

II- DIRECTORY OF CANADIAN EXPERTISE (OTHER ACADEMICS AND CONSULTANTS)

Professor: Neil Boyd

School of Criminology, Simon Fraser University

Address: 8888 University Drive, Room WMC 2630, Burnaby, B.C. V5A 1S6

Email: nboyd@sfu.ca

Telephone: (604) 291-3324 / Fax (604) 291-4140

Areas of expertise relevant to 2001 UN Conference on Small Arms:

- Research on crime, particularly homicide
- Laws, regulations and administrative procedures to ensure control over national inventories
- Cross cultural comparisons
- Related policies (eg. drug trafficking and abuse)

Director and Professor: Rosemary Gartner

Center of Criminology, University of Toronto

Address: 130 Saint-George Street, Room 8001, Toronto, ON, M5S 3H1

Telephone: 416-978-7124 / Fax: 416-978-4195

Areas of expertise relevant to 2001 UN Conference on Small Arms:

- Cross cultural research on legislation
- Cultural effects of laws
- Vulnerable groups (women)
- Laws, regulations and administrative procedures to ensure control over national inventories

Consultant: Peggy Mason

Peggy Mason International Consulting Services

Address: 2077 Kinburn Side Road, RR#2, Kinburn, Ontario, K0A 2H0

Email: peggymason@on.aibn.com

Telephone: (613) 832-9322 / Fax: (613) 832-9323

Areas of expertise relevant to 2001 UN Conference on Small Arms:

On an individual project basis, I work with governments, the United Nations and individual NGOs. During the process culminating in the UN SALW Programme of Action, I was an Advisor to the DFAIT, chair of the UN Expert Group that did a background study for the Conference and a member of an NGO, The Eminent Persons Group.

Professor: Tom Naylor

Department of Political Science, McGill University

Address: 855 Sherbrooke Street West Montréal, Québec, H3A 2T7

Email: naylor@leacock.lan.mcgill.ca

Telephone: (514) 398-4828

Areas of expertise relevant to 2001 UN Conference on Small Arms

Illicit Trafficking / Brokerage -- Role of Organized Crime

Professor Naylor's research concerns include: international black markets, smuggling, money laundering and enterprise crime. He consults for and lectures to government agencies involved in tax and criminal justice enforcement issues and to forensic accounting firms involved in investigating financial fraud. His work appears regularly in, among other journals, "Crime, Law and Social Change", of which he is also a senior editor. He has recently been appointed senior fellow of the University of Toronto Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies and visiting research associate at the York University Nathanson Centre for the Study of Organized Crime and Corruption.

Professor: Tim Quigley

College of Law, University of Saskatchewan

Address: 15 Campus Dr., Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, S7N 5A6

Email: tim.quigley@usask.ca

Telephone: (306) 966-5884 / Fax: (306) 966-5900

Areas of expertise relevant to 2001 UN Conference on Small Arms: