

TEMPERANCE.PROHIBITION AND THE REV. J. SIMPSON'S SERMON.

To the Editor of the CHURCH GUARDIAN:

SIR,—It is with deep sorrow that very many of your readers have perused the effusion of Rev. Mr. Simpson on the great and burning question of the prohibition of the liquor traffic from our Dominion. Truly it has been said that "a man's enemies are those of his own household," and this is but another of the many examples of Christ's members, and even of His ministers working against Him who came to destroy the works of the devil, viz., all evil. None can deny that the liquor traffic is the great curse of our land, and the greatest hindrance to the work of Christ's Church.

It is but necessary to quote the names of such men as the Archbishop of York, the Bishop of Durham, Manchester and Gloucester, of Canons Wilberforce, Ellison and Farrar, who along with a great array of talent both within and without the church have taken such a pronounced stand against the use of that, of which Shakespeare so truly said, "O! thou invisible spirit of mine, if we have no other name by which to call thee, let us call thee devil"—to show that the enormous influence for evil of this traffic is fully recognized and must be suppressed.

Is it not a shame, and it has become a public reproach to us, that so many of our clergy, either take no part whatever in this crusade against this giant evil, or, as in this case, take an active part in its favour.

If the traffic must be upheld, and the methods for its suppression are to be condemned, do leave the work in the hands of its professed votaries, and do not make the pulpits of our churches, and our church papers the agents for playing into the hand of the enemy of Christ, His church and her work. Here, surely, is the place for those who cannot work for the suppression of this evil to, at least, hold their peace; or if they feel constrained to teach their congregations to oppose this method for its overthrow let them refrain from foisting such teaching upon the public by which they become public abettors of the greatest evil our times have to cope with.

Thanking you for space, I am yours, etc.,
Geo. D. HARRIS,

A NEW BRUNSWICK STORYTHE REMARKABLE EXPERIENCE OF A HUSBAND AND WIFE.

The One Suffering From General Debility and the Other From the After Effects of Typhoid Fever were Gradually Growing Weaker When a Cure Came—Both Now Restored to Perfect Health.

From the Newcastle, N.B., Union-Advocate.

Quite recently there came to the knowledge of the proprietor of the Union-Advocate two cases of residents of Newcastle having been greatly benefitted by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and these were thought to be of sufficient interest to warrant their being published in the interests of humanity, if the parties interested had no objection to the facts being published. Consequently a reporter of this paper called upon the parties and obtained from them cheerfully all the particulars. Mr. and Mrs. Hammill removed from Fort Fairfield, Maine, to Newcastle, N.B., about fourteen months ago. For two years previous Mrs. Hammill had been in a very poor state of health and was steadily growing weaker and running down, until she was unable to do the necessary work about the house, and the little she did used her up completely. Pains in the back and limbs, weakness, dizziness and other disagreeable symptoms troubled her. For some time she was under treatment of several doctors at Fort Fairfield, and also since she moved here. But they effected no improvement to her run down system, and she was gradually growing worse and had given up all hope of regaining her health. Having read accounts of the cures effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, she decided last July to try them and see if she could be benefitted thereby. She purchased some from Mr. H. H. Johnstone, druggist, and commenced to take them, and has since continued to take them with, to her, wonderful results. She had taken but a few boxes when a gradual improvement seemed to be taking place. The pains in her back and limbs left her, as did the other unpleasant symptoms, and at the present time she is as well as ever she was, and without feeling the tiredness and exhaustion of her former state.

At her recommendation her husband also began the use of Pink Pills. About a year before coming to Newcastle he had suffered from an attack of typhoid fever, from the effects of which he did not recover his former health. His blood seemed to be thin and watery, and he was weak and easily worn out. Through all this he kept steadily at work, although he says that when night came he was thoroughly wearied and depressed, not knowing how to obtain relief. When his wife began to feel the beneficial effects of Pink Pills she urged him to try them, and he did so. After taking three boxes he began to feel a wonderful change. The tired feeling left him and he had a better appetite and enjoyed his food with a relish he had not had before. He continued taking the Pills for some time, and is to-day fully restored to his old-time health and strength. Mr. Hammill was very willing to tell of the benefits both he and his wife had derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, with the hope that their experience might lead others to test the benefits to be derived from this wonderful remedy.

The gratifying results following the use of Pink Pills in the case of Mrs. Hammill prove their unequalled powers as a blood builder and nerve tonic. There are many throughout the land suffering in silence as did Mrs. Hammill, who can readily find relief in a course of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are a specific for the troubles peculiar to women, such as irregularities and all forms of weakness. They build up the blood, restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks, driving out pains in the back and limbs, weakness and other disagreeable symptoms which make life a burden. They also cure such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration, the after effects of la grippe, influenza, and severe colds, diseases depending on humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc., and in all cases arising from mental worry, over-work or excesses of any nature.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark. They are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. The public are also cautioned against all other so-called blood builders and nerve tonics put up in similar form intended to deceive. Ask your dealer for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and refuse all imitations and substitutes.

These pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N.Y., and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., from either address, at 50c a box, or six boxes for $2.50. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.
