CEYLON TEA COMPANY
 WHAT 18/26

"THE TIMES" OF CEYLON
 Says of this Company, May 4th, 1880.

"We are asked by a Correspondent, 'Which Company, for the sale of Ceylon Tea at home, does the largest business?' and we really do not think that anybody can answer this question. In all probability, the Ceylon Tea Growers, Limited (Khangani Brand), sell more Tea than most, seeing that they have no less than one thousand Agents in Great Britain alone, and, in the course of twelve months, must sell a very large quantity of Tea."
 This is indisputable evidence that this Company is a GENUINE CEYLON TEA COMPANY.

Sparkles.
 A YOUTH at school in Scotland, who lacked musical talent, and whose voice consequently jarred during the singing lesson, was always allowed a holiday on singing days. His mother, failing to divine the cause of her son's forced absence, paid a visit to the school to enquire into the matter. In answer to her query as to why her son was sent home on such occasions, the teacher said: "Why, simply because he has no ear." "What!" she exclaimed, "Nae ear? Did anybody ever hear the like o' that? Nae ear? Why, he has a lug like a saucer, mon."

DEDBROKE—"It's no use denying that times are hard. I tested the matter thoroughly this morning." Jackson—"How?" Dedbroke—"I accosted a doz'n prominent citizens whom I met in the street, and asked each one for a loan of five shillings for a short time only. An unfortunate man has obtained access to rich Baron Rapineau. He depicts his misfortune, his misery, in so moving a manner that the baron, with tears in his eyes, and his voice choked with sobs, calls to his servant—"Jean, put this poor fellow out into the street—he is breaking my heart."

I AM subject to sudden colds, followed by hard coughs, for which I use WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY, and find it the best remedy. We always have it in the house, and would as soon be without flour as the Balsam. A. DUNKLEE, Postmaster, West Brattleboro', Vt.
