

1889 and 1890—forging rapidly to the front as Skin-Specialists. Dr. C. R. Wood (M. D. Bishop's 1891)—is in Ujjain, India, doing excellent work as a Medical Missionary. In Literature, my fellow Professor and Bishop's College graduate, Dr. W. H. Drummond, has won a place of great eminence. His book of poems, "The Habitant," is read and admired all over this Continent. These are but a few samples to show that our teaching has not been in vain.

Ever since the Faculty was organized, its members felt that a Dental Department would prove a valuable addition to the University. It was, however, not till about 1895 that the matter took shape and it was then in a measure forced upon it by the action of the Dental Board of this Province. That body had established the Dental College of the Province of Quebec, and sought affiliation with another University. As we had for years given the Medical portion of the Dental Curriculum to many students, we were forced in self defence to seek a change in the Dental Act. In this we failed before the Quebec Legislature, that is we succeeded before the Legislative Assembly—but failed before the Legislative Council. A year later the attempt was made again, and resulted in a compromise.

The Dental College became affiliated to the University of Bishop's College. The result has been excellent to both of the contracting parties. The Dental College has prospered beyond the hope of its most sanguine friends, and the Medical and Dental students fraternize in a way that is calculated to add to the prestige of the two Faculties and the University. Lectures in the Dental Department are delivered in both the English and French languages.

During the twenty-nine years of its existence the Medical Faculty has had many vicissitudes. It has had its periods of despondency and of exultation, but it has, in spite of bitter opposition, never wavered in its determination to continue the struggle till complete success rests upon its Banner. A large measure of this success has already been obtained. To the present members, and those who succeed them, remains the duty of pressing forward on
