing in the Vosges and Alsace there is no change. To sum up, yesterday was marked by a good progress of our forces on several points of the battlefield.

Russia.—Austrian troops, beaten in Galicia, attempted to reform their lines at four kilometres west of Przemyśl. A battle has been raging since the 11th on the left banks of the Vistula near Ivangorod. In Russian Poland there is no change yet in the situation. Several Russian cavalry detachments crossed the Carpathians and reached the plains of Hungary.

Belgium.—The Belgian Government has decided to transfer its seat to France; several ministers and government officials have left Ostend this morning en route for Havre. King Albert remains at the head of his army. According to the official report it is announced that in the Ardennes the towns of Mezieres, Charleville and Rocroi have suffered very slightly from German occupation; Sedan and Youxiers are intact; Haybes and Fumay devastated. Rethel has 1200 houses burned, nine hundred destroyed, including Town Hall, schools and markets. General Joffre has applied for a Cross for the Standard of the 24th Colonial Regiment, who took the Standard of the 6th German Infantry under the following circumstances: On the 26th the Germans managed to take possession of the trenches occupied by a battalion of 24th Colonial Regiment. The 11th and 12th companies of this Regiment made a counter attack and the Germans were compelled to fall back, leaving one of their companies prisoners. On searching the trenches the German Standard was found.

ALLIES PROGRESSING.
PARIS, Oct. 13.
The following official announcement was made public to-day: Yesterday was marked by perceptible progress on the part of the Allies in various points on the field of battle. An Austrian corps defeated in Galicia is endeavoring to reform at a point west of Przemyśl.

OFFICIALLY NOTIFIED.
BERLIN, Oct. 13.

There will be no question of forcing the Scheldt or using it for purposes not sanctioned in treaties with the Netherlands. Notification to this effect was sent out this morning.

Girls! Thicken And Beautify Your Hair.
Bring back its gloss, lustre, charm and get rid of dandruff—Try the moist cream.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice soft hair and lots of it. Just get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance; freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower; destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

"Short" Men Will Have Their Chance Now
Now that the War Office has had a chance to deal with the first 500,000 recruits for the new army, it is expected that before long the standard will be put back to the old level, says the London Daily News. At the London recruiting headquarters the names and addresses are now being taken of the thousands of men just under 5 ft. 6 in. who apply, and they are being told that the best thing they can do is to settle down again for a few weeks and wait till they receive a telegram.

"It isn't that we don't want the 5 ft. 3 in. man," said an official, "we want every man we can get. But the recruiting had to be damped down somehow to give the War Office a chance to deal with the men, and it was decided that the simplest way was to raise the standard. It will soon go down again."

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 11, 1903.
Minard's Lintiment Co., Limited.
Sirs,—I came across a bottle of your MINARD'S LINTIMENT in the hands of one of the students at the University of Maryland, and he being so kind as to let me use it for a very bad sprain, which I obtained in training for foot races, and to say that it helped me would be putting it very mildly, and I therefore ask if you would let me know of one of your agents that is closest to Baltimore so that I may obtain some of it. Thanking you in advance I remain,
Yours truly,

We have the past year tried to bring before the public notice the many advantages to be gained by buying

Home Made Goods.

We most emphatically state that never was the need more apparent, with most of our factories running half time and men earning half wages. Why? Because a certain prejudice exists against Home-made Goods. Every dollar sent out of the country makes that one less for home manufacturers. Take our line particularly

Mattress and Springs

Absolutely no need of importing them, as the cost must be higher. We offer to-day FELT MATTRESSES as good, or even better, than the Ostermoor, from $5 to $10 cheaper. Our new Health Mattress, 6 n. bands, are real beds in themselves, made of Pure Cotton, absolutely sanitary.

On and after October 15th we will have on exhibition in our Showroom, second flat, the above goods, and shall be only pleased to show and explain same to anyone requiring same. Our improved OXFORD SPRINGS are taking well. We will sell you a SURFACE OAK SIDEBOARD for $15.50 that cannot be imported less than $21.50. Fearless Gunner.
Soldier's Letter to Chum's Father.
Gunner Batey (Royal Garrison Artillery) to Mr. Robert Mann, of Kimbleworth, near Gateshead: You will be surprised to hear from me. I have just come back from the front, and I have met your son, Gunner F. Spencer Mann, out there. If it had not been for him I would not be here to tell the tale.

I got severely wounded in the severe fighting we had for three days across the Meuse. We had our heavy siege guns in action, and I was hit with shrapnel. When I fell our men drove off, but your son and I had been fighting side by side and he missed me.

It was like the fires of hell, and your noble lad came back and carried me to safety, although he was wounded himself, but not dangerously. He gave me two letters: one for you and one for his brother Jim; and I lost them, and then I thought of your address. So I thought I would write and tell you. He said that if God spared him, he would never come back until the war was finished. It is a cruel war, but our side will win.

and you can be proud of your son, as we were all proud of him. He dropped them like sheep in hundreds. Your son was the lad for them. When he laid the gun it played hell with the Germans. He seemed in his glory, and with such men as him England must win. He fears nothing. He is always cheering, always shouting, "Into them, lads; the sooner we get through the sooner we will get home." The captain is proud of him.

To freshen a velvet trim that hold the crown over boiling water and brush the nap up with a stiff, fiber clothes brush. Be careful not to touch the velvet till it is dry.

To make a fish custard, take one pound of any cooked fish, remove skin, bones, etc., and shred it fine.
