The committee also decided to recommend the General Assembly to grant the transfer of Rev. C. A. Webster, Canables of the charges against him, that he had never at any time sold an ounce of phenacetine in this country, and had never use of phenacetine in this country, and had never 15 pounds of the drug in his life.

Nemesis Overtook Him. A little more than a year ago a row occurred one night in a dive in Victorialane, in which William Leonard, Jack Sheehan and a third party named Mc-Laughlin were the participants. Shee-han appeared to have been made the object of attack by his two companions, and a stove was broken up and its pieces used as the means of attack and defence. When the fraças ended Sheehan had 17 cuts on his head, which confined him to the hospital for some time. Mc-Laughlin was arrested, convicted and sentenced to the Central Prison. Leonard skipped to Cleveland, returning to the city to see the races. Yesterday P. C. Burley met him in Queen-street and arrested him. The charge against him
