

The Results so Far.

At the present writing all the elections in Ontario, except twelve, have taken place. Of these the Opposition have gained 44, the Ministry 29, and 3 are put down as independent.

Not only have the Reform victories in Ontario been important in point of numbers, but the Reformers have killed off some of the ablest and most influential supporters of the Government.

Then McDougall, who has made himself the foothold of every political party, who though not at the time an actual member of the Government was yet the electioneering ally and tool of Sir John, and who, it was understood, would get a seat in the Cabinet again, if elected.

It is reported that Mr. Hurdon's resignation is merely a ruse to throw Mr. Blake's friends off their guard.

The Reformers of Monck meet in convention at Wellandport on Saturday to select their candidate for the Local Legislature.

The futile attempts of the Mail to encourage the faithful by its classification of members is a subject of amusement among politicians in Toronto and indeed throughout Ontario.

A newspaper man from New Brunswick, at present in Toronto, states that very few men are to be found in that Province ready to pledge themselves supporters of the Government.

The English Wesleyan Conference is making special provision, in installing its ministers for the present year, to have the University towns well manned.

West Elgin Redeemed.

Table for West Elgin Redeemed: Mr. Munro, the Conservative member in last Parliament, has been defeated by Mr. Casey, a Reformer. This gives twenty Ontario counties reclaimed by Reformers, against three lost—a net gain of seventeen, or thirty-four on a division. The following are the figures at the close of the poll:—

Table for East Northumberland: Mr. Keeler, the old Conservative member, has been re-elected. The severe illness of Mr. Biggar, which has confined him to his home during the entire canvass, is doubtless one of the causes of this result.

More Reform Gains in Quebec.

Mr. Poyer, the Liberal candidate, has been elected in Beauce by 1,127 majority. Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Bechar, both Liberals, were elected by acclamation.
