An orator of inusual and marked ability, his address was, without the shadow of doubt, the best eyer heard in the Council Chamber. The fluent language and beautiful oratory with which he expressed himself gripped his audience for nearly three hours. At the conclusion of Bro. Dunne's address, State Secretary C. J. Fox, who is also an orator of repute, expressed the thanks of the Council for the excellent address and congratulated Brother Dunne. An informal concert was then held in which the following members of the Council took part:-Bros. C. Hutton, J. Canning, G. F. Kearney, Recorder P. H. Jardine, D.G.K.R., J. Power, J. Henley, and Financial Secretary N. J. Wadden. All the above mentioned were in excellent form and very enjoyable concert resulted.
