| St. James', Perth 2 00 St. John's, Baldersons 1.35 | |
|---|--|
| Di. John's, Baldersons 1 25 | Clarks man 11 - If The |
| | Clarke, per Rev. II. Brent |
| St. Paul's, Lanark 0.95 | light to the second state of the second state |
| | Ciergyman, or forward his testimenicia to at- |
| Per Rev R. L. Stephenson 4.36 | 1) in the same and in the |
| | Down Down 11 Party Country of the Country of the |
| 148 Collections amounting to$764.99 | Y O. O |
| MISSION FUND. | Total include the Dioceson goal officially and |
| Descional annual 1 | Chippawa 80.50 pointing the said Clergyman to his sphere of |
| Proviously announced$869.90 | The same of the sa |
| Consecon 2.40 | Drummondville and Stamford 81.81 Niagara |
| Cunningham School House 2.30 | mis scal upu signature 1950 a commission to the |
| Dan Dan, H. P. Diver | balu Doard, authorising them to receive an ti- |
| Per Rev. H. E. Plees 4.70 | " Dentil Buch Contributions of ther in money |
| 100 (I-No. 1) | Janus iis christian men may feel dienogol to |
| 166 Collections amounting to 864.60 | IV THE SUPPORT PRICE CYTCHRION OF the mission of |
| WIDOWS AND ORPHANS' FUND. | Ter Pressurer of Mingara District 356.36 work of the Church in this Diocess. And the |
| Previously announced$1074.36 | Cooksylle and Sydenham, 1, per Church- all sums of money and contributions of land |
| St. John's, Murray, per Rev. H. E. | wardens 9.76 granted by any local or District Society for Al- |
| Plees. 1 30 | Pertil, 1. Der Rey, R. L. Stenhengon. 21 30 promotion of the said most |
| Christ's Church, Scarborough 7.50 | Georgina, including Rev. W. Ritchie's held by any legal Cociety, or granted to, or |
| | annual subscription |
| St. Paul's 4.25 | Trinity Unurch, Hawkesbury, 1 17.80 Hame fund shell be noted and |
| St. Jude's 2.00 | St John's |
| Don Don W Date | the furthernment of all it is a great object top |
| Per Rev W Belt 13.76 | Per Rev. J. G. Armstrong 26 14 stituted. |
| St. Judes, Kemptville, per Rev James | St. John's Cayon, J |
| Harris 5.70 | St. Taul's 17 20 |
| | |
| 166 Collections amounting to $1095.11 | charing the funds contributed by it on their |
| ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS AND DONATIONS. | Per Rev. T. W. Allen |
| Pay W P Landan and 1 10 1 | Proportion from Parishes Gore and Wal- |
| | mont of the said missionary shall root checkets. |
| " W Tomon " " 0.00 | o minimum of the second of the |
| G II F Dless | CAUTOSU IIIR INITIRITY Shoul he president. |
| G I A Departure | I THE PAULOSED DIRICES AN DOUBLE OF DESIGN BY THE SIGNESS OF TAKEN SALE. |
| " R G Co- | h MISSIONS. Sit District Association, and be approved by |
| C F Pamean 44 | i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i i |
| | The following resolutions will be submitted for the considerations made in the several |
| Rook and Treet Fund 15.00 | the consideration of the Senot. (Contents and Sulfons in the Diagon of 1111 |
| Dook and Trace Fund 10.00 | I MINICU DV JAMES KATTER COCCEDANTAL L. ME CO DV MIDDIVIDE MUU MII (INTRIIANO CIPAN CANALA |
| "Dr. MacNab, " " 5.00 | LANGUNG. → I DOK ID GCCCCCCCCCC mill. Al |
| 5.00 | HUBBURGH OF THE Committee recently and the Aller Alchaufur of the digital Acceptation and |
| Title to total ve. 10 th | to revise the constitution and his last to a flat made that the district of the massion of |
| (1 De Boones, and sad: 2014 3 cat 0.00 | CHUICH DOCKER OF THE DISCOURAGE OF TANAMAN TO A STATE OF THE PROCESSIN DUNING OF THE STATE OF TH |
| 10.00 | resolved That the said Board of Missions so constituted |
| II Reant | |
| " H. Brent, " 5.00 | That a Board of Missions he cotablish at any and provided with funds shall assume at |
| " H. Brent, 5.00 " James Harris, 6.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the and provided with funds shall assume the pay- |
| " H. Brent, " 5.00 " James Harris, " 5.00 " R. L. Stephenson, " 5.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the and provided with funds shall assume the pays said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted proportion thereof as may be awarded by the |
| " H. Brent, " 5.00 " James Harris, " 5.00 " R. L. Stephenson, 5.00 " J. G. Armstrong, " 5.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the and provided with funds shall assume the paysaid Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted proportion thereof as may be awarded by the study in the manner following and proposed said Board. |
| "H. Brent, " 5.00 "James Harris, " 5.00 "R. L. Stephenson, " 5.00 "J. G. Armstrong, " 5.00 "T. W. Allen, " 5.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and results and shall be. That a Board of Missions So constituted ment to the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the governed by such rules and results and Board. That for the transaction of the business are not results. |
| " H. Brent, " 5.00 " James Harris, " 5.00 " R. L. Stephenson, 5.00 " J. G. Armstrong, " 5.00 " T. W. Allen, " 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., " 5.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocesa shall under the said Board. Synod of the Diocesa shall under the search of sarry entailed by the fulfillment of these duries. |
| " H. Brent, " 5.00 " James Harris, " 5.00 " R. L. Stephenson, " 5.00 " J. G. Armstrong, " 5.00 " T. W. Allen, " 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., " 5.00 Col. Beresford, " 5.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time forth. |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. and provided with funds shall so ment to the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the Said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the Sishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. |
