THE MACNAB TESTIMONIAL. DINNER AT THE MECHANICS' HALL.

A LARGE number of the most respectable and prominent members of the community of this city, and a number of distinguished strangers from a distance, mot together at a Banquet on Thursday evening, for the purpose of presenting the Hon. Sir Allan N. MacNab with a splendid service of plate, purchased by subscription.

The Hall was beautifully decorated under the direction of F. J. Rastrick, Esq., and about, 300 gentlemen were present on the occasion,-G. W. Burton, Esq., presiding. the vice chairs being filled by Hugh B. Willson, T. C. Kerr, and F. W. Gates, Esquires.

Among the numerous gentlemen present were W. P. McLaren, Esq., II. McKinstry, Esq., T. C. Street, Esq., Niagara Falls; W. L. Distin, Esq., Col. Askin. London; James Little, Esq., Caledonia; Allen Good, E.q., Warden of Brant; W. Holmes, Esq., Brantford; James Willson, Esq., Ontario; Michael Aikman, Esq., J. F. Moore, Esq., D. Stuari, Esq., Mr. Alderman Martin, Thos. Kerr, Esq., H. B. Willson, Esq., J. D. MacKay, Esq., Adam Brown, Esq., James Osborne, Esq., F. W. Gates, Esq. Calvin Cook, Esq., John Brown, Esq., E. Adams, Esq. London; W. Elliott, Esq., London; Thomas Robertson. Esq., Dundas; W. Miller, Esq., Flamboro' West; J. McNaughton, Esq., Galt; Major Munro, Galt; Mr. Frazer, Galt: John Hoffman, Esq., Waterloo; W. Street, Esq., London; J. T. Gilkison, Esq., C. A, Sudlier, Esq., Col.Macdougall, Mr. Alderman Gray, L. Devany, Esq., T. Branigan, Esq.

After the good things provided by Mr. Davidson had been duly discussed, the Chairman read a considerable number of letters of apology, expressing the great regret of the writers at not being able to be present.

The usual loyal toasts followed, all being drunk with enthusiasm, after which the "health of Louis Napoleon," " the Governor General," the "Alfied Armies and Navies," thanks being returned for the latter by Captain Rettallick on the part of the army, and by Captain Zealand on behalf of the Navy.

The Chairman then read a prepared address on behalf of the testimonial committee, expressing every degree of good wishes and respect, concluding by proposing the "health of Sir A. N. MacNab." The screen being at this moment removed, a view of the splendid plate was opened to the company, who testified their delight by continuous rounds of applause. Sir Allan arose and in the most feeling anner expressed his thanks and the intense gratification he felt. Sir Allan was considerably affected during the delivery of his reply.

After sundry other toasts had been given and replied to, including "the press," which was acknowledged by Mr. Gilleny, Sir Allan finally rose and gave " the momory of the late Robert R. Smiley," which was drunk in solemn silence. This tribute to the memory of an old and valued friend, at a seemed at their zenith, and when no thought save the excitement, of the occasion might be supposed to be present, does the utmost credit to Sir Allan's heart. We trust he may long live to enjoy his honors .-- Hamilton Gazette.

The Churchman's Friend FOR THE DIPPUSION OF INFORMATION

United Church of England and Ireland Her Doctrines and Her Ordinances.

Edited by Clergymen.] [Published Monthly PARIS, 1st OCTOBER, 1855. PROSPECTUS

The Churchman's Friend is intended to supply a want, which, we believe, every Canadian Clergyman must have often and painfully expe-Clergyman must have often and painfally experienced. We cannot perhaps be surprised that in a land where the number of the ministers of the Church is so disproportionate to the population and extent of the country, there should be a lamentable degree of ignorance respecting the history of the Church, lifer decrines, and Her order of the country, there should be a lamentable degree of ignorance respecting the history of the Church, lifer decrines, and Her order of the country of the Church, lifer decrines, and Her order of the country of the Church, lifer decrines, and Her order of the country of the Church, lifer decrines, and Her order of the country of the Church, lifer decrines, and Her order of the Skin Blotches on Fits the Skin Gont Bowel Compite there we must needs apeak on more gloricous themes, and preach the glad tidines of our landings tion of Bowels Liver. Common telemption. The Churchman's Priend has been projected to meet this difficulty: it is in ended literally to fulfil the promise made in the title; namely, to convey information, relaming the belief of the following completes and the foll tive to the subjects ind cated. The Thoology which we wish to impart is apt-ly and honestly expressed in the first motion which we placed at the head of our publication, Quod semper, quod ubique, quod ab omnibus creditum est, tenenmus. "Let us hold fast that, which always, which every where, which by all has been betteved," for that only is the faith of the Catholic Church. While the temper and spirit in which we desire to convey these truths, is with equal simplicity and correctness indicated by our second morto, In necessaries Unitas, in dubiis liberatas, in omnibus caritas.

'In necessary things unity, in doubtful things liberty, in all things charity."

With this object in view, we purpose to issue, for the present, one number monthly, commenc-ing on the 1st October; but we hope con-siderably to enlarge, or to publish more fre-quently, as soon as we receive the requisite amount of encouragement. A large proportion of each number will be filled with original matter in the form of short tracts, dialogues, and tales wich, with anecdotes, scraps of information and other elections, all strictly tending to illustrate the principles we wish to advocate, will make up the contents. While we hope to offer matter sufficiently interesting as to make it not without value even to the more highly educated, it will be our endeavour to clothe it in such plain and simple language, as to render our little publica somple language, as to render our little publica-tion a welcome visitor in the farm bouse and the cottage, and a source of pleasure, as well as profit to both young and old. For the young especi-ally, some portion of our space will always be set apart; and we venture to suggest to clergymer and superintendents of Sunday Schools, the adrantage of encouraging their elderly scholars to avail themselves of the reduced terms offered to those who subscribe for a number of copies.— They vill thus be furnishing the young persons committed to their charge with a supply of reading, at once sound in its teaching and attractive in character, and at the same time be lightening in character, and at the same time be lightening their own labor.

We beg particluarly to call attention to our terms of publication, from which it will be seen that eight copies will be forwarded to one address for fifteen shillings, currency, a year, and fifteen copies for £1 five shillings. But as these sumare so small that they will not pay for the trouble of collocting, it is absolutely necessary that all subscriptions be paid in advance.

To Professor Holloway,
Sir,—I desire to add my testimony to the value of your Pills, in case of dropsy. For nine months I suffered the greatest torture with this distressing complaint; was tapped three times, and finally given up by the doctors; having become in appearance as a skeleton, and having no more strength in me than a child just born.—It was then that I thought of trying your Pilla and immediately sent for a quantity, and commenced using them. The result I can searcely vered in To-by
