

B.

4. Distinguish weak and strong verbs.

Give the first person singular, past indicative and the passive participle of : --

Begin, cling, seethe, hew, work, bereave.

5. Define and illustrate with short sentences :—

Complementary Nominative, Cognate Objective, Apposition, Indirect Object, Representative Subject.

6. Parse the words in italics in the following sentences :—

Considering philosophers of past times enquired into the why of most things, why did they not consider whence sprang the virtues of humility and gentleness ?

Wide waves the eagle plume.

C.

7. State the various kinds of pronouns and give examples.

Show the pronominal use of that and as by short sentences.

8. Analyse :

He has not read as much as I.

The great man down, you mark his favorite flies ;

The poor advanced makes friends of enemies.