DALHOUSIE MAKES GOOD START IN VICTORY LOAN

First Days' Drive a Big Success—Executives:—Mayor Montgomery, Ald. D. McDonald, Hon. C. H. LaBilloy, Thos. G. Scott and S. Blanchard.

Dalhousie, Oct. 29.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather on Monday, the soliciting team of the Victory Loan, Thos. G. Scott and S. Blanchard, made a splendid beginning of the work allotted to them. They met with a reception from the people, that had furnished so many soldiers to fight for the empire, and where people had upon every occasion given proof of great generosity.

His Honor Judge McLatchy, Chairman of the Victory Loan, for the County of Restigouche, was in the shiretown on Saturday and expressed himself as highly pleased with the effort that had been made in Dalhousie, to arouse an interest in the selling of War Bonds. The unselfishness of the merchants, who, at the outset stated, that if any prize money came their way, it would be divided among their clerks, brought forward a spontaneous movement on the part of many citizens, who are the possessors of many war souvenirs, and it was pleasing to see how many fine attractive articles were furnished to the different window dressers.

On Saturday evening the windows of the leading merchants on William Street drew the attention of crowds of citizens and many favorable comments were heard. Our merchants certainly deserve great credit for the way they responded to the appeal of the Victory Loan Committee, to help out in this way.

Among these which drew special mention from onlookers might be mentioned the following:

A. & R. Loggie's large store near the I. C. R. station. Their window gives a splendid idea of war with heavy artillery. A cannon owned by the John Barberie family of the "Birches," is seen in this window, placed on a stone parapet, and on it is the inscription, "Barberie Coast Defence Gun." The prettily arranged chimney with the words in the foreground: "Buy a Bond and keep the home fires burning." The words "They are as solid as the Rock of Gibraltar" referring to War Bonds written in large letters on a large stone, that took four strong men to place it in the window, and the presence of shells made by the energetic A. McLennan of Campbellton, a sample of what has brought death and destruction to the Hun, are features in this window that have drawn compliments to the indefatigable Mr. A. Dickenson, who with his assistant clerks, John Middley, Nan Daley, Anastasia Paquet and Bessie McCurdy made such a hit in advertising War Bonds.

The Dalhousie Merchants Company. Their two windows are used. The west one represents England's navy, America's Fishing fleet, and Germany's Submarines. A small steamer representing Lord Nelson's flag ship with the memorial words, "England expects every man to do his duty." Splendid portraits of His Majesty King George and Queen Mary, Joffre and Haig with prettily arranged flags and War Bond posters make this window very attractive. The east window contains among other things several war trophies sent after the battle of Vimy Ridge, a dagger used in one of Napoleon Bonaparte's great wars, flags of all our allies, pictures of President Wilson, King Albert, Generalissimo Foch and scenes in Y. M. C. A. huts, etc. One attractive feature of this window is the group of the fathers of confederation. The late Sir John MacDonald is seen standing near the table addressing thirty-five of the leading public men of the older provinces, which were the first to be united into a Canadian confederation. The words written below this picture, "Buy Victory War Bonds. We offer Canada as Security" is considered the strongest appeal that can be made and a splendid call upon those who realize that Canada to-day is considered one of the fairest lands under the sun.

Miss Nettie Robinson, who has been with this company for over five years, a sister of Clarence Robinson, who was so badly wounded at the front, is being warmly congratulated for the success of the window dressing. She was ably assisted by her fellow clerks Mary Foley and May Godin.

Michael Rinzler's windows are prettily decorated with flags and pictures, among the latter being those of Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener, vessels representing the navy and a nicely fixed posting of Victory Bond attractions. The Misses Emma and Lotie Rinzler, with the clerks Blanche LaVigne, Mesinda, Roy and Mary Letourneau have reason to be well pleased with the way they have decorated the spacious windows of the large store.

The Clifford Pharmacy show a very striking advertising inscription in the centre of a window prettily arranged. "Four years of War. Help keep the Age out of Bondage by buying a Victory Bond." Near that you see the words "Bondage" printed in large letters with the four last letters headed with pictures of the Kaiser, Crown Prince, Hindenburg and Von Terptitz.

The window in the Queen Hotel caused a lot of comment. A form of a soldier with rifle to his shoulder and with fixed bayonet is seen behind sand bags. This window gave a very comprehensive idea of what our boys are expected to do at the front. With flags and Victory Bond posters this window has attracted a lot of attention. The Misses Yvonne and Lucienne Samson and Charles Cabot, a returned soldier deserve credit for their good judgement.

Alderman D. McDonald's window shows a large inscription "Buy Victory Bonds". In the centre with a nice background of colored stripes is seen a large picture of the Kaiser with the words below, "Shoot the Kaiser." Murray McKay, who lost a brother at the front, Miss Minnie McNeish and Bessie Morton have done their part well.

Miss Annie McNeill's millinery store window is dressed in patriotic style. In the background is a large picture of the 55th Battalion. In the centre of the window which is nicely decorated with British, French and American flags is seen the form of a soldier by holding in his hand a card upon which is printed "Buy a Victory Bond." Four of Miss McNeill's brothers joined Canada's army in this great war.

Among others whose store windows are nicely decorated with flags, bunting, and patriotic mottoes are The P. Q. Lumber Company, Wm. McNeill, Sheehan's Piano and Music Store.

Mayor W. S. Montgomery returned from Montreal on Monday's Limited. He was called there on account of the serious illness of his sister Miss Bessie Montgomery, who contracted a grippie, while nursing in one of the large city hospitals. Latest news is pleasing to the many friends. Miss Montgomery is now out of danger.

On Thursday evening, Oct. 24th several friends of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Barberie, took them by surprise in calling in the evening, to congratulate them on the twentieth anniversary of their marriage. Dainty refreshments were served after a very enjoyable evening.

Many Bay Chaleur friends, will regret to learn of the death in Lawrence, Mass. of Mrs. LeBlanc, formerly Miss Virgile Guite, sister of the late John F. Guite, Ex. M. P. of Maria, Bonaventure County, P. Q. Mrs. LeBlanc who was a native of Maria, visited her old home about six years ago and paid her Dalhousie friends a visit. She was a splendid type of womanhood and the news of her death is keenly felt by her friends. She succumbed to the dreadful disease known as "Spanish Grippe."

Mrs. J. M. Colton, is spending a couple of weeks with her parents Hon. C. H. and Mrs. LaBilloy, her husband having gone to Newfoundland on an inspection trip of Naval Wireless Stations.

Mrs. W. K. McKean, Halifax, N. S. has been spending a few days at her old home "The Birches". Her mother Mrs. John Barberie, has improved in health since last week.

Private Kenneth McKenzie, is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McKenzie. He expects to return shortly to one of the Flying Corps Camps of Ontario.

Private Bernard Meahan, sister of Miss Margaret Meahan of the P. Q. Lumber Company office staff is visiting in town the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Delaney. He belongs to Canada's Flying Corps. Two brothers are overseas.

It is with regret that your correspondent has to report the serious illness of Rev. A. Melanson, the zealous parish priest of Balmoral. He contracted a grippie while visiting many of his sick parishioners.

Mr. James Duncan who has just returned from the Gaspé coast, where he found a prosperous condition of things, he expects to make another trip to Gaspé soon.

Mr. Donald McLean, River Chario, was in Dalhousie to-day the guest of his daughter Mrs. L. D. Jones. He was accompanied by his daughter Miss Jennie McLean.
