

[15m]

are going to want to keep retaining themselves. If they are large enough to do so and relying on the public authorities if they are not... (The text continues with a discussion on public authorities and their role in maintaining themselves.)

Mr. ... I do not think the politicians will have any more provision for people proceeding away from a job for a year. In the main, it may be good at that job and they do... (The text continues with a speech by Mr. ... discussing political provisions and job security.)

[17m]

constamment se remettre à jour et ils sont assez gros pour le faire... (The text continues with a speech discussing the need to constantly update oneself and the size of the entities involved.)

... (The text continues with a speech discussing various aspects of development and social progress.)

1555

... (The text continues with a speech discussing social progress and development.)

... (The text continues with a speech discussing social progress and development.)

... (The text continues with a speech discussing social progress and development.)

... (The text continues with a speech discussing social progress and development.)