

No range can bake so well as the Imperial Oxford, because no other range has the Diffusive Oven Flue that draws in pure air constantly, heats it just as hot as you want it heated, and sends it through every part of the whole oven every second. That flue, found only in this perfect range, keeps that heated pure air—DRY air—constantly moving DOWNWARD through the oven, over the baking food, and out up the chimney. When it enters the oven it's hot and dry; when it leaves it, it's wet air, carries with it all the moisture, all the odors, but NONE of the juices of the food that's being baked.

Please visit any of our stores and see why this is the right range for your kitchen.

It certainly does do good baking

After a rest on the other side, he started back, in mid-stream McKenzie either took a cramp or the boy tightened his grasp so much around his neck as to in some way cause the swimmer to sink. When the bodies were found, the boy's arms were still tightly clasped around McKenzie's neck.

GAULOUS WIFE SLAYER

Views Body, Says, "That's Where I Intended to Shoot Her."

Bolestered Up by Whisky Christopher Spindleman of Windsor Kills His Wife in the Presence of Her Children—Terrible Battle Between Son and Murderer For Possession of the Weapon and to Save Murderer Becoming a Suicide.

Windsor, July 16.—His courage bolstered up to the murder point by whisky, Christopher Spindleman Saturday night shot and killed his wife as she sat on a camp stool in front of their residence. Seven minutes after the bullet crashed through the woman's head she was dead, slain in the sight of four of her children. One of them, Robert, who boarded nearby, and who witnessed the crime, ran to the scene and snatched the revolver away from his frenzied father just as he was about to end his own miserable existence.

Struggling desperately, the two men rolled about the lawn, one battling to overcome his mother's slayer, the other to place the revolver in such a position that he could blow out his brains. Youth triumphed and held until the arrival of Policeman Maltra.

"Let me look at her once more," begged Spindleman, as the officer grasped him by the arm to take him to the police station. Believing that the man was sorry for his deed, Maltra, his heart filled with pity for the trembling, blood-stained wretch, led him back to the lawn, where the woman lay, dead.

"That is just where I intended to shoot her," said Spindleman, heartlessly. Then he was led away.

The tragedy was the result of a man's life devoted to whisky and to abuse of the woman he had sworn to love. Neighbors say that most of Spindleman's money was spent in saloons. For his wife and children he provided but poorly. The wife remonstrated many times, but Spindleman was past all reformation. Her reclamations led to bitter quarrels that grew so in frequency that Robert, the son, left home and boarded with neighbors.

Result of Quarrel.

Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock the Spindlemans had another quarrel. The husband came home about 3 o'clock intoxicated. Shortly after, he left home, went down town and purchased a revolver.

At 5 o'clock the husband returned, even more intoxicated. He flourished the revolver in his wife's face, but the brave woman was not cowed. The quarrel continued until after 5 o'clock, when Mrs. Spindleman, convinced that her husband meant to kill her, took three of the children and left the house. Shortly after, she returned and seated herself on a camp chair on the lawn.

Revolver flashing in the air and uttering horrible curses, Spindleman sprang from the front door, ran to his wife, and before she had time to flee, fired a bullet into her head. With a moan on her lips, she sank to the ground, where she lay dying, while the struggle for peace between her husband and the children continued.

Spindleman, 47 years of age and his victim was 37, had been married about 20 years.

DISEASED KIDNEYS.

Made Sound and Strong Through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"Two doctors told me that I was incurable but thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I am a well woman to-day." This strong statement was made by Mrs. Ed. Rcs., of St. Catharines, to a reporter, who hearing of her remarkable cure called to see her. "A few years ago while living in Hamilton," continued Mrs. Rose, "I was attacked with kidney trouble. The doctor lulled me into a state of false security while the disease continued to make inroads. Finding that I was not getting better I consulted a specialist who told me that the trouble had developed into Bright's disease and that I was incurable. I had dwined to a mere shadow and suffered from iron pain in the back, and often had difficulty in breathing. Insomnia next came to add to my tortures and I passed dreary sleepless nights, and felt that I had not long to live. In this despairing condition my husband urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and to please him I began to take them. After using several boxes I felt the pills were helping me and I continued taking them until I had used some twenty boxes when I was again restored to perfect health and every symptom of trouble had disappeared. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills certainly brought me back from the shadow of the grave and I have since enjoyed the best of health."

Every drop of blood in the body is filtered by the kidneys. If the blood is weak or watery the kidneys have no strength for their work and leave the blood unfiltered and foul. Then the kidneys get clogged with painful and poisonous impurities which bring rheaching backs and deadly Bright's disease. The only hope is to strike with out delay at the root of the trouble in the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They make new blood. They flush the kidneys clean, heal their inflammation and give them strength for their work. Common kidney pills only touch the symptoms—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure the cause. That is why they cure so good and at the same time improve the health in every other way. But you must get the genuine pills with the full name Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People on the wrapper on each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

Protestants Should Unite With a Central Head Directing.

Toronto, July 17.—A federation of Protestant denominations the world over, dominated by one central head, is the Roman Catholic Church, was the suggestion of the address of Dr. Sproule of the Grand Sovereign of the Orange order of Canada, at yesterday's session of the triennial council now in progress in this city.

The duty of the Protestant Church today was to rally to the help of the Orange and kindred associations, to uphold the principles for which their fathers had fought. While the Roman Catholic Church was dominated from one central point—the Vatican at Rome—the Protestant Church was directed from many sources and lacked the unity which characterized the Church of Rome.

HIGH SPEED THE CAUSE

Coroner's Inquest Into the Salisbury Railway Wreck.

Jury's Verdict Is One of Accidental Death, As Its Members Considered Railway as Well as Driver Was to Blame—Company Accepts Full Responsibility For the Accident—Train Was Running at a Speed of 60 Miles.

Salisbury, Eng., July 17.—The coroner's inquest into the cause of the wreck of the Plymouth steamer express, July 1, whereby 27 lives were lost, resulted in a verdict yesterday that the derailment of the train was due to the high speed at which it was running, and which was contrary to the company's orders.

It is added that drivers of trains not stopping at Salisbury should have their attention drawn to the regulations, which was not done in this case.

The jury allowed the verdict to be recorded as one of accidental death, saying they considered that a certain amount of blame attached to the company as well as to the engine driver.

At the resumption of the enquiry counsel for the London and Southwestern Railway announced that the railway accepted full responsibility for the accident and all the legal consequences resulting from it, adding that he hoped this statement would reduce the time occupied by the inquest.

The guard of the express, Harrison, testified that the ill-fated train was running at the rate of at least 50 miles an hour through Salisbury, whereas the proper speed is 30 to 40 miles an hour.

Harrison added that as speed was not reduced on approaching Salisbury he signalled to the engineer, but the train continuing at high speed, he applied the hand brakes and had just applied the vacuum brakes when the train was derailed.

The company issued instructions in February regarding the speed at this particular place, but the instructions were subsequently cancelled.

Major Phipps, representing the Board of Trade, said his investigations showed that the speed of the train between Wilton and Salisbury was over 60 miles an hour.

Officials of the London and Southwestern Railway testified that previous to February trains were allowed to pass through Salisbury at the rate of 30 miles an hour, but in February they were ordered to reduce this speed to 25 miles per hour.

Superintendent Holmes of the railroad company said that the train was four minutes late at Salisbury, although it had been traveling between 64 and 70 miles per hour. The high speed alone was responsible for the accident.
