To the Editor of the Toronto World. SIR,-Would you or any others think it possible that either ignorance or utter in-difference is the cause of our bad roads in And so they keep through two columns this the boasted city of Toronto? For inthis the boasted city of Toronto? For instance, what are the municipal authorities about when they allow the contractors of the Yonge street road to just scramble gravel on the top? The right way to go about it would be to wash in a mixture of coarse sand and lime, and though every block, so far as laid, should be taken up and re-laid on pebbles or fine stone so that a drainage might be more apt to take place than as at present.
