

C. TUPPER, son of Rev. Charles Tupper, D.D., studied at Horton Academy; admitted M.D. Edin. For many years M.P.P. for Cumberland, and for several years Provincial Secretary. M.P. for Cumberland since 1867, part of which time he has been a member of the Dominion Government.

S. FITCH practises in New York.

EDWARD YOUNG, a native of Falmouth, was one of the earliest pupils in Horton Academy; Superintendent of the Bureau of Statistics at Washington; Donor of GOLD MEDAL for proficiency in the Higher Mathematics.

W. ELDER, studied at Horton Academy and took part of the course at Acadia; then studied at Harvard; was afterwards Professor of Natural Science in Acadia College; At present Professor of Natural Science in Colby University.

J. DAVIS, ordained January 13th 1829, at Portsea, England; Ministered successfully to several churches in that country; came to America in 1845, and became pastor of a church in New Jersey; removed to the Provinces, and after ministering to several churches accepted the pastoral charge of the church in Charlottetown, P. E. I., where he spent the closing years of his life. Died August 14th, 1875.

C. E. GOODSPEED, graduate of Fredericton University; afterwards Principal of the Baptist Seminary in Fredericton; graduate of Newton, and at present Pastor of the Baptist Church at Woodstock, Ont.

J. B. CALKIN, one of the first graduates of the Provincial Normal School; subsequently Principal of the High School, Truro; for a short time Inspector of Schools in Kings County; then Professor in, and afterwards Principal of the Normal School, which position he still fills.

D. W. C. DIMOCK, matriculated at Acadia College in 1838; ordained at Chester, December 6th, 1841; for many years pastor of the Onslow and Truro Baptist Churches; at present Pastor of the Billtown Church.

C. DUFF, Congregational Minister at Brooklyn, Queen's Co., and for some years Government Inspector of Schools for said county.

List of persons admitted Ad Eundem.

1861 Thomas A. Hill, M.A., (Rochester, N. Y.) Waterford.

1862 L. Younghusband, M.A.

1865 Geo. M. W. Carey, M.A., (Rochester, N. Y.) St. John, N. B.

G. M. W. CAREY, ordained at St. Catherine, Ont. July, 1856. At present and for some years pastor of the Germain Street Baptist Church, St. John, N. B.

NOTE.—The Executive Committee request Alumni to point out to the Secretary any errors or omissions they may observe in the foregoing lists so that the same may be made more complete and correct in future publications.