Dr. H. Gray, in Trying to Save Her, Story of His Enlistment, Desertion Loses His Life.

Tonawanda, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Miss Rubie Adams, of Toronto, who has been visiting Dr. C. W. Clendenan during the past week, was accidentally drowned in the Niagara River near the Tonawanda ferry about 9 o'clock last night. The Outing Club of Tona-wanda, left this city on the yacht Ella H. on a pleasure trip. Mrs. Adams and her daughter Rubie were among the large number who left with the party. The excursionists spent a pleasant day, and about 8 o'clock left Coney Island for home. When near the Tonawanda ferry dock Miss Adams and Dr. Gray, who were on the upper deck of the pleasure yacht, decided to go to the first deck. While Miss Adams was going down the rear steps her foot slipped a step and she fell to the deck below and rolled into the river before aid could reach her. Dr. Gray, who had been with her, dove into the stream and made a strong effort to save her, but owing to the swift current at that point both were swept away and were drowned.

Dr. Howard Gray, 21 years of age, graduated from the University of Buffalo about a year ago. He was one of the most prominent young society men of this city. Miss Adams was 17 years and Arrest Quite Romantic.

Detroit, Aug. 5 .- From July 9 until yesterday afternoon Charles S. Stevens was a prisoner in the guard house at Fort Wayne, awaiting trial on the charge of being a deserter from the United States army. He is now, however, probably safe in Canada. Yesterday afternoon Stevens and two other prisoners were set to work dumping earth along the river front. Stevens was driver, and just as the wagon reached the river he jumped from his seat and made a dash for a clump of bushes. The guard took aim, and snapped the trigger of his gun, but the weapon missed fire. Stevens disappeared into the bushes and got away. The story of Stevens' enlistment, alleged desertion and arrest form the subject matter of quite a romance. About a year ago he enlisted in the United States army, without the knowledge of his sweetheart, Miss Tiny Forner, daughter of a Henrietta farmer. Before he was finally assigned to a regiment his sweetheart was taken ill. She wrote, pleading with her lover to return to her. Stevens was unable to resist the appeal, and, it is alleged, deserted from Columbus bar-

He returned to Henrietta and to his sweetheart, who speedily recovered her health. Stevens then went to work on a farm, and his wedding day had already been set, when in an evil hour he visited Jackson. There he was recognized by an officer, was applehended, and brought to Fort Wayne.

SOMETHING THAT SHOULD BE RUBBED IN.—Whenever pain is felt in the limbs or back, take Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil; pour a little in the hand and applying it to the surface beneath which the pain lies, rub briskly. If the first application does not afford relief, which is not usually the case, keep rubbing. The Oil will gradually penetrate to the affected part and relief will come.