| # H. Brent, # 5.00 # James Harris, # 5.00 # R. L. Stephenson, # 5.00 # J. G. Armstrong, # 5.00 # T. W. Allen, # 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., # 5.00 Gol. Beresford, # 5.00 J. Parsons, Esq., # 5.00 Gorgond Wallenter W. 5.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. and provided with funds shall assume the payment to the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the governded by the fulfillment of these duties, the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. |
| " H. Brent, " 5.00 " James Harris, " 5.00 " R. L. Stephenson, 5.00 " J. G. Armstrong, " 5.00 " T. W. Allen, " 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., " 5.00 J. Parsons, Esq., " 5.00 Gore and Wellington District, 16 Clergy men and 15 Lay Members, an. subv 155.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of this lordship the Bishop of the Bishop |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the first many evils which are already beginning to be the said Board as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be at officie President; the sattled parishes he invited to the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground the basic basic basic proportion thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground thereof |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be at officie President; the sattled parishes he invited to the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground the basic basic basic proportion thereof as may be awarded by the grain ground thereof |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be at officio President; the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the Board of Missions shall consist of the did and provided with funds shall assume the payment to the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of settled parishes be invited to take advantage of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, and shall be constituted to the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That in Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That in Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That in said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the governed by such rules and regulations as the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the farchdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three based on the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the Bishop of the Lay Delegates to the said Board. |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Lay- |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Lay- |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the ime being, who shall be conficio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocesa lay in the board by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocesa lay in the board by reasonable guarantee from the parish, then the Constituted in the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the sa |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the governed by such rules and regulations as the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Diocese shall alone of the Bishop. That he lord Bishop of the Diocese for the Bishop. That he lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint where the Diocesan Board of the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board such sum as may appear to the Bishop proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board shall meet quarte |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the governed by such rules and regulations as the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Dioceso for the farchdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Clergy men and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be of the Diocese shall alone on minate and appoint, under his light of the parish, then the Clergyman of the said parish shall draw his stipend or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board such such said Board such such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the Board of Missions shall consist of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board such such said Board shall meet quarterly at such times |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Diocese shall alone by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and canonical standing as he was a thirt for the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That in assume thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That in assume thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board as fand by each times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That in assume thereof as may be awarded by the Board of Missions, and provided by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board as fand Board and by the Glergy and Churchwardens of the felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the ha |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be of the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be of the Diocese shall alone by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standings, as he may think fit, to the |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the fime being, who shall be at officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Dicessan Board of the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of settled parishes be invited to take advantage of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board such sum as may appear to the Bishop proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the governed by such rules and regulations as the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Dioceso for the farchdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be cleated by the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the Charge of any mission in this Diocese, and that no Clergyman shall he permitted to take and synodsmen of the Board and be regarded as one of its mission-aries. That the Churchwardens and Synodsmen of the Board and mission together with the Diocese, and that no Clergyman shall he permitted to the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board such such called the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be at officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocese, and that on Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission. |
