

Commercial Law.

A course of 25 lectures on the general principles of commercial law, specially designed to render service to the business man, banker, and accountant in their everyday transactions, and to help students who may be preparing for any of the examinations held in connection with the Association of Accountants in the Province of Quebec.

The subject is taken up from a practical point of view, with illustrations from actual cases, and the lectures deal with the questions that are likely to arise in the ordinary course of business.

The matter treated is as follows:—Persons and their capacity to contract—minors, married women, and other persons whose capacity is limited; the different kinds of property; the general principles of contracts; payment, and other methods in which debts are extinguished; the sale of goods; the lease and hire of property; the lease and hire of services; building contracts; carriers by land and water; agency; hypothec; pledge; contracts of guarantee; bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments; partnership; corporations; banking; rights of creditors over a debtor's property; privileges; insolvency law.

Each lecture lasts an hour and a half, and is complete in itself. The course is open to the public, both men and women.
Tuesdays, at 7.45 p.m.

Fee for the course, $10.
Mr. Dale Harris.
