THE LOCAL MARKET

Hay was in demand on the local mar-ket this morning. Prices were high, $15.50 and $15.75 per ton being the rul-ing prices, although $16 per ton was received for a couple of loads.

Three loads of oats, sold before 9:20 this morning, brought $1.48 per hundred-weight. The bottom price is $1.42 per hundredweight. There is a good demand for oats. Three buyers were on the market ooking for straw. Straw is in demand. ut the supply is poor. At $7.50 to $8 er ton there is a brisk demand. No changes are reported in butchers' meats. One day the demand is fairly risk, while the next day it seems to be Gammage London theatregoers can cheer up. No longer is the worst yet to come. came last night. It was disguised as 'Annie Laurie," and the Royal Scotch Players are the guilty folk. Mr. Howard think if it had been ours we would have refrained from spelling out our name in full. People are so likely to remember. However, that's Mr. Barnes' lookout, and in wartime we are all more or less ready to take a chance. But, Why not be one of oh, Mr. Barnes, it wasn't fair to a grand old song to build around its fame such an apology for a play as was presented at the Grand last night. Perour regular weekly haps we should modify that last statement. While anything but a drama, in the true meaning of the word, had it been in the hands of really capable customers for a box of out select CUT players it would have furnished some
