President Houston had issued a proclaim-Two commissioners from Texas had arrived at New Orleans, probably to beat up for recruits and solicit donations.

The following letter from Preside Hous-ton to the Text in Consul at New Orleans appears in the New Orleans papers:
Galveston, March 11, 1842.
To P. Euspans, Consul at New Orleans

Sir,—It is probable that you will find in New Orleans and other parts of the United S. the greatest excitement arising out of the International Monary the 2nd day of Max next, at noon late movements of Mexico against Texas. If any should be anxious to volunteer in render-take into consideration important matters ing assistance to our republic, it will be your duty to have it made known, and if any should emigrate it will be required for each emigrant to bring with him a good rifle or musker, with a cartouch box, or shot pouch and powder horn, with at least one hundred rounds of ammunition, a good knapsack and six months clothing, and enter sovice for six months subject to the laws of Texas.
