Editorials.

A NEW YEAR'S GREETING.

IN presenting our compliments to subscribers at the beginning of the New Year, we do so with the hope that the acquaintance and mutual interest which have commenced to exist between us may prove firm and enduring. A our readers are aware, he who caters for the medical palate, requires a large market to choose from and a sympathy, born of fellow-feeling, to prepare viands for the feast. We know not; indeed, if a kind genius has always presided at the
