demand continues from all parts of the Dominion and also of the United States. The Montreal News Co., who are agents for this book, feel assured of a steady sale for a long time to come, particularly during the season of summer travel, when this book, which is so entirely representative of Canada, will be readily purchased by tourists as a souvenir of the country.

The demand for valentines has begun earlier this year than usual. The Montreal News Co. report that orders have been very satisfactory and shows that the valentine business has again revived.

Zola's new book, "Paris," will be issued by the Montreal News Co. in a 75-cent paper edition in the course of a few days. This book has been much praised in the Old Country and should take well here.

The Montreal News Co. report a strong, steady sale for "Spanish John," by Wm. McLennan. This was published in Harper's and proved a drawing-card.

The Montreal News Co. report that in a few days they will have paper editions of "Simon Dale," by Anthony Hope, and "Billy Hamilton," Archibald Gunter's latest. The former will sell at 75c., and the latter at 50c. There will also be a $1.25 edition of "Simon Dale."

THE FEBRUARY MAGAZINES.

Canadian readers of The Century will be particularly interested in the following: "The Manuscript of Auld Lang Syne," "Ruskin as an Oxford Lecturer," "Recollections of Maximilian's ill-fated Mexican Empire," and "The Steerage of To-Day." There is some good fiction, and the illustrations are varied and finely done.

The Westminster maintains its monthly magazine number, printing it in the first week of each month. It is, by long odds, the finest religious periodical of the same class on this continent. The February issue contains special illustrated articles, as follows: "British Empire IV," by Principal Grant; "Early Pioneers in British Columbia," by Rev. J. W. MacMillan; "New Views of Chinese Life," by Rev. D. MacGillivray; "The Jewish and the Christian Sabbath," by John Chariton, M.P., and the various departments relating to the home, the children, literature, church music, etc. Westminster Co., Toronto, $2 a year, 15c. per monthly issue.

The Canadian Magazine is, as usual, thoroughly up to date. There are three articles on the Klondyke: one by J. Gordon Smith, with a map and seven illustrations of present day life in the region; another on "Some Experiences in the Chilkoot Pass," by T. S. Scott, with two maps and nine illustrations; the third is by Mr. William Ogilvie himself, and consists of extracts from
