THE VILLAGE SCHOOL

The Educational Legislators of London West in Session.

The regular meeting of the Board of Education was held in the school house Friday night. Present: Chairman E. Pudney, Trustees Alex. Curric, R. A. Jones, Isaac D. Smith, W. Leich, Secretary Brown and Head Master Liddicoatt.

The following accounts were presented and passed: Thos. Bryan, $155; W. Leigh, 50 cents; Jas. I. Anderson, $623; H. Tozer, $570; and John Powers, $2925.

Trustee R. A. Jones, chairman of the Management Committee, reported that he had interviewed Contractor Spence respecting the inefficient working of the furnace. Mr. Spence said he had done everything in his power to put them in proper order. The only thing that now remains was for the Board to have the cap removed from the top of the shaft and raised. He was sure this would remedy the trouble. His original contract was for $50, but he had expended over $100 so far. He said if it cost him $100 more he would put the furnace in proper order if the Board would do as he required. Trustee Leigh moved, seconded by Trustee Smith, that the matter be left in the hands of the Management Committee with power. Carried. The head master's report for February and March was submitted and adopted, as follows:

Trustee R. A. Jones moved, seconded by Trustee Leigh, that the estimate for school purposes be $2,000.

It was moved in amendment by Trustee Alex. Currie, seconded by Trustee W. L. Brown that the amount be $2,500.

Chairman Pudney moved that the amount be $1,750. No seconder.

The motion asking for $2,000 carried.

The head master reported that Janitor Bide had left the keys with him on Thursday, stating that he would resign his position as he was leaving London. The resignation was accepted and applications for the position will be asked for to be received up to May 1. Mrs. Bide was appointed janitor for the balance of the month. A Crusade Against Slavery.

The Preston Club's Third Assembly.

A Gay Crowd, Brilliant Costumes, Entrancing Music and First-Class

"Whatever you do, do it well," is a good maxim, and one which none know how to follow better than the well-know. Preston Club. This is a society aiming a social pleasure, and cultivation. Threatimes this season have they helf splendid assemblies, and the third on Friday night reached climax of success. The old City Hall was rejuvenated with decorasions. Bunting in gay profusion depended from the ceiling, wall and gallery all arranged with an eye to taste as well a beauty. Two immense Union Jacks cuntained off the Council Chamber, the prettily embellished apartment serving an excellent refreshment room and a convenient nock for tete-a-tetes. Gas lamps of many colored globes threw a return gent glow over that bright, shapping guests below, as they promenaded the polished floor or tripped its surface to the ripple of the music from a detachment of the Seventh band. The dancing programming was one of acceptable variety, twenty numbers being on the list, to which were added a liberal amount of extras. Spectators lined the galleries and gazed intently on the dazzilng scene beneath, where feminine youth and grace was enhanced by witching costumes. The energetic club committee have proved themselves efficient in every sense of the word during the winter's receptions, and may be congratulated on the brilliant issue last night's ball proved to be. It included Messrs. A. A. Campbell, president; J. L. Fitzgerald, vice-president; John Lester, treasurer; W. White, secretary, and H. C. McBride, J. W. Butler, J. E. Bell, R. R. Bland, H. E. Smyth, J.
