The program consisted of dialogues and recitations by the children, showing the interest given both by teacher and scholars. The music was given by the phonograph, adding much to the enjoyment of the evening. The sum of $2.25 was taken by the collection, which was handed over to the secretary to be appropriated for school purposes.

Our community was made sad on June 26, when the silent messenger of death claimed Mrs. Henry Hudson as its victim. She was only ill a few weeks, and death was due to heart failure. She was in her sixty-third year. Her only daughter, Mrs. Cobb, of Boston, was with her when she passed away. Her son did not get to see her until after death—he was present at the funeral. She leaves to mourn, a husband, one son and one daughter and several step-sons and daughters. The pall bearers were Messrs. David and Thomas Milner, Aaron and Orbin Oliver. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Davis, Methodist, both at the house and grave. Interment in Parker's Cove cemetery.

CANADA PORTLAND CEMENT

SOME men ask for so many bags of "cement"—Others, more careful, say they want "Portland Cement"—But the man who does the best work insists upon getting "Canada" Portland Cement—

And he looks to see that every bag bears this label

Write the Canada Cement Information Bureau, Montreal, for a free copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."

There is a Canada Cement dealer in your neighborhood. If you do not know him, write for his name.
