similar story to tell.

A year or two since Sir John Macdonald said: "You will never get a treaty between the United States and Canada for reciprocal trade in the natural productions of the two countries. The Americans said—whether truly or not I do not know—that it was a nominal reciprocity, that all the advantages were on the side of Canada. " "
Unless the United States shall come at some time or other to a conclusion that they would be willing to enter upon a reciprocity treaty not only for our natural productions, but for our manufactures as well as our natural productions, we will never have a treaty. I am quite satisfied the United States will not agree, the country will be against a repetition of the treaty of 1854." It is reported that Mr. Algie, of Alton, manufacturer of woolens, for years an active Conservative and nominator of Mr. White at the last election in Cardwell, will work with the Liberals and vote for their candidate in this contest. andidate in this contest.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Montreal Witness asserts as a fact that Mr. Chapleau warned a friend of his there not to make himself conspicuous in the fight against the Liberals, as, after March 5, he might find the Liberals in power.

A Kingston correspondent writes: "There are 1,000 horses in Frontenac county for sale, but no one will buy because of the heavy duties put upon animals by the United States Government. Unrestricted reciprocity is the only hope of the farmers."

will not agree, the voice of the country will be against a repetition of the treaty of 1854." be against a repetition of the treaty of 1854." The Montreal Witness says: "Sir John Thompson has cleared up the situation by his speech at the Toronto Auditorium. In as many words he stated that if the Government.—If ames G. Blaine.

Mr. Peter Bertram, proprietor of the axe factory in Dundas, informed a meeting of electors there this week that he was ready for reciprocity with the United States, and if he could not hold his own in honest competition he would shut up shop.

"If he be a poor man," says Sir John in his slection address, "he contents himself with a cup of tea on which there is no duty." Tea without sugar, however, is not outy." Tea without sugar, however, is not a pleasant beverage even for a poor man. And the taxes on sugar in 1888-89 amounted to $3,650,000.

During the last twelve years the Government has increased the public debt at the rate of about $60 a minute; practically every time a man breathed since 1878 a dollar was added to our national indebtedness. Since 1867 Sir John Macdonald is responsible for $185,634,000 increase in our national debt, and the Liberals for only $7,232,000. There is food for thought for the electors of Ganada.

He did not wish to charge the Conservative party with being dishonest, but it seems extraordinary that after only last year denouncing the idea of reciprocity in natural products, that they should come forward now and protess to favor a measure of reciprocity in natural products and maintain the National Policy at the same time. (Cheers.)—(William Paterson at Brantford.

"Why," said Dr. Landerkin in South Grey, "did the Dominion authorities not go to Washington before the dissolution, negotiate the treaty, come back and present it frankly to the people of Canada and say to them, 'Here is the treaty we have made. Does it meet your approval? If so, give us a renewal of your confidence. That would have been called fair and manly statesmanship. Instead of this manly course they have chosen that of deception and obscurity. Instead of an honest course they have taken the opposite."

At a mass meeting in the town of Dundas, yesterday, Mr. Thomas Bain, ex.M.P., referred to the unfortunate condition of Dundas under the National Policy, and said that wages had been 20 per cent. higher in the old days before the N.P. than they had been since. The Dundas cotton mill was a good proof of this. Formerly it had all it could do; now it is idle. The Tory policy was "the old flag, the Old Man and the old policy." The old flag would do, but the old man and the dd policy must go. The country had got all it wanted of the N.P., and now wants reciprocity with the United States. the United States.

canada was not as prosperous as it should be. One reason for this was the extravagant expenditure of our Government. This expenditure should not increase faster than our population, and if it does the result will be harmful. The net debt has in eleven years increased $94,543,000, and the gross debt $106,000,000. The past time of commercial prosperity was in part caused by the pressure of nearly $100,000,000 of the pressure of nearly $100,000,000 of the pressure of interest has to be borne on this sum. L'Electeur, of Quebec, has the following dispatch: "Mr. Bunting, proprietor of the Mail, declared yesterday to your correspondent that there was not a shadow of a doubt as to the triumph of the Liberals at the coming election, and that SirJohn's doom was sealed in advance. Mr. Bunting, who was formerly the Tories' chief organizer in Ontario, adds that it is only necessary to witness the activity and enthusiasm of the Liberals to predict for that party an electoral triumph unprecedented in the political annals of this country. Mr. Bunting believes that he is safe in saying that on the prosperity with the United States means prosperity for Canada, and we had that prosperity if mr. 1834 to 1866, and the prosperity will prevent any feeling in favor.

Washington,

Reciprocity with the United States means prosperity for Canada, and we had that prosperity for Canada, and the prosperity from 1854 to 1866, and the prosperity will prevent any feeling in favor of annexation. Talking of treason in connection with reciprocity is ridiculous and not worthy of a man like Sir John. Were the authors of the reciprocity treaty of 1854 traitors to the country? Then Sir John was a traitor with all the illustrious statesmen of that time. Can a man be a traitor to his country when he favors its interests and is trying honestly to pull it out from commercial and financial difficulties? I see treason in a statesman who wants to keep his countrymen starving, but not in those who wish to give them riches.—[Premier Mercier at Montreal. The Handsomest Woman in London remarked to a friend the other day that she knew Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs was a superior remedy, as it stopped her cough instantly, when other cough remedies had no effect whatever. the Brantford Expositor says that a well-known manufacturer recently told the story of a farmer who came to his shop and wanted to renew parts of a stove. He had had the old stove for many years, and said he was unable to buy a new one because the price was too high. The manufacturer said his country friend looked at him as though he had been robbing him and was putting in his own pocket the difference between the price of twenty years ago and that of to-day. "The fact is," he stated, "that the protective policy has increased the cost of making a stove to such an extent that my profits on stoves are really less now than they were twenty years ago."
