Superintendent Hamilton reported on the matter of supply water to Joseph Smith's property at 682 Queen street east, that though a portion of the land was in the city, the house itself was in the county. Under these oncountaines he did not see how he could help Mr. Smith. The latter was on hand and plainted that the house was in the limits. The supportundent will relivestigate.

The question for doing something for Thomas Seaton, the duchared waterworks freman, was brought up by the cleatman. He stated that Santon would be of no use in the department. But he would recommend that he be tendered $100 as a kind of a bonus. The matter was left in the hands of Superintendent Hamilton and Ald. Carlyle (St. Ami.) to see if such an arrangement would be satisfactory to Mr. Seaton.

City Treasures Goady sent in a letter requesting the committee to harry up with the accounts against the other standing committees for water and see that they be paid as soon as possible, before the appropriations ran out. The superintendent was told to collect forthwith.

The superintendent's report showed that 157,546,802 gallons of water had been pumped and 349 tons of coal consumed at the water works engine-house during the two weeks ending Nov. 3.
