STIFF OPPOSITION

The plaintive youl of the Hamilton Tiger will be heard for the first time in London today. Sammy Manson's Tiger Cublets are due to do a nrowi up at the Western University oval this afternoon in what will be the Purple and Whites' maiden same on their new playing field. From all accounts, the visitors do a pretty fair imitation of the blood-thirsty cry of "Wis-kee-wee-wee" with which Hamilton rugby teams have essayed to terrify opposition—and have often succeeded—in past seasons.

teams have essaved to terrify opposition—and have often succeeded—in past seasons.

However, Coach Ficklev, who lived long in the jungle, was confident last night that his charges would acquit hemselves creditably, if not sensationally, in the face of perhaps the tiffest test which could have been chosen for them. The fact that he chose the Tiger seconds for opposition shows how great is his confidence in this year's purple and white squad. Sammy Manson was not only one of the game's best players, but has shown remarkable coaching ability, and he has nad much good material to work on this year. Tiger seconds are a big this year. Tiger seconds are a big task for any team to tackle, but Fickley is sure that his squad will come through.

He intends to send 24 men into the game, the big squad having been pared from the that a choice made on the work shown has ability under fire, and no fairer test not have been unfair. The game will wive every candidate a chance to show his ability under fire, and no fairer test not have been unfair. The fight for positions has been so keen as it has, and in many cases so close that a choice made on the work showa in drill might have been unfair. Fickley has drilled the squad intensively on formations and signals this sively on formations and signals this last week. With more experience this last week. With more machine-like team, capable of varving machine-like team has balance and the kind of spirit eam has balance and the kind of spirit eam has balance and the kind of spirit eam has balance and the fans who trek work that should carry them over the tough spots. A large number of men through today's game, but of men through today's game, but of men through today's game, but of men through today's game but uppermost in the minds of both coaches will be victory, and the fans who trek out the soul and thrills.

Mrs. Fraser Sinks 40-foot Putt On 19th Green For Eagle

St. Louis. Oct. 2.—An international match between Mrs. Alexa Stirling Fraser of Ottawa and Glenna Collett of Providence will decide the 29th women's national golf championship here tomorrow. Both women won today in matches so closely contested that one of them ended on the home green and the other wentsil holes.

Mrs. Fraser, who held the title for five successive years, closed her semifinal match with Louise Fordyce of Youngstown by sinking a 40-foot putt on the 19th green for an eagle three.

Miss Collett, champion in 1922, had to score one better than par for 18 holes to win by one up from Edith Cummings of Chicago, who won the title in 1923 by defeating Alexa Stirling in the finals.

Miss Collett had the best medal score of the day, taking 40 on each nine for an 80 as compared with par 40-41-81, while Miss Cummings was second with 41-41-82. Mrs. Fraser was one stroke behind with 39-44-83, and Miss Fordyce took 42-42-84. Miss Collett was one over par on only two holes, and she got three birdies and scored the other 13 holes perfectly.

Mrs. Fraser owed her close victory to two long and lucky putts on the first hole. At the start of her match she sliced out of bounds and then, driving another ball, put her second on the green and sank from 70 feet for an eagle three on the 395-yard hole and a real birdie with the out-of-bounds stroke added. When this hole was played at the 19th the Canadian repeated the performance, except the she did not lose one out of bounds, and the telling putt was 40 feet long.

FAILURE TO PLAY TIMMINS

Toronto, Oct. 2.—Suspension of the Ulster United association football club, its officials and players until further notice has resulted from the failure of the club to send a team to Northern Ontario to meet Timmins in the seminal for the Ontario cup. In addition the large stadium of the Black Handers in the east end of the city is declared closed to all clubs in affiliation with the Ontario football association. Ottawa, Oct. 2.—The Ottawa Citizen this morning says:

"A move to equalize the teams that will operate in the National Hockey league the coming season will be made at the annual meeting in Montreal the last of this month. It is understood that four clubs at present in the league will be asked to surrender two players in the east end of the city is closed to all clubs in affiliation with the Ontario football association.

Pollowing consultations recently between R. H. Muir, secretary of the association, and Uister officials the club was given until last night to send a team north. This the club refused to do on the ground that they were unable to raise a team owing to injuries to players and because a number could not obtain consent to absent themselves from their employment. The Ontario football association thereupon declared the Claremont team of the Oshawa and district league. Southern Ontario champions. This club will leave for Timming on Thursday next. The semi-final will be played on the following Saturday, the winner to meet Hamilton Westinghouse for the cup.

REAL KILKENNY CAT

By FAIR PLAY.
Copyright, 1925.

New York, Oct. 2.—While Champion Jack and his black nemesis, Harry Wills, are doing a lot of talking and getting $25,000 checks to keep them out of the ring, together with a lot of ballyhoo, the only things for the fistic fans who really want action to do is to watch the battling shrimbs.
For instance, there's Irish Bobby Green, Unheralded and unsung, this lad is slowly but surely forging his way ahead in the flyweight division. His work in the past six months has been good enough to put Bobby in a position to demand star bouts, and he is getting them. Like clockwork he turns in a winning effort, and looks for another hard one to tackle.
Bobby is a real Kilkenny cat, not one of those who adopt Celtic names, and he is the seventh son of a seventh son of the Irishman who invented the Donnybrook fair.
Black, white or yellow, he takes 'em sight. Last week they brought him a held Fidel LaBarba, the new flyweight champion, and Jimmy McLarnin to a draw. In the fifth round of his bou' with Bobby Green the Celestial went away for a short visit to his honorable ancestors, propelled to the land of dreams by an Irishman's left hook.

Now Bobby's going to 'ke on a darker shade. Al Brown, the tall lean negro, whom he is to meet here Saturday night. It will be one of the Irishman's toughest encounters, for the negro, though a ring oddity in that he weighs only 112 pounds for his five feet, six inches of height, is a real fighter. He looks like a good breath would blow him away, and his arms are no larger than an ordinary broomstick.

the judgment was improperly obtained and should be vacated. C. L.
Fowler and R. L. Cowan, two of the individual defendants named in his suit by Hawkins, say they were by agreement entered into in the United suit by Hawkins, say they were 959 577 601—1717 he claims.
