

lected for them may be deemed worth burning,
I beg leave most cordially to wish them

“A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.”

N.B. As the foot-notes in these volumes contain nothing but translations—for the assistance of those who do not understand French—of the sentences to which they refer, the general reader may ride over them without notice.