| "H. Brent, " 5.00 "James Harris, " 5.00 "L. Stephenson, " 5.00 "J. G. Armstrong, " 5.00 "T. W. Allen, " 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., " 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., " 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., " 5.00 Gore and Wellington District, 16 Clergymen and 15 Lay Members, an. subs 155.00 FAROCHIAL DRANCHES. St. John's, Bowmanville, per Rev. Dr. MacNab 11.75 Gamdem, ‡ additional 2.50 Cartwright, per Rev. W. Logan 15.00 Murray, ‡, per Rev. W. Logan 15.00 Stirling, ‡, per Rev. J. A. Preston 25.00 Grafton, ‡ 23.00 Per Rev. J. Wilson 50.00 Smith's Falls, per Rev. J B. Worrell 13.50 St. Paul's, Perrytown 48.47 St. John's, Elizabethylle, including Rev. J. Hilton's appreal and 65.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocese, and that on Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the curo of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained he shall previously have obtained he for the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the Baid Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of settled parishes be invited to take advantage of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board such sum as may appear to the Bishop by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board and bo regarded as one of its mission-aries. That the Churchwardens and Synodsmen of each parish and mission, together with the Incumbent of these and proportion |
| "H. Brent, " 5.00 "James Harris, " 5.00 "R. L. Stephenson, " 5.00 "T. W. Allen, " 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., " 5.00 Gol. Beresford, " 5.00 J. Parsons, Esq., " 5.00 Gore and Wellington District, 16 Clergy men and 15 Lay Members, an. subs 155.00 FAROCHIAL BRANCHES. St. John's, Bowmanville, per Rev. Dr. MacNab $13.00 Napanec, ‡ 1.175 Camdem, ‡ additional 1.75 Cartwright, per Rev. W. Logan 1.75 Cartwright, per Rev. W. Logan 25.00 Murray, ‡, per Rev. H. E. Plees 9.50 Stirling, ‡, per Rev. J. A. Preston 25.00 Grafton, ‡ $27.00 Colborns, ‡ $27.00 Smith's Falls, per Rev. J B. Worrell 13.50 St. Paul's, Perrytown 48.47 St. John's, Ellzabethville, including Rev. J. Hilton's annual sub. 25.95 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be officed by the Diocese shall alone by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standings, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocese, and that no Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained the sanction of the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hauds of the Treasurer of the said Board such sum as may appear to the Bishop in the Board and be regarded as one of its mission-aries. That the Churchwardens and Synodsmen of each parish and mission, together with the Incumbent of the same, shall be a local Committee, whose duty it shall be to receive subscriptions, and to canvass the parish |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the governed by such rules and regulations as the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocese, and that on Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless be shall previously have obtained the sanction of the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the of ulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That inasmuch as the voluntary principle has many evils which are already beginning to the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying i |
| "H. Brent, "5.00 "James Harris, "5.00 "R. L. Stephenson, 5.00 "J. G. Armstrong, 5.00 "T. W. Allen, 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., 5.00 Gol. Beresford, 5.00 J. Parsons, Esq., 6.00 Gore and Wellington District, 16 Clergy men and 15 Lay Members, an. subs 155.00 PAROCHIAL DRANCHES. St. John's, Bowmanville, per Rev. Dr. MacNab 11.75 Camdem, ‡ additional 2.50 Cartwright, per Rev. W. Logan 15.00 Murray, ‡, per Rev. H. E. Plees 9.50 Stirling, ‡, per Rev. J. A. Preston 25.00 Grafton, ‡ $27.00 Colborns, ‡ $27.00 Colborns, ‡ $27.00 Per Rev. J. Wilson 50.00 Smith's Falls, per Rev. J B. Worrell 13.50 St. Paul's, Perrytown 48.47 St. John's, Elizabethville, including Rev. J. Hilton's annual sub. 25.95 Per Rov. J. Hilton. 74.42 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and scal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocese, and that no Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Diocese Bishop so to officiate; and that any Priest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or mission as missionary or aures of the mission are to the mission at the the mission and the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board. That in any evils which are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board such sum as may appear to the Bishop proportioned to the ability of the parish which it are already beginning to be felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of the Board and be regarded as one of its mission arises |
