Finer October weather was never before bestowed on any outdoor sporting event than that which the Ontario jockey club had Saturday afternoon fer their extra day at Woodbine. Notwithstanding this the attendance did not exceed 1500, a very poor crowd to grace such a fine day's sport as was on the cards, and which was carried out successfully. There was only one mishap at the meeting, and that was rather a serious one, being the death of the great race-horse Lloyd Daly, belonging to the Alexander stables of this city. The faces of well-known members of the club and others were seen at the officers' posts. In the judges' stand were Wm. Hendrie, W. R. Dickson and A. Z. Palmer of Ottawa.

Chas Prown held the golden ticker and A. Dickson and A. Z Palmer of Ottawa. Chas. Brown held the golden ticker and announced "time," J. Staunton and R. Myles officiated as starters, C. T. Mead and D. W. Alexander presided at the scales, at Garrison common on Saturday. The and T. C. Patteson as usual made himself generally useful. Many old and familiar generally useful. Many old and familiar patrons of the turf were present, but the ladies' stand was not complimented by a numerous attendance of the fair sex. Among those noticed were G. D. Boulton, W. Townsend, E. B. Osler, D. Wilkie, H. C. Hammond, N. Kingsmill, T. S. Plumb, W. A. Dickson, F. Plumb, W. Christie, W. G. Falconbridge, Dr. Kennedy, Senator Frank Smith, W. Armstrong, N. Weatherston, Major Dawson, Geo. Gooderham, E. S. Cox, Wm. Mulock, Dr. Morton, R. Pringle, O. E. Romaine, Wm. Hamilton.

The # dash, purse $150, $25 of which to 2d horse, brought out Lloyd Daly (Wise) 124 lbs, Inspector (McLaughlin) 118 lbs, Lady Lucy (Pearson) 117 lbs, Gen. Butler (Watson) 132 lbs, and Disturbance (A. Gates) 132 lbs. Daly starred a strong favorite in the race, and it proved no trick at all for him to win it. Wise never once called on the late lamented chestnut son of Kyrle Daly, and he won with his jockey looking around, Inspector 2d. Lady Lucy, Daly's half sister, made some running at the start. Time 1.18½.

Quite a commotion was caused before the start of the Weiter cup, purse $100, for half-bred hacks, gentlemen riders, by a protest Lucy, Daly's half sister, made some running at the start. Time 1.18½.

Quite a commotion was caused before the start of the Weiter cup, purse $100, for half-bred hacks, gentlemen "riders, by a protest being ledged against The Laird signed by all the other owners of horses in the race. The ground taken was that The Laird since May last had been a racehorse, and not a hack, and the evidence elicited seemed to bear out the objection. A protest was also entered against John A. on the same grounds, and the judges decided to waste no more time but to let both horses run under protest. To this the owner of The Laird demurred and scratched his horse after making some remarks which perhaps had been better omitted. The company of starters comprised Gen Butler (C. T. Mead) 153 lbs., Gray Friar (Mulligan) 152 lbs., Mowhawk (Mr. Stanford) 150 lbs., John A (Mr. Langley) 165 lbs., Charlie Ware 1J. H. Mead) 156 lbs. Cyclone 145 lbs., The Baron (Mr. Gordon) 115 lbs., Mouse (Mr. Ward) 140 lbs. The distance of this event was 1½ miles. John A was looked upon as a sure winner, although he was vigorously protested against until the minute of starting. Charlie Ware found a good many friends in the betting, but he finished fifth in the procession. Passing the stand on the first quarter Mouse, John A and Baron were abreast, Mouse having slightly the best of it. Rounding the club house turn John A went to the front, and was closely pressed by Gray Friar, who had found his way up among the leaders. John A. never was headed to the finish, allthough on the last 300 yards Dr. Campblell's grey wonder made the namesake of the political chieftain do real hard work for his victory. Gray Friar was a good 2d, Cyclone 3d, Butler 4th. Time 2.25.

Time 2.25.

For the Dominion handicap, 1½ miles, 1st $200, 2d $50, 3d to save stake, there were five starters. Minnie Motero 123 lbs., Gen. Butler 9. Williams 115, Disturbance 130, Easter 120. Easter took this race quite handlly, being at the head of the company almost from the start. Disturbance, with his heavy weights up, did not make much of a fuss in the string, and had to be content to run third to old Williams, Minnie Meteor 4th. Time 2.45?.

The Open handicap was the same distance and for the same prizes as the Dominion. Lady Lucy was the only one scratched of the six entries. The starters were Blanton (A. Gates) 120 lbs., Marquis (Butler) 112, George L. (E. Jamieson) 130, Easter (Warder) 118, and Lloyd Daly (Wise) 117. The horses got off after some delay caused by the jockeys of Blanton and Lloyd Daly, and they were promptly fined $45 by the judges. Marquis, George L. and Easter led the company the first half mile to the judges' stand. These positions were maintained for the rest of the journey, although coming down the stretch length, Easter 3d, Binnion and Three-quarter pole Daly was seen to stumble. Wise immediately dismounted, the horse having come to a dead s' and still. The jockey felt the horse's tendons and found them all right. He then struck the off fore leg which vibrated like a pendulem and he knew that it was broken. The horse had broken one of the bones between the knee and the fetlock, no doubt owing to a false step on Daly's part for the ground was perfectly even at the spot. The accident is not one of a very unusual character, two cases having occurred at Saratoga last year where two horses met with precisely the same accident in the same race. It probably arises from an effort to "change legs." After some time wasted in trying to find a revolver the poor animal was put out of its misery with an axe. Daly, taken all in all, was the best race-horse that stood up in Canada. Wise says he was laying low at the back of the company when the accident happened. He was just about to call on Daly for work and is confident that but for the lamentable affair he would have secred an easy victory.

call on Daly for work and is confident that but for the lamentable affair he would have scored an easy victory.

