

progressed wonderfully in a few years, and are liberal contributors to church purposes.

At the reception held in honor of our Principal on his return from his tour abroad, he mentioned during his address, the Rev. J. Mitchell, B.D., F.R.A.S., one of our graduates. Mr. Mitchell is settled in Chester, England, where he is acquiring fame.

The Rev. N. Waddell, B.D., of Lachute, was presented with a well filled purse by his people as a token of the love they have for their pastor. Also at the annual meeting held not long ago, pleasing accounts were given of the last year's work.

A call has been extended by the Howick congregation to the Rev. J. W. MacLeod of South Finch, Ont., which he is most likely to accept. This charge was made vacant by the death of the Rev. Chas. M. MacKeracher, who labored there a long time.

Success is attending the work of one of our French graduates, the Rev. A. J. Lods, who is laboring at Edmonston, N.B. He was settled formerly at Grand Falls, a short distance below his present charge. As a result of his labor, people are being converted from Romanism.

The Rev. W. D. Reid, B.D., sent his greetings to the students from Edinburgh. He reports a good and profitable time there, but thinks we compare favorably with them in the instruction given. Mr. Reid intends shortly to leave Britain and cross to the Continent. He will visit Egypt and Palestine before returning.

St. Paul's Church, Prince Albert, N.W.T., held their yearly meeting lately, the pastor, the Rev. A. Lee, B.A., in the chair. The reports shewed that the congregation was in good working order. The Ladies' Aid Society have done remarkably good work, so that altogether the prospects are very good.

Encouraging reports were given also at the annual business
