EXCELLENCY,

I. I have the honour to refer to the exchange of Notes between Canada and the United States of America of November 22nd and December 20th, 1944,* which constituted an agreement concerning the post-war disposition of United States defence projects in Canada, and to recent discussions concerning the disposal of United States excess property in Canada.

II. Under instructions from my Government, I have the honour to make the following proposals for the disposal of such United States property in Canada as has been or may be determined to be excess by United States Government agencies, and has been or may be so reported, as provided hereinafter:

1. The Government of the United States shall remove from Canada all of its property which it desires to retain.
2. The Government of Canada may arrange through its appropriate governmental agencies for the purchase from the Government of the United States of any remaining property which it the Government of Canada may wish to obtain for its own use and disposition, such purchases being made directly by the Canadian Government agencies concerned, and not through Crown Assets Disposal Corporation.
3. All other excess property shall be sold or disposed of by Crown Assets Disposal Corporation (CADC), an agency of the Canadian Government, in accordance with the following procedure:
 - (a) The United States reporting agencies shall provide reports of excess property on CADC designated forms. These reports of information in accordance with CADC Equipment and Material Codes, and such other information as may be mutually agreed.
 - (b) The United States reporting agencies will on the report of excess transfer all right, title and interest in the property to CADC, which will accept the transfer of such property subject to physical inspection.