| "H. Brent, " 5.00 "James Harris, " 5.00 "R. L. Stephenson, 5.00 "J. G. Armstrong, " 5.00 "T. W. Allen, 5.00 John Hamilton, Esq., " 5.00 Gol. Beresford, " 5.00 J. Parsons, Esq., " 5.00 Gore and Wellington District, 16 Clergymen and 15 Lay Members, an. subs 155.00 FANOCHIAL BRANCHES. St. John's, Bowmanville, per Rev. Dr. MacNab 11.75 Camdem, ‡ additional 2.50 Cartwright, per Rev. W. Logan 15.00 Murray, ‡, per Rev. W. Logan 15.00 Grafton, ‡ $2.00 Per Rev. J. Wilson $2.00 Per Rev. J. Wilson 50.00 Smith's Falls, per Rev. J B. Worrell 51.50 St. John's, Ellzabethville, including Rev. J. Hilton's annual sub. 25.95 Per Rov. J Hilton 74.42 Nowboro, ‡ 10.00 Leods. 4 10.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be cletted by the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the change of any mission in this Diocese, and that no Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cut of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Bishop so to officiate; and that any Priest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or mission as missionary or curate of the same without the official license of his Diocesus at his proportion thereof as may be awarded by the groportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entailed by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That in ansmuch as the voluntary principle has felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the said Board such sum as may appear to the Bishop proportioned to the ability of the parish which they represent, and that on the said Board and bo regarded as one of its mission-aries. That the Churchwardens and Synodsmen of each parish and mis |
| "H. Brent, " 5.00 "James Harris, " 5.00 "R. L. Stephenson, 5.00 "T. W. Allen, 5.00 "T. W. Allen, 5.00 Gol. Beresford, " 5.00 J. Parsons, Esq., 5.00 Gore and Wellington District, 16 Clergy men and 15 Lay Members, an. subs 155.00 FAROCHIAL BRANCHES. St. John's, Bowmanville, per Rev. Dr. MacNab $13.00 Napanee, $\frac{1}{2}$ additional $11.75 Candem, $\frac{1}{2}$ additional $15.00 Murray, $\frac{1}{2}$, per Rev. W. Logan $15.00 Stirling, $\frac{1}{2}$, per Rev. J. A. Preston $25.00 Grafton, $\frac{1}{2}$ $27.00 Smith's Falls, per Rev. J B. Worrell $25.00 Smith's Falls, per Rev. J B. Worrell $13.50 St. Paul's, Perrytown $48.47 St. John's, Ellzabethville, including Rev. J. Hilton's annual sub. 25.95 Per Rev. J Hilton $20.00 Newboro, $\frac{1}{2}$ $20.00 Newboro, $\frac{1}{2}$ $20.00 | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Dioceso for the dime being, who shall be expliced President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and scal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocese, and that to Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cuto of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Bishop so to officiate; and that any Priest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or mission as missionary or curate of the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a 4770 secletative for the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a 4770 secletative for the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a 4770 secletative for the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a 4770 secletative for the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a 4770 secletative for the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a 4770 secletative for the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a 4770 secletative for the same without th |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Syned of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of this lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and scal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocesae, and that no Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Bishop so to officiate; and that any Fricest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or mission as missionary or curato of the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be liable to suspension. That it shall moreover be the duty of such local Committee to use their best exertions to secure the speedy and requirer remittance to the secure of the Board, of all sums of remover be the duty of remover. |
| "H. Brent, " | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Dioceso for the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be cleeted by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be nominate and appoint, under his license and scal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Dioceso, and that no Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless the shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Bishop so te officiate; and that any Priest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or mission as missionary or curate of the same withole beld guilty of a grave ecclesiastical offence and shall be liable to suspension. That treater of many be awarded by the ment of the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entabled by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entabled by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the lord bishop of the Diocesa for the bisords which the real proportion the hands of the Treasurer of the Bishop so the officato; and that any Priest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or the said Board shall be to recipe and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the lord bishop of the Diocesa, |