The Handicap steeplechase, full course, $200, $75 and $25, brought out The Laird (Mc-Laughlin) 140 lbs., Oakdale (Curtain) 160, Williams (Pearson) 148, and Driftwood (Rett) 144 lbs. The two nominations of the Alexander stables, Scalper and Charlie Ware, were scratched. This race can be described as a chapter of as barefaced trickery and jockeying as was ever seen on a race track. Oakda e was backed as a hot favorite against the field. These was so much put on him that the bookkeepers began to cry "turkey." To save them the horse was undoubtedly pulled. He didn't win, nor he wasn't allow d to try to win. The Laird's rider distinguished himself by falling out of the saddle twice and forfeiting all chances of success. Williams and Driftwood had the honor of the lead by turns, while Mr. Watson's Oakdale made music to himself in third position. On the last round old Williams managed to keep considerable daylight between himself and Driftwood and won the race quite handily. Time $2.8.

There was eighteen feet and a half of judges in the stand: Messrs. W. Hendrie of Hamilton, W. A. Dickson of Galt, and A. Z. Palmer of Ottawa, all six-feet-two in their stockings. There was no fooing round that stand, you bet. "Three judges of A—size," as the chairman said.

John A's owner was not paid the purse in John A's owner was not paid the purse in John As switch was not been the Gentleman's race.

It is probable that the club will be heavy losers by the day's sport, which was first class in every respect.

ATHLETIC VOLUNTEERS.

Splendid Day's Sport. athletic members of the Queen's Own were ou in full force at the Rosedale grounds on Saturday afternoon to witness their favorites contest in their annual games. The grounds were sharply on time, and everybody was wel pleased with the day's sport. The tug-of war between the officer of the Queen's Own and the officers of the Grenadiers created a good deal of excitement, as it was expected that it would be a very close contest, Following are the teams: Queen's Own—Capt. Brown, Capt. McCee, Surgeon Leslie, Lieut. Scott, Capt. Della Capt. Murray, Lieut. Lee, Lieut. Brock, Capt. Macdonald; Capt. Delamere, captain. Grenadiers—Col. Grasett, Capt. Manly, Capt. Bruce, Capt. Ball, Lieut. Davidson, Lieut. Michie, Lieut. Hay, Lieut. Elliott, Capt. Mason and Capt. Patterson.

The Queen's Own gained two inches on the drep, and kept adding to this until they had pulled their opponents over the line. The Second pull was a repitition of the first, the Queen's Own thus winning the tug-of-war. The tent pitching and striking was a novel and unique thing, and was closely watched by the spectators. There were five pleased with the day's sport. The tug-of war teams competing, with five men in each team. They were allowed five minutes to pitch the tent, and the teams which had the best pitched tent were then to strike them, which decided the match. A company and F company tied in the pitching, with B company at good second. In the striking F company secured first and A company second, so that the prize goes to F company. In the open tug-of-war a mixed team of policemen and grenadiers pulled against the Queen's Own team. The team was not a representative team of either Grenadiers or policemen, as it/was gotten up on the grounds. The Queen's Own secured two heats out of the three and the mixed team one.

At Buffalo, when the game was called in the eighth inning, the home c'ub had scored 4 runs to the bean-eaters' 10, was called in the eighth inning, the home club had scored 4 runs to the bean-eaters' 10. Practically the league season is ever. According to the schedule it should have closed Saturday, but postponed games have thrown the concluding contests over into this week. Friends of gentlemanly as well as skilful ball playing will be glad to have the pennant fall to the Providence club, for their demeanor upon the diamond has formed a pleasing contrast to that of such clubs as Chicago and Boston. The skill and endurance that Radbourn has shown since Sweeny's defection have been a remarkable feature of the Rhode Islanders' play, and to him is due the winning of the championship.

Boston, too, has had to depend almost entirely upon one pitcher, and Buffinton has done his part well. Buffalo has acquitted itself creditably, but Serad has not had the support that he should have had all through the season. Galvin has proved a hard man to hit, and the comparison between the support given him and that offered to Serad has been marked. The Chicago club stands no higher than it deserves, and the boorish and overbearing conduct of Anson, its captain, both on and off the field, win him but few sympathizers for the low stand his club has taken. The over-rated New York team closes fifth in line. Bad management and lax discipline are responsible for this, for there are many fine players in the club. The Quaker City team, under the veteran Harry Wright's disconnent and Detroit bring up the rear. The record is as follows:
