HAMILTON'S FIRE CHIEF FATACLY INJURED WHILE RESPONDING TO AN ALARM

Alexander W. Aitchison, chief of the head of the Hamilton department in Hamilton fire department, was fatally injured this morning while responding to an alarm.

The accident which cost Chief Aitchison his life occurred at the intersection of King and John streets, in the heart of Hamilton's business section. An alarm had been sent in from a box in the southern part of the city, and as it was about to enter John street, south of King, the rig occupied by Chief Aitchison and Fireman Britton, collided with a fire truck. The force of the collision was so great that Chief Aitchson was hurled in the air a distance of ten feet, striking the monument erected to the memory of the late Sir John Macdonald. JOHN S. BARNARD 170 Dundas St., London.

An ingenious thief who secreted himself in a trunk addressed to the freight station at Smichow, in Austria, was captured after he had filled the trunk with miscellaneous valuable from other

AS THE OIL RUBS IN. THE PAIN RUBS OUT.—Applied to the seat of a pain in any part of the body, the skin absorbs the soothing liniment under brisk friction and the patient obtains almost instant relief. The results of the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil have surprised many who were unacquainted with its deallites, and once known it will not be rejected. Try it.