| "H. Brent, | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Diocese for the time being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone and seal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standings, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocese, and that no Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Board and be regarded as one of its mission-arises. That the Churchwardens and Synodsmen of each parish, then the Clergyman of the said parish shall draw his stipend directly from the parish, then the Clergyman of the said Board and be regarded as one of its mission-arises. That the Churchwardens and Synodsmen of each parish and mission, together with the Incumment of the same, shall be a local Committee, whose duty it shall be to receive subscriptions, and to canvass the parish generally, in aid of the objects of the Diocesan Board of Missions. That the first product of the same shall be accurated by the Clergyman of the said Board. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese hall alone the felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the Elegan and three Laymen to be named the said Board and be regarded by the Board of Missions, and the Board and be regarded as one of its mission and to canvass the parish generally, i |
| "H. Brent, | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Dioceso for the first being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Dioceson Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Dioceson Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and scal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocesa, and that on Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Bishop so to officiate; and that any Friest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or mission as missionary or curate of the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a grave ecclesiastical offence and shall be liable to suspension. That every Clergyman coming into the Dioceso with a view to the assertion of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the Sand Board shall meet quarterly at such times sarily entailed by the fundifilment of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That insumula as the voluntary principle has many evils which arisemble as the voluntary principle has the felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the Board with the paying into the hands of the Presyman of |
| "H. Brent, | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Dioceso for the first being, who shall be ex officio President; the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Dioceson Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be elected by the Lay Delegates to the Dioceson Synod; three Clergymen and three Laymen to be named by the Bishop. That the lord Bishop of the Diocese shall alone nominate and appoint, under his license and scal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Diocesa, and that on Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless he shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Bishop so to officiate; and that any Friest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or mission as missionary or curate of the same without the official license of his Diocesan, shall be held guilty of a grave ecclesiastical offence and shall be liable to suspension. That every Clergyman coming into the Dioceso with a view to the assertion of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the Sand Board shall meet quarterly at such times sarily entailed by the fundifilment of the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That insumula as the voluntary principle has many evils which arisemble as the voluntary principle has the felt among us, the Clergy and Churchwardens of the facilities afforded by the Board of Missions, by paying into the hands of the Treasurer of the Board with the paying into the hands of the Presyman of |
| "H. Brent, | That a Board of Missions be established for the said Diocese, to be called "the Diocesan Board of Missions," that the said Board shall be constituted in the manner following, and shall be governed by such rules and regulations as the Synod of the Diocese shall under the sanction of the Bishop, frame from time to time for the good government thereof. That the Board of Missions shall consist of his lordship the Bishop of the Dioceso for the Archdeacons, the Rural Deans, three Presbyters to be elected by the body of the Clergy, and three Laymen to be elected by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be cleeted by the Church Society, and three Clergymen and three Laymen to be nominate and appoint, under his license and scal, such Clergyman, being a Priest in good canonical standing, as he may think fit, to the charge of any mission in this Dioceso, and that no Clergyman shall be permitted to enter upon the cure of souls in any district or mission unless the shall previously have obtained the sanction of the Bishop so te officiate; and that any Priest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or mission as missionary or curate of the same withole beld guilty of a grave ecclesiastical offence and shall be liable to suspension. That treater of many be awarded by the ment of the missionaries of their stipends or such proportion thereof as may be awarded by the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entabled by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board. That for the transaction of the business necessarily entabled by the fulfillment of these duties, the said Board shall meet quarterly at such times and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the lord bishop of the Diocesa for the bisords which the real proportion the hands of the Treasurer of the Bishop so the officato; and that any Priest or Deacon undertaking to minister in any parish or the said Board shall be to recipe and place as may hereafter be agreed upon. That the lord bishop of the Diocesa, |