Radical Meeting in London in Favor of Greece,

Twenty Thousand People Assemble in Hyde Parke.

ENGLISH SYMPATHY WITH GREECE.

London, March 8.-A large Radical meeting was held in Hyde Park yesterday to give voice to the feeling in favor of Greece, which generally obtains among the masses of England. Among the speakers were Joseph Havelock Wilson, M. P. for Middlesorough, and Edward J. Morton, M. P. for Davenport. Resolutions were adopted, amid much enthusiasm expressing sympathy with the Cretan Christians in their struggle for freedom, congratulating Greece upon her firm resolve to protest the coercion of reece by the powers.

One of the resolutions urges Lord refuse to disgrace the Salisbury to British fleet by lending it to support the Turks. The weather was not favorable for a large out-door gatherng, it being dull and threatening, but nevertheless there were fully 20,000 persons in the park, including the onokers. Harold James Reckitt, M. P. Brigg division of Lincolnshire; derry city; Thomas Lough, M. P. for the Rosebery Cabinet; Lord Carringof the House of Commons, including the Right Hon. George N. Curzon,

A CRITICAL MOMENT.

Athens, March 8 .- The ultimatum of the six powers to Greece, insisting disturbed. upon the withdrawal of the Greek troops and fleet from Crete, which was presented on Monday last, expires at 4 p.m. today. At that hour, if Grece is still obdurate, the Ministers f the six powers will leave this city. No hostilities or coercive measures are possible until Wednesday, as the foreign admirals must first be addrawing up a general scheme of ockade. From the fact that the Freeks have landed large supplies of provisions in Creté, thus revictualing the army for three months it would ppear that no attempt to blockade he southern coast of the island has been made by the combined fleets.

The interesting baptismal services in connection with the Horton Street Baptist (colored) Church were held

In the morning a most impressive service was conducted in the church by Mrs. (Rev.) Johnston, who took as her text. St. Matthew, iii., 13.

After the service the congregation repaired to the house of Deacon Hodge Duncan, which overlooks the Thames at the foot of Maitland street, where a prayer-meeting was held and preparations made for the baptismal ceremony. Rev. B. B. B. Johnson read a part of the 18th chapter of Isaiah, resumed, the company having declar-Hymns were sung, and Mrs. (kev.) Johnson read from John xiii.

Shortly after 1 o'clock, the congregation went down to the river. The Thames at this point was covered with its system and may issue the remainice, upon which a number of boys were disporting themselves. There was, however, a small opening along the east bank, and here the candidates were to be dipped.
